Jerry Colangelo

Managing General Partner

Arizona Diamondbacks

Serving as the architect of a franchise that recorded the greatest single-season turnaround in major league baseball history should not come as a big surprise to those who know Jerry Colangelo. He arrived in the Valley of the Sun in 1968 as the youngest general manager in the NBA, and after dedicating 32 years of his life to the success of sports in the Southwest, he was named by The Arizona Republic the most influential sports figure in Arizona during the 20th century.

An intensely competitive individual, Colangelo led the charge in the one-year turnaround of the Diamondbacks, earmarking ownership dollars for the acquisition of key ingredients to a club that went from 65 wins in its inaugural campaign to 100 victories and a National League Western Division crown in just its second year. The 35-game turnover was just one of the firsts that also included the fastest expansion team to reach the century mark in wins and the fastest expansion team by six years to win a division title.

A highly visible leader, his typical day during the baseball season commences at America West Arena in the early morning and winds up well into the night at Bank One Ballpark. Despite the hectic schedule, Colangelo is available to the field staff, the players and the media on a daily basis. He is so highly regarded in the region, Jerry served as the Honorary Grand Marshal for the 2000 Fiesta Bowl Parade.

The Diamondbacks are the second expansion success story of Colangelo's distinguished career, establishing his reputation in athletics with the Phoenix Suns, climbing through that organization to his present status as Chairman, CEO and Managing General Partner. He has been behind the construction of two of the top venues in professional sports, first spearheading the effort to build America West Arena, then leading the charge for Bank One Ballpark, a necessary commodity for Major League Baseball to grant a franchise to the Valley.

"Losing" is not part of his vocabulary, typifying his upbringing in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. As a youth he was one of the top pitchers on a team that also featured the talents of future New York Yankee Jim Bouton. On the hardwood, Colangelo captured All-State honors, leading Bloom Township to a 49-8 mark and two appearances in the Illinois State Tournament. His athleticism led to 66 college scholarship offers for basketball and seven for professional baseball contracts. He was remembered to the neighborhood with the dedication of the Jerry Colangelo Gymnasium at Bloom Township on November 10, 1996.

He initially selected the University of Kansas, but transferred to the University of Illinois after prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, chose to sign professionally. A high school arm injury to Colangelo limited his playing career to just two seasons of baseball at Illinois, thus his athletic focus turned to hoops. He earned All-Big Ten honors for the Illini, averaging 15 points a game, served as team captain as a senior and was an eventual inductee in the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame.

Colangelo's professional career in athletics began with the Chicago Bulls as head scout and director of merchandising in 1966. Just two years later, at the age of 28, he made the move to Phoenix, becoming the youngest general manager in professional sports, taking over the reins of the expansion Suns. He held that role until October, 1987, when he led a group of investors that purchased the Suns franchise for $44.5 million, and he has served as the team CEO since.

In 1993, the same year he earned an unprecedented fourth NBA Executive of the Year award, Colangelo began assembling yet another group of investors that would eventually convince the expansion committee that big league baseball was not just a spring fling in the Valley.

The assertive and confident style of management that directed the Suns to seven consecutive 50-win seasons, and three appearances in the Western Conference finals, was now headed to another major sport. On behalf of the potential ownership group, he negotiated a deal with the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors that enabled the county to fund $238 million toward the construction of what is now Bank One Ballpark. During the same time frame, he helped facilitate the relocation of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets, now the Phoenix Coyotes, arranging the lease agreement for major league hockey in America West Arena.

Baseball fans throughout the Southwest now have an opportunity to watch Jerry Colangelo operate the Diamondbacks in the same manner that made the Suns one of the most admired franchises in all of sports. He jumped at the opportunity to name Buck Showalter as the manager of a team that would not take the field for two seasons. Never one to stand idle, Colangelo took advantage of the timing of the former Yankee skipper's availability and put him in Arizona pinstripes.

Under Colangelo's aggressive approach and watchful eye, the Diamondbacks signed free agents Travis Lee and John Patterson when they became available after the 1996 amateur draft. Hard work and a winning attitude has been a way of life for Colangelo, and those characteristics have been instilled throughout the Diamondbacks' organization. A tour of Bank One Ballpark or America West Arena provide insight at the first class way that Colangelo wishes his franchises to be perceived, not only by the athletes who call Phoenix home, but the opposition as well.

The respect and presence that Jerry Colangelo established in the NBA quickly surfaced around his brethren in Major League Baseball, as he serves on both the Legislative Committee and Equal Opportunity Committee.

A man who believes in commitment, not only professionally, but within the community, Colangelo has distinguished himself as one of the Valley's most active community leaders. The list of his "off-field" activities reads like a veritable who's who in the region. He is on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Art Museum, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Phoenix Community Alliance and Phoenix Suns Charities. He serves as vice president of the Phoenix Downtown Partnership and is chairman of Southwest Leadership Foundation. He is a lifetime member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an organization dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports and the driving force of the Phoenix Open golf tournament, easily the most attended single sporting event in the country. He is past chairman of Arizona State University's Dean's Council of 100, on the Honor Board for Junior Achievement of Central Arizona and is chairman of the board for the Christian Businessmen's Club. Colangelo also currently sits on the Board of Directors for U.S. West, and is the director and principal partner of Stratford American Corporation, a real estate development company. He is a former president of Valley Big Brothers.

Colangelo and his wife, Joan, whom he met on a blind date while at the University of Illinois, have raised a family of four children that now includes nine grandchildren. The Colangelo family includes daughters Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker and Mandie Okyere, and son, Bryan, who also maintains the Colangelo name on the basketball side, serving as the Suns' president and general manager.

Though his time is always at a premium, he managed to find time to author a book, titled "How You Play the Game," giving insight into the world of the business of sports. Proceeds of the book sales go to YoungLife of Arizona, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and Phoenix Suns Charities.

Jerry Colangelo shares the dais with Randy Johnson at the press conference introducing the "Big Unit" as the 1999 National League Cy Young Award winner.

Richard H. Dozer
President

The day-to-day operation at Bank One Ballpark is led by an individual who was raised in a baseball environment, but had to wait until "The Show" reached the Valley to get his opportunity to work in the business. Named President of the Diamondbacks on March 9, 1995, Rich Dozer has established a family atmosphere in the offices, which is appropriate since it was family that exposed him to the big leagues as a youth. Rich's father, the late Dick Dozer, made his living at baseball stadiums around the country, covering both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox for the Chicago Tribune. Regarded as one of the top sportswriters in the nation, Dick made the most out of the chance to spend time with his son, taking him to spring training, where he lived out any young man's dream, serving as a bat boy for each team.

The family aspect has not been lost on the younger Dozer, who has instilled that quality on all who have come aboard from other organizations. His unpretentious, open-door way of leadership has made the Diamondback front office one of the most comfortable and successful franchises in sports. His heart was never more exposed than last October when he asked Dwight Patterson to throw out the first pitch prior to the first Division Series game ever played in Bank One Ballpark. Patterson, who lured the Chicago Cubs to the Valley over 50 years ago to start what is now the Cactus League, was one of the most popular sports figures in Arizona. Sadly, the ceremonial first pitch was one of Patterson's final great memories as the Arizona legend passed away just three days later.

In joining the Diamondbacks, Dozer merely had to change his Jefferson street address from America West Arena to Bank One Ballpark. He was the ideal candidate for the job, possessing the knowledge of the inner workings of a Jerry Colangelo run sports franchise after working for nine seasons with the Phoenix Suns. Dozer joined the NBA franchise in July 1987 as business manager, and climbed the corporate ladder to Vice President and Chief Operating Officer by June of 1989. Responsibilities varied from accounting, finance, ticketing, office administration, insurance, and arena financing and operations.

He was also the President of America West Arena and was involved in that facility's development.

Dozer is a Certified Public Accountant, spending eight years in the Phoenix office of Arthur Andersen, where he specialized as an audit manager for clients in sports, hospitality and retail industries.

Nothing could have prepared Dozer for one responsibility he has assumed as Diamondbacks' team President. He has the unenviable task of making the call on opening or closing the roof on a daily basis. The roof position affects the playing conditions on the field, as well as the temperatures for the fans seated in the stands at field level, suite level, and the upper decks. The daily timing of the roof closure is vital to ensure that enough sunlight reaches the grass to keep it growing, and the ballpark stays cool enough to allow the air conditioning to make the ballpark comfortable by game time.

Much like Colangelo, Dozer's role is not just about the team, but about community as well. He serves on several boards, including Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, Phoenix & Valley of the Sun Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Goodwill Industries Honor Board. He is an active member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an arm of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce that stages the Phoenix Open each year as part of its commitment to promoting the city through sports. Dozer is also a member of the Young President's Organization and the Phoenix Civic Plaza - Strategic Planning Task Force. He's also on the board of the YMCA, the Dean's Council of 100 for the Arizona State University College of Business, the Arizona Tourism Alliance and the Phoenix Community Alliance.

He possesses a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona, graduating in 1979. Rich has an eight-year old daughter, Danielle, and he and his wife Karie welcomed daughter Laura Grace into the world last spring. They make their home in Phoenix.

Taking advantage of every available resource, Joe Garagiola and his staff assembled the fastest division winner in major league history with the 100-win campaign in the franchise's second season. Featuring players from the expansion draft, trades, free agency and the amateur draft, the Diamondbacks jelled as a team quicker than any previous expansion effort, winning a division title six years sooner any other first-year franchise. Garagiola's work did not go unnoticed, finishing third in Executive-of-the-Year balloting.

After the D'Backs kicked off their franchise with a 65-win season, Garagiola immediately went to work to overhaul the roster, signing key free agents that included the likes of Randy Johnson and Steve Finley, each of whom won awards for their 1999 efforts, as well as adding Todd Stottlemyre, Greg Swindell, Armando Reynoso and Greg Colbrunn. Following the recruitment of free agents, Garagiola went to work with other GM's, procuring key pieces to the puzzle via the trade route. His first major trade acquisition came from Detroit, as the Diamondbacks received Luis Gonzalez and cash considerations from the Tigers in exchange for Karim Garcia. The veteran Gonzalez had such a breakout first half of the season, including his first All-Star appearance, that Garagiola presented him with a three-year contract extension in August.

As spring training unfolded, Arizona was still in search of a bonafide leadoff hitter, and Garagiola delivered during the second week of camp acquiring Tony Womack from Pittsburgh in exchange for a pair of minor leaguers. Womack came as advertised, leading the National League in stolen bases for the third straight year.

Once the '99 campaign was underway the Diamondbacks hovered near the top in the N.L. West, but it became apparent that more bullpen help was a necessity. Garagiola researched all avenues and decided it was worth the risk of dealing three prospects to Florida for closer Matt Mantei. The arrival of Mantei solidified the relief corps to the point where the Arizona bullpen finished with the second best ERA in the National League.

There's a saying that some of your best trades are the ones you don't make, and it ran true with pitcher Brian Anderson, who was thought to be on the outside looking in entering the 1999 season. Joe never received a proper compensation offer and Anderson contributed an 8-2 record to the championship season. Anderson and Womack were each rewarded for their efforts with multi-year deals last winter.

While turnover has been high since the inaugural squad took the field on March 31, 1998, Garagiola and his staff can take pride in their expansion draft effort. The Diamondbacks entered year 2000 with eight players remaining from the original 35 selections, including Russ Springer, who returned as a free agent last winter. While eight have survived, Garagiola has used nine others from the draft as part of trades that have featured the acquisition of Gonzalez, Womack, Andy Fox, Bernard Gilkey, Darren Holmes, Dan Plesac and Matt Williams.

Garagiola joined the Diamondbacks in March, 1995, when the franchise was awarded to the region, but it was his work on the Arizona Baseball Commission that served as a driving force in procuring major league baseball for the Valley. He served as vice-chairman of the Governor's Cactus League Task Force, and was a member of the Mayor's Professional Baseball Committee. From there he branched out to the Maricopa County Sports Authority, serving as chairman. Garagiola was also chairman of the Arizona Baseball Commission, the group best known for completing the task of convincing existing major league clubs that Phoenix and the region were ready to possess their own club.

His work in major league baseball dates back to the 1970's, when he was the general counsel and assistant to the president of the New York Yankees. Garagiola made his move to the Valley in 1982, applying his law practice to the firm of Gallagher and Kennedy. His concentration was on sports law, and he was the chairman of the Phoenix Metropolitan Sports Foundation from 1985-87.

As is a constant throughout the Diamondbacks' organization, Joe also has ties within the community, serving on the Board of Directors of the America West Airlines Educational Foundation and the Phoenix Memorial Hospital. Joe also was the 1998 recipient of the prestigious Institute of Human Relations Award from the American Jewish Committee.

Joe graduated from Notre Dame University in South Bend, IN, earning a B.A. cum laude in 1972. He earned his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1975), and is admitted to practice law in Arizona, California and New York. He and his wife, Noel, have four children, Meredith, Valerie, Natalie and Christopher, and make their home in Scottsdale.

D'Back Dealings

Entering the 2000 spring camp of the Diamondbacks, Joe Garagiola and his staff had engineered 35 trades on both the major and minor league level, involving 80 different players. A flurry of activity took place immediately following the expansion draft on November 18, 1997, when 5 players drafted by Arizona were shipped to various clubs in a matter of minutes.

Roland Hemond

Senior Executive Vice President

When the Diamondbacks began piecing together their baseball operations department, they had the ability to hire one of baseball's top executives in Roland Hemond. He came to Arizona after an eight-year stint as general manager of the Baltimore Orioles. Now in his sixth decade in major league baseball, the veteran Hemond has been there to advise, assist and represent the baseball department in a variety of ways. Not only a valuable asset in the daily operation of the baseball department, he is a nationally known ambassador of our game and highly sought after speaker.

A three-time winner of major league baseball's Executive of the Year award, he has now been a part of five of the greatest turnarounds in big league history, culminating with last year's 35-win about face by the Diamondbacks. Hemond was in charge of the Orioles in 1992 when they made a 22-game jump in the standings, and the 1989 club that improved 32 1/2 games over the previous year

Hemond's career in baseball began in 1951 as a member of the front office of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs. Upon completion of his first season, he was promoted to the parent Boston Braves, then accompanied the franchise when it moved to Milwaukee. He was named the scouting and farm director of the 1961 Los Angeles Angels, following former Braves manager Fred Haney to the coast.

Hemond remained in California until 1970, when he took over as director of major league player personnel for the Chicago White Sox. At the same time, the Sox put Chuck Tanner in charge of the troops on the field as manager, after serving as the skipper for the Angels' AAA club in Hawaii, while Hemond was with California. The Hemond and Tanner tandem proved potent, as the Sox finished third and second, respectively, in their first two seasons on the job. The 87-67 record for Chicago in 1972 was strong enough to earn Hemond the first of his three Executive of the Year awards.

It was with the White Sox that Roland had the opportunity to work for one of the greatest innovators in baseball, owner Bill Veeck. The veteran Veeck promoted Hemond to vice president of the White Sox in 1976, a position he maintained until 1981, when Veeck sold the club. New owners Jerry Reinsdorf and Eddie Einhorn kept Hemond on board, promoting him to executive vice president of baseball operations.

The 1983 White Sox won the Western Division by a record 20 games, the largest winning margin in either league since the advent of division play in 1969, once again earning Hemond the Executive of the Year honor. In '85 the White Sox named broadcaster Ken Harrelson the G.M., thus moving Hemond into a consulting role. Seven months later he joined the commissioner's office for a two-year stint before heading to Baltimore.

It was with the Orioles that Hemond once again worked his magic, putting together a club that would struggle in 1988, but then produce the 32 1/2-game turnaround the following season. Roland left the Orioles after the 1995 season. He negotiated 135 trades involving 428 players during his stints in Chicago and Baltimore.

Roland is a native of Central Falls, RI, and he and wife, Margo, have five children, Susan, Tere, Robert, Jay and Ryan. In marrying Roland, Margo was no stranger to professional sports, as her father, John Quinn, was a major league general manager for 28 seasons. Her brother, Bob, was the general manager of the San Francisco Giants through the 1996 season, and her other brother, Jack, was president of the National Hockey League's St. Louis Blues after serving in the GM capacity for the PCL's Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties.

Sandy Johnson

Assistant General Manager

Sandy Johnson is in his second full season as Assistant General Manager, but has been on board since preparation began to draft and sign the first group of players who made up the original Diamondbacks. Originally on board as a major league scout and Special Assistant to the General Manager, Sandy played an integral part in the preparation for the expansion draft, supplying a lifetime of knowledge and scouting experience.

Signing out of high school with the Pirates' organization, Sandy played 10 minor league seasons. He joined the scouting staff of the Seattle Pilots in 1969, then managed for three seasons in that chain while they made the move to Milwaukee, which included a Midwest League title with Danville in 1971.

After serving as a full-time scout for the Brewers in 1973-74, Sandy joined the Major League Scouting Bureau, serving as the Eastern Supervisor until 1981. He then joined the San Diego Padres as their Director of Scouting working there through the championship season of '84. While with the Padres, Johnson's ability to recognize and sign talent began to show in earnest, with the signings of youngsters Benito Santiago, Mitch Williams and Sandy Alomar, Jr.

The who's who of signings continued as his career moved to Texas, working in a variety of player personnel positions, including Assistant General Manager. While with the Rangers, Sandy was instrumental in acquiring the MVP honorees Juan Gonzalez, Pudge Rodriguez, Sammy Sosa and pitcher Kevin Brown.

Raised in South San Gabriel, CA, Sandy was inducted into the RBI (Reviving Baseball in Innercities) Hall of Fame in February, 1999, joining a list of prestigious previous honorees that include Duke Snider, Eddie Murray, Tom Lasorda and Ozzie Smith.

Sandy and his wife, Linda, make their home in Phoenix. They have three children, Matthew, Bethany Gehrman and Dane, and three grandsons, Stefan and Leo Gehrman, and Lars Johnson. A baseball family, Sandy's younger brother, Tim, is working as an advance scout for the Milwaukee Brewers.

Mel Didier

Senior Assistant to the General Manager

After spending two years getting the minor league operation on its feet, Mel Didier assumed the role of Senior Assistant to the General Manager prior to the 1999 campaign. He brings 31 years of talent evaluation in professional baseball to the position as he scouts talent of other organizations.

Arizona's expansion experience was not a first for Mel, who was the Director of Scouting and Baseball Operations for two previous expansion clubs, the '69 Montreal Expos and the '77 Seattle Mariners. He then joined the Cleveland Indians for three seasons as their west coast scouting supervisor (1979-81). He followed that with a 15-year stint with the Dodgers as a major league and special assignment scout .

A star athlete at Louisiana State University, Didier played both baseball and football for the Tigers, then pitched in the Detroit organization until an arm injury ended his playing career. Mel proved his diversity by serving as an assistant football coach at LSU for head coach Charlie McClendon. He also served as athletic director and baseball coach at the University of Southwestern Louisiana (1981-82). While spending 15 years as a Louisiana high school coach in both baseball and football, Mel did double-time scouting for Detroit, Milwaukee and Atlanta.

A highly regarded motivational speaker, Mel donates his time to deliver the message about surviving prostate cancer, a disease he kicked a few years ago. His presentation, "A Moment in Time," is on behalf of the Walt Disney Memorial Cancer Institute at Florida Hospital.

Mel and his wife, Helene, make their home in the Phoenix area. Mel has four children, Mel Jr., Robert, Synthia and Lori, who have combined to provide 11 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mike Rizzo

Director of Scouting

While the Diamondbacks were distancing themselves from the rest of the Western Division, the organization was looking to fill an opening in the Baseball Department, completing that task with the September hiring of Mike Rizzo as Director of Scouting. The appointment came from within, as Rizzo served the organization as a national supervisor for the central region. He joined the Diamondbacks in November 1998 after working for six years for the Boston Red Sox, with duties ranging from area supervisor, international scout and major league advance scout. Rizzo's scouting career began in 1987 with the Chicago White Sox, working for six seasons as an area scout. During that time, he signed a youngster named Frank Thomas, who became the American League's MVP in 1993 and 1994. Rizzo was honored by the Chicago Pitch and Hit Club with its Scouting Excellence Award in 1993.

Prior to joining the scouting world, Rizzo played professionally in the California Angels' organization from 1982-85.

Mike and his wife, Sheilah, have a son, Michael Jr. (2/15/90) and make their home in Phoenix.

Tommy Jones

Director of Minor League Operations

Tommy Jones has a variety of responsibilities that run year-round, including coordination between minor league general managers, field managers, coaches and trainers. A field manager at virtually every minor league level, Tommy Jones recognizes the necessities of a minor league franchise and assists each individual club in their needs. Prior to making the permanent move into Arizona's front office, he managed the Rookie League Lethbridge club in 1997.

Jones came to Arizona after a 12-year minor league managerial career that included seven Manager-of-the-Year honors.

After concluding a minor league playing career that spanned six seasons (1976-81), Tommy went to work as a manager in the Kansas City organization. It was an eventful five years in the Royals' chain, from managing Bo Jackson in his first professional season at Memphis to being a member of the big league coaching staff the year that Kansas City won the World Series in 1985.

Jones' minor league travelogue also included stops in the organizations of the Yankees, Seattle Mariners, Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs, managing in each chain. He also got his first taste of serving as an administrator with the Cubs as their minor league coordinator.

Jones has a B.A. degree in pre-law studies from the University of Pacific, where he played collegiately. He and wife, Joan, have two children, Sarah and Tyler, and make their home in Phoenix.

Bob Miller

Assistant Director of Scouting

Bob Miller joined the Diamondbacks immediately after the inaugural season, bringing 16 years of minor league operation knowledge and outstanding computer skills to his role as Assistant Director of Scouting. His role with Arizona not only encompasses assistance in Scouting, but Bob also assists the Baseball Department in a variety of responsibilities. Prior to arriving in the Valley, he was the Executive General Manager of the Amarillo Dillas of the independent Texas-Louisiana League, joining the organization prior to the '98 season, after a year as the Director of Baseball Operations in the league's Abilene (TX) office.

Prior to his work in the Texas-Louisiana League, Miller spent 14 seasons with the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, serving in a variety of roles. He began with the National Association in 1983 as the Director of Records and Computer Operations, overseeing the free agent program, reserve lists, qualification register, approval of Rule 4 Draft signings, free agent signings and rules interpretations. In 1994, he was named the Executive Director of Business and Finance, supervising the Minor League commissioner's office finances. It was then that he developed the website, www.minorleaguebaseball.com.

A Florida native, Bob graduated with a B.S. in Finance cum laude from the University of South Florida, earning "Outstanding Student" honors of the graduating class by an alumni and administration committee. He and his wife, Chris, make their home in Phoenix.

Roger Riley

Director of Baseball Administration & Team Travel

Roger's role was expanded last season, continuing to make all team travel arrangements, while also assisting the baseball operations department when the needs arise regarding player movement and computer work. He made the move to Arizona after eight seasons with the San Diego Padres.

While the game of baseball is on hold during the winter, Riley needs the "off-season" to have all of the hotels and charter aircraft booked long before the following year begins. He must also arrange for ground transportation in each city and make sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Roger is also in charge of dispensing meal money to the traveling party, and handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the Diamondbacks also includes work on the schedule, and making sure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs and coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members as they prepare for the six-week stay in Tucson.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and has spent the last 18 years with a variety of network television assignments, including the Bowl Championship Series game in the Sugar Bowl last January. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Roger was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the '96 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with the General Manager. He and his wife, Donna, have three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and make their home in Chandler.

Diamondback Business Vice Presidents

Scott Brubaker

Senior Vice President of Marketing and Sales

Scott Brubaker made the trek "across the street" from America West Arena and with him came a successful marketing run that is now being applied to the Diamondbacks. His responsibilities feature the supervision in a variety of areas including overall management of the sales and marketing effort, corporate sponsorships, luxury suite sales, broadcasting, community affairs, Hispanic marketing and Tucson operations. None of Scott's chores are new to him, as he gained valuable experience during his time with the Phoenix Suns and America West Arena.

Brubaker held dual positions prior to moving to baseball, working as Director of Marketing for the America West Arena and Director of Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports. Talk about diversity, he was responsible for the marketing of the Arizona Rattlers in the Arena Football League, the NHL Desert Series "out of venue" hockey games, the World Championship Boxing shows and various other sporting events and exhibitions.

His current supervision of suite sales is nothing new, as he was responsible for marketing America West Arena's 87 luxury suites, the in-arena advertising and other premium seating. Scott originally joined the Suns in 1986 as a sales and marketing representative after graduating from the University of Illinois.

Scott stays active away from the office, serving as a member of the Fiesta Bowl Committee, the North Central Committee for Young Life of Arizona, on the board of Gompers Center for the Handicapped, the American Cancer Society Chairman's Circle and the Arizona Diamondbacks Charities board. An avid, and outstanding golfer, Scott and his wife, Krissie, have four children, daughters Hilary, Heather and Hannah, and son, Jayce.

Dianne Aguilar

Vice President of Tickets and Special Services

Dianne has brought over 20 years of ticketing experience to the Diamondbacks, which includes an impressive array of sporting events in the Valley. She supervised ticketing for Arizona State's 1987 Rose Bowl appearance, the NBA Finals, the opening of America West Arena and the NBA All-Star Game.

Born in Phoenix and a graduate of both Tempe High School and Arizona State University, her ticketing career began in the Athletic Ticket Office of ASU during her days as a student in 1976. While still a student, she was promoted to ticket manager and during her tenure, the Sun Devils played in the '87 Rose Bowl and Sun Devil Stadium was expanded to its current size.

In 1990, Dianne was named ticket manager for the Phoenix Suns and was later named Director of Ticket Operations for the move to America West Arena. One of her monumental tasks was determining seating assignments for season ticket holders from Veterans Memorial Coliseum into the new facility. This was a skill that came in handy during the seat selection process for the opening of Bank One Ballpark.

Dianne's favorite sport, baseball, was the one she had not worked and she jumped at the chance to join the Diamondbacks as V.P. of Ticket Operations and Special Services. Her responsibilities include supervision of all ticketing, the luxury suites at Bank One Ballpark, guest services and working with the ADA (American Disabilities Act) to ensure the stadium is handicap accessible.

Blake Edwards

Vice President of Sales

Blake joined the Diamondbacks during the initial start-up phase in March of 1995, joining the club as Director of Sales and Marketing, but his outstanding effort at the outset was rewarded as 1998 began with the promotion to Vice President of Sales. His primary responsibilities include working closely with Scott Brubaker in the supervising of corporate sponsorship sales, luxury suite sales, season ticket and group ticket sales and general team marketing.

Edwards spent eight years with the Phoenix Suns as a sales manager and account executive. His work was not exclusive to the Suns, as he also had responsibilities with the America West Arena, the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League, the Arizona Sandsharks of the Continental Indoor Soccer League and the Phoenix Smash of World Team Tennis.

A native of Tucson, Blake made the trip up Interstate 10 to Arizona State University, earning his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing in 1987 and a Masters of Business Administration in 1994. He is involved with various community activities including the Fiesta Bowl Committee, the Board of Directors of the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Phoenix Metropolitan Boys and Girls Clubs Executive Council.

Blake and his wife, Kendall, had a son last spring, Cade, and they make their home in Scottsdale.

Mark Fernandez

Vice President of Community Affairs

Mark made the return trip to Phoenix last August after spending the better part of three years in Tucson as Director of Operations for the spring training site of the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox. He represented both clubs in the development and construction of Tucson Electric Park while establishing a marketing and community presence in southern Arizona. His new responsibilities include continuing of the Tucson and southern Arizona operation, as well as supervising all Diamondback community programs, while also serving as Executive Director of Diamondback Charities.

Joining the Arizona office of the Diamondbacks was a homecoming for Fernandez, who joined the America West Arena/Phoenix Suns organization in January, 1992, serving as Director of Marketing and Booking for the arena, setting numerous attendance records for national touring events. Mark also supervised guest services and was Director of Game Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports.

Fernandez and his wife, Trudie, and children, Grace, Jamie and Eden, make their home in Phoenix.

Scott Geyer

Vice President of Broadcasting

A wintertime promotion to Vice President of Broadcasting was a well-deserved honor for Scott, whose endless hours of work prepared the organization for its live television productions, as well as providing design insight into the construction of Bank One Ballpark from the media point of view. The Diamondbacks had the right man providing that information, as Geyer is in his 20th year of sports television, serving the club as the Director for each game telecast throughout the year.

Prior to his move to the Diamondbacks, Geyer spent 10 years as Producer/Director of the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of America West Arena since it opened in 1992. His baseball television resume includes directing a major league package for FOX Sports Net and a five-year stint directing AAA baseball in the Valley in the 1980's.

Scott and his wife Lisa have two sons, Adam (6) and Travis (3).

Thomas Harris

Vice President of Finance

Tom joined the Arizona Diamondbacks as the Vice President of Finance in July of 1995. The man in charge of the entire operating budget, Harris and his accounting staff work in concert with each department to maintain their individual budgets. He also supervises all general accounting activities, and ensures operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives.

Harris came to the Diamondbacks by way of the Phoenix Suns and the America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the Arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years.

A native of Winslow, an Arizona town that the Eagles made famous in the song "Take it Easy," Tom graduated in accounting from Arizona State University, and earned a Master's in Taxation from ASU in December 1992. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Tom and his wife, Kathleen, have three children, Sean, Sarah and Kelly and make their home in Phoenix.

Larry White

Vice President of Accounting

Larry has made a steady climb up the organization ladder in the finance department, joining the club as Assistant Controller in February, 1996. He was promoted less than a year later to Controller, then earned the Vice President title last November. His work does not stop with the Diamondbacks, White's also responsible for the administration and accounting oversight for Bank One Ballpark, the Phoenix Suns and America West Arena.

His tasks have varied since joining the Diamondbacks, creating and supervising the accounting department, including employee hiring, budget process development, financial/management reporting and company-wide internal control development. He is also responsible for the spring financial operations of the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

Larry is a 1987 graduate of San Diego State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the school of Accountancy. He spent five years in public accounting with the Boston offices of Price Waterhouse and Pannell Kerr Forster. White prefaced his arrival in the sports field as Financial Controller in the real estate industry for two Boston area firms.

Larry and his fiancee, Pamela Stern, make their home in Phoenix and have scheduled a July wedding.

Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena Vice Presidents

Alvan Adams

Vice President of Facility Management

Area basketball fans recognize Alvan Adams as he makes his rounds at Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena, whose uniform number hangs proudly at AWA after an outstanding NBA career. The Suns' first round choice in the 1975 draft, Alvan earned league Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1976.

After retiring from the hardwood in 1988, Adams turned his attention to the development of America West Arena a year later, then Bank One Ballpark in 1996. He was named to his present role last year, overseeing both sports and entertainment facilities.

Once he completed his NBA career, Alvan returned to the University of Oklahoma, earning a Bachelor's Degree. His civic involvement revolves around his interest in working with youth and the historic preservation of Phoenix.

Alvan and his wife, Sara, have two children and make their home in Paradise Valley.

Russ Amaral

Vice President of Event Services

Russ was promoted to his current role after spending over two years as Director of Ballpark Services for Bank One Ballpark. His wintertime promotion entails him overseeing guest service issues and event operations at both the ballpark and America West Arena.

Amaral is no stranger to America West, joining the staff there in May, 1992 as a part-time guest service representative, then becoming a department manager just four months later. He took over the event coordinator position in 1996, specifically overseeing Phoenix Coyote games. It was from there that Russ joined the effort in getting Bank One Ballpark ready for its debut.

Prior to joining the Arena forces, Russ was one of the original employees at America West Airlines in Phoenix. He spent nine years working a variety of positions, including the final two years as in-flight manager for B-747 onboard crews.

Amaral is a graduate of Oregon State University, earning a degree in Business Administration.

Russ and his wife, Beverly, make their home in Phoenix.

George Bevans

Vice President of Security and Risk Management

George oversees the Security and Risk Management departments at both Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena. Over the past year, more than 4.5 million guests have been through the gates of the two facilities, and George sees to it that everyone is safe while enjoying the various events.

He has supervised the security and safety issues for the America West Arena since 1992, and with the construction of Bank One Ballpark, his expertise has expanded greatly. George and his family have resided in the Valley for over 20 years.

William Bolt

Vice President - Information Systems

When Bill joined the organization in 1991 as the Suns' Director of Information Systems, the computer count totaled five, but that figure has since grown to nearly 500, as he has been promoted to Vice President. He oversees the computer needs for all entities of both Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena.

Bill's role with the Diamondbacks and Suns is not his first work in professional sports, spending five seasons as the Director of Information Systems for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings. Bolt split his formative years between Detroit, MI, and Cleveland, OH, growing up fans of both the Tigers and Indians. He then attended the University of Minnesota.

Bill and his wife, Kathie, make their home in north Scottsdale.

Bob Nanberg

Vice President of Merchandising

Bob joined the Team Shop in May, 1998, bringing 32 years of retail experience with Major National Retailers. He was the Principal in a national women's accessory chain from 1986-95.

In addition to the Team Shop, Nanberg is involved with the Salvation Army, Arizona Humane Society and Sunshine Acres Children's Home.

Bob and his wife, Cheryl, have two grown sons, and two dogs.

Paige Peterson

General Manager of Bank One Ballpark

As the General Manager of Sports and Entertainment Services, LLC, Paige oversees all operations of Bank One Ballpark and the America West Arena. He joined the organization in 1995 as Controller of America West Arena, where his repsonsibilities included budgeting, financial reporting and settlement of events held at the arena. In 1998, he took the initiative to lead the refinancing of the arena's debt, successfully saving the arena and City of Phoenix millions of dollars.

Prior to coming on board, Paige had spent four years in public accounting with Arthur Andersen in Phoenix. He graduated from the University of Arizona, earning a degree in accounting and finance.

Paige and his wife, Jody, have a son, Rex, and make their home in Phoenix.

Public Relations Staff

Mike Swanson

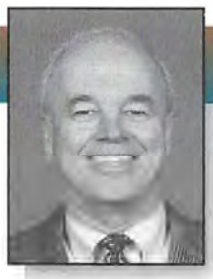
Director of Public Relations

Known simply as "Swanee," Mike Swanson is in his 22nd year in the majors, third with the Diamondbacks. His arrival in Arizona marked the second straight franchise start-up for Swanson, who had a similar experience with the Colorado Rockies, joining that organization in 1992, a year before they played their first game in the National League. After six years with the Rockies, Swanee headed south to Arizona, joining the Diamondbacks after the 1997 season ended. He has also worked in the Public Relations departments for the Kansas City Royals and San Diego Padres, also expansion clubs when they began play.

Though baseball is his passion, Swanson has had the opportunity to be involved in all sports throughout his life. His mother, the late Betty Swanson, worked for both the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs over a 36-year span, and oftentimes had the younger Swanson tagging along, working in the equipment rooms for both franchises, traveling with the Chiefs during their glory years of the early 70's.

From there he became a "numbers nerd," and had the good fortune to work virtually every major sporting event in the country as a television statistician. It all began in 1977 with Keith Jackson on college football and evolved into stints with Monday Night Football, and the sharing of booth space with some of the top announcers in sports. All totaled he has worked six Final Fours, six Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, five Sugar Bowls and six Cotton Bowls.

Swanson, 45, his wife Renee, one-year old daughter Rachel Elizabeth, and their yellow lab reside in Chandler.



Bob Crawford

Manager of Media Relations

After serving the Valley for over 30 years as a sportswriter, Bob Crawford was named the Manager of Media Relations two years prior to the club's first game. He leaned heavily on his writing background to author the highly successful dual book project entitled, "We're in the Show" and "Diamond in the Desert," which chronicle the building of the franchise and of Bank One Ballpark, respectively.

A resident of the Valley for over 50 years, he began covering the Cactus League in 1960 for the Tucson Daily Citizen. He later joined the Phoenix Gazette in 1966 covering spring training, the Phoenix entries in the P.C.L. and served as official scorer.

In 30 years with The Gazette, Bob was a staff writer, columnist, assistant sports editor, sports editor and assistant managing editor. He was president of the Phoenix Press Box Association in 1972-73 and 1982-83, and he was chairman of the Arizona Associated Press News Editors in 1985. He won Arizona Press Club first place honors for sports writing in 1971, 1972 and 1994.

A graduate of North Phoenix High School and the University of Arizona, Bob and his wife, Jo Anne, make their home in Tempe. They have a son, Robert III, a daughter, Shauna, and a granddaughter, Brittany Crews.

Arizona Diamondbacks

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

DIVISION CHAMPS IN YEAR TWO--Just 20 months after greeting the initial group of potential Arizona Diamondbacks, Buck and his staff were celebrating the fastest division title in major league baseball expansion history...the 35-game turnaround from the 65-97 opening year represented the single-best reversal of fortune in baseball history, 1/2-game better than the 1903 New York Giants...the first step was accomplished last September 24 in 3Com Park, when Arizona cruised to an 11-3 win over their division rivals from San Francisco, icing the National League Western Division crown with 9 games remaining on the slate...the '99 champs were a model of consistency all year, though it was the phenomenal second half that put the D'Backs in post-season play... Arizona's longest winning streak was 7 games, accomplished twice, while the club lost as many as 4 in a row on just 2 occasions...one of the early hurdles came when the Diamondbacks lost 5 of 6 on their initial trip to Los Angeles (0-3) and Atlanta (1-2), with 4 of the setbacks of the frustrating "walk-off" variety, including 3 in extra innings...despite the tough start, Buck convinced his club that they were competitive in a hostile environment and able to play with the league's elite...down in the standings by 4 1/2 games, the largest deficit of the year, Arizona returned home and went on a 9-2 run...only once would the Diamondbacks fall behind by as many as 4 games again (April 29)...Arizona got its first taste of first place on May 18 in San Francisco, ironically the same site that would provide the D'Backs with their first taste of champagne just 4 months later...Showalter's troops surrendered the top spot for the first 3 weeks in July, scuffling through a 6-12 stretch that turned a 1-game lead into a 2 1/2-game deficit...all that did was set the stage for one of the top 10 second half turnarounds in baseball history...the defining moment coming on July 20 in Safeco Field with Randy Johnson making his return to the northwest and Arizona's record down to just 4 games above .500 (49-45)...RJ went the distance in a 6-0 win over his old mates, igniting a stretch in which the D'Backs would finish the year going 51-17, a remarkable .750 winning pct....Arizona reassumed the division lead with a 3-0 win in Los Angeles on July 24 and never trailed again, going from a 1/2-game lead to 8 1/2 games in just an 18-day span.

SECOND TRIP TO FALL BALL--Last year marked the second time in his last 3 years as a manager that his troops have played post-season ball...Buck guided the 1995 New York Yankees to the Division Series as the wild-card qualifier, though they were defeated by Seattle in the first round...the strike was the only reason that his 1994 Yankee club did not play October ball, as Buck's troops possessed an American League best 70-43 ledger at the time play was halted...including his days at the helm in the Yankee farm system, the 1999 campaign was his 11th full season as a manager and the seventh time Showalter's clubs have played beyond the regular season.

MILESTONE VICTORY--Last year's 100-win season enabled Buck to enter the 2000 campaign 33 wins shy of the 500 career victory mark, the exact number he entered 1999 shy of 400 triumphs...he reached the 400-win plateau on June 4, an 11-3 decision over Texas...the 1998 inaugural season ledger of 65-97 brought his career record as a big league skipper perilously close to the break-even point, entering last year at 367-366, but with the outstanding effort by his club in 1999, Showalter has raised his all-time ledger to 467-426, for a .522 winning pct.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

A DIVERSE D'BACK BEGINNING—Buck joined Arizona on November 15, 1995, nearly 28 months before the club's first game on March 31, 1998, but the time before that inaugural tilt was far from idle...he spent the better part of 2 years scouting major and minor league talent, traveling throughout the U.S., Japan and Latin American countries, assessing thousands of scouting reports and logging an abundance of front office hours... while a majority of the focus was on preparation for the expansion draft, he was afforded an opportunity that most major league managers don't have, familiarizing himself and his staff with the organization's youth.

A LOOK BACK AT YEAR ONE—Arizona's 65-97 record was the 4th best overall start for an expansion club, 5 fewer wins than the 1961 Los Angeles Angels, possessors of the best expansion start at 70-91...the D'Backs matched the Angels for best-ever streak by a first-year club, winning 7 in a row from August 28-Sept. 4, a skein that enabled Arizona to finish the year in a 15-12 run...Showalter's squad recovered from a difficult 8-31 start to go 57-66 over the remaining 123 tilts.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK—Buck was named the 30th manager in the history of the New York Yankees on October 29, 1991, the youngest man at the helm in either league during each of his 4 seasons as the skipper, compiling a 312-269 record for a .537 winning pct....his initial year in 1992 marked a 5-game improvement in record from the previous season, and he was selected as a coach on the American League All-Star team by Minnesota's Tom Kelly, the first time a Yankee manager was tabbed a coach in the Midsummer Classic since Earl Weaver chose Ralph Houk in 1970... Showalter's 1993 club went 88-74, good for a second place finish and 13-game rise in the standings...the change in fortunes for the Yanks earned Buck recognition around baseball as he finished second in the Manager-of-the-Year balloting to Chicago's Gene Lamont...the '93 club set a big league record by spending 18 days tied for first place in the A.L. East without ever holding the lead alone, and spent a major league record 93 consecutive days (June 18-Sept. 18) within 3 games of the division lead without ever sitting alone on top...the 1994 season was the best and worst of times, with the Yankees compiling the best record in the American League and 2nd best in all of baseball, only to have the season and the fruits of labor taken away by labor, as the strike brought the year to a screeching halt...his '94 club finished with a 70-43 mark, a .619 winning pct., and a 6 1/2-game lead over Baltimore, the largest division lead by any club in baseball...though the year ended abruptly, the effort put forth by Showalter and his troops did not go unnoticed, as he was named the American League Manager-of-the-Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America and by The Sporting News, in a vote conducted among league managers...the 1994 Yanks were on a pace to win 100 games and win the first division title for the organization since 1981...a victory in Baltimore on June 13 made the 38-year old Showalter the 2nd youngest manager in Yankee history to win 200 games, 2nd only to Clark Griffith who won 200 affairs at age 35... his 1995 club went 78-66, qualifying for a playoff spot via the Wild Card, the first post-season action for the boys from the Bronx since 1981...Buck's 4 seasons as manager marked the longest consecutive time on the job for a Yankees' skipper since Ralph Houk took over during the 1966 season and stayed in charge through 1973.

TRI-DECADE YANKEE—His debut with the Diamondbacks marked the first time since the 70's that Buck was with a club that was not related to the Yankee organization...drafted in the fifth round as a collegian in the 1977 June draft, his playing days lasted 7 minor league seasons from 1977-83, twice reaching the AAA level...he went directly into the field leader position, coaching for the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees in 1984, then accepting his first managerial position in 1985 with Oneonta...Buck managed that club for 2 seasons, compiling a 114-41 (.735) winning pct. while finishing first in each campaign, including the NY-Penn title during his initial season as skipper... the Oneonta clubs set NY-Penn League records in consecutive years, winning 55 games in 1985, then breaking that mark with 59 triumphs the following season...he continued the winning ways at Ft. Lauderdale in 1987, winning the Florida State League title, his 2nd championship in 3 seasons... Showalter remained in Ft. Lauderdale in '88, finishing 3rd, then went to Albany-Colonie in 1989, again posting a league championship with a 92-48 record...that title marked his final minor league managerial stint, opening the '90 season as the Yankees' "Eye in the Sky" for 2 months, then moving to third base coach for the remainder of that year and entire 1991 season... all totaled in 5 minor league seasons as manager in the Yankees' chain, he compiled a .635 winning pct., going an overall 360-207, which did not include a 14-4 (.778) mark in post-season play...along the way, Showalter was named Minor League Manager-of-the-Year and Eastern League Manager-of-the-Year by Baseball America in 1989, as his club won 92 games, the most by a Yankee AA team since the 1980 Nashville Sounds of the Southern League, a team that Buck played on when it won 97 games.

AS A PLAYER—Buck finished his minor league playing career with a composite .294 average...he set a Southern League record for hits in 1980, collecting 178 while finishing 2nd to Chris Bando in the league batting race with a .324 mark...Showalter's 152 hits in 1982 also topped the Southern League charts...he teamed with Don Mattingly in 1981 at Nashville, then managed "Donny Baseball" with the Yankees.

PERSONAL—William Nathaniel (Buck) Showalter III...he and wife, Angela, have a daughter, Allie St. Claire (1/30/87), and son, William Nathaniel IV (12/17/91), and make their home in Scottsdale...Buck graduated from Century (FL) High School, where his father, the late William Nathaniel II, served as a teacher and principal for 23 years...prior to working in education, Buck's dad was an All-American fullback at Milligan College in Tennessee, then had a brief stint with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers...Buck was an All-American at Chipola Junior College, graduating in 1976, then was named the MVP of the Cape Cod League after hitting .434 in the summer of '76 for Hyannisport, breaking the late Thurman Munson's league mark for batting...Buck then earned All-American honors at the major college level in 1977, his lone season at Mississippi State University, setting school marks in batting (.459) and RBI (44)...he graduated with a B.S. in Education, finishing up his class load during his first 2 seasons as a professional player...he has been a staple in the community since arriving in Arizona, oftentimes appearing at a moments notice on behalf of the organization, as well as participating in the Winter Tour each January...not forgetting his days in the minor leagues, Buck has also been outstanding supporting the other clubs in the organization, appearing at winter-time banquets for the Diamondback affiliates.

COACHING CAREER—An intense competitor, Brian's first test as a third base coach in the majors has come in the first 2 seasons of Diamondback baseball...he takes an aggressive approach to the game, not only with the runners on the bases, but also with infielders in spring training and during batting practice, working countless hours with the D'Back glove men...his defensive coaching effort has helped Arizona finish in the top 4 in fielding in each of the first 2 seasons of the club's existence...the 2000 season is Brian's fifth as a major league coach, working during the 1994-95 campaigns on the other side of the diamond for Showalter's Yankee clubs as the first base coach...Butterfield wrapped up his minor league playing career in 1983 and immediately went into coaching as a roving infield instructor in the Yankees' chain the next season...he then coached for 3 years before getting his first managerial assignment in 1988 with Sarasota (A)... his first test as a manager resulted in the Gulf Coast League title with Sarasota, going 45-18 (.714), earning league Manager-of-the-Year honors...he managed for 4 of the next 5 seasons before coaching with the AA club in Albany, his final assignment prior to joining the D-Backs...all told, his minor league managerial record was 211-206 (.506), including a championship in 1988...consistent with other members of the coaching staff, Brian joined Arizona in 1996, serving as a roving infield instructor, minor league manager and a scout of major league talent in preparation for the expansion draft.

PLAYING DAYS—Brian's playing career spanned 5 minor league seasons, 4 of which were in the Yankees' chain...he was signed by New York as a free agent in 1979, spending his first pro summer in Oneonta, hitting .218 in 59 games...his best season was 1981 with Ft. Lauderdale, earning team MVP honors with a .286 mark in 94 games, the same club that he would manage in 1992...he achieved the AAA level for a portion of the '82 season, making the most out of a 13-game stint with Columbus, hitting .417 (15-for-36)...Brian wrapped the playing portion of his career in 1983 with Miami.

PERSONAL—Brian James Butterfield...he and his wife Jan have two children, John (1/4/79) and Chris (4/29/80) and make their home in the Phoenix area...Brian's amateur playing career began at the University of Maine, where he lettered in both baseball and basketball in 1976...he then transferred to Valencia Community College, earning Florida Junior College Player-of-the-Year honors in 1977...he wrapped up his collegiate playing career with a 2-year stint at Florida Southern University, playing for the 1978 National Champion...though he signed in '79, Butter returned to Florida Southern to earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1980... after his pro seasons ended in September, Brian returned to Florida Southern to coach fall ball in 1979 and assisted at Eckerd College in 1980-81...his father, the late Jack Butterfield, was vice president of player development and scouting at one time for the Yankees...a die-hard football fan, Brian's wardrobe often sports the logos of the University of Michigan or New England Patriots.

COACHING CAREER—What a difference a year made for pitching coach Mark Connor, who welcomed 36 pitchers to camp in the inaugural season, then arrived in Tucson last year to see a handful of new faces that would eventually finish the campaign with the second best staff ERA in the majors...while 1998 delivered some excellent individual performances, last year was an overall team effort highlighted by Randy Johnson winning the Cy Young Award...one of the biggest challenges posed to Connor was acquainting himself in spring training with the styles and intricacies of a new veteran cast of pitchers enabling him to spot flaws when they occurred...as was the case with the majority of the coaching staff, Mark's first two seasons in the organization were spent scouting, writing and reading reports in preparation for the expansion draft and inaugural season...though the final tally of the first year tallied only 65 wins, it served as a solid base for the following year, discovering Omar Daal as he finished fifth in the league ERA race and watching Brian Anderson lead the majors in fewest walks per 9-innings...the '98 campaign was Mark's first in a big league dugout since 1993, his final year with the Yankees, also under Buck Showalter...while with the Yankees, "Goose" had the opportunity to work with some of the more familiar managerial names in the game including Yogi Berra (1984), Billy Martin (1985), Lou Piniella (1986-87), Bucky Dent (1990), Stump Merrill (1991) and Showalter (1992-93)...Connor coached at Knoxville (AA) in the Toronto chain for 2 seasons before joining the Diamondbacks...the trip to Knoxville was a homecoming for Connor, who resided there for 25 years, including a stint as the head coach at the University of Tennessee in 1988-89, the only 2 years that he did not work in the Yankee chain, from 1979-93...Mark's first coaching test also came with the Vols, working as their pitching coach from 1974-78 while finishing up grad school...during his pair of stints at U.T., Connor had the opportunity to coach future big league hurlers Rick Honeycutt, Mike Smithson and Greg McMichael...aside from his scouting duties after joining the D'Backs, he had the opportunity to impart his pitching wisdom on the youth of this franchise, working with the minor leaguers as the organization's pitching coordinator...Mark's professional coaching career began in 1979 at Paintsville of the Appalachian League, followed by 3 seasons with Greensboro as their pitching coach...he was assigned to Columbus (AAA) in 1983, then received his first taste of the big leagues in 1984, when he was summoned to the Yankees...each of the 5 clubs he coached with prior to joining the Yankees wound up with titles.

PLAYING CAREER—He pitched just 2 seasons in the Minnesota chain before an arm injury put him in the coaching mode...Mark's career began with Auburn in 1971, going 4-3 with a 2.78 ERA in 20 games...he then worked for a season with Wisconsin Rapids, posting a 3-3 mark and 3.83 ERA before the injury halted his pitching career.

PERSONAL—Mark Peter Connor...he and his wife, Katie, and children Jennie (9/14/76), Shannon (2/8/79) and Ryan (1/24/85), make their home in Knoxville, TN...Mark graduated from Chaminade High School in Mineola, NY, in 1967, then attended Belmont Abbey College...he earned a B.S. degree from Manhattan College in 1972, also receiving the Topps Award as a college All-Star in 1971...he fanned 20 batters in a game vs. Columbia University in 1971... while working as a coach at the University of Tennessee in 1974-75, Mark earned his Masters Degree...Connor credits Sammy Ellis, a Red Sox instructor, in having the biggest influence on his career...his off-field time is shared between his family, the golf course, coaching in clinics throughout the country, and closely following the gridiron adventures of the Tennessee Volunteers.

Arizona Diamondbacks

COACHING CAREER—Murph can be spotted every day on the first base side of the coaching lines, but its his work behind the scenes long before the gates open that has enabled the Diamondbacks to assemble a solid defensive outfield...Murphy, a 6-time Rawlings Gold Glove winner during his playing days (1980-85), watched with pride as Steve Finley won his third career Rawlings Gold Glove, first since 1996, while working endless hours in spring training and the regular season with Tony Womack, converting him from middle infielder to outfielder...the 2000 season has presented another transformation, as Travis Lee came to Tucson to win a spot in the lineup as the rightfielder, though he and Murph were already working on the nuances of the outfield at the time of Lee's injury last summer...the 1998 season was Murph's first year as a major league coach after spending the summer of '97 coaching at High Desert (A), as the Mavericks won the California League title...he followed that with a stint as the first base and outfield coach for the Grand Canyon Rafters in the Arizona Fall League...Murph managed the Diamondbacks' Phoenix entry in the Arizona Rookie League in 1996.

PLAYING CAREER—Recognized as one of the top centerfielders in the game during his time, Murph has the hardware to show for his efforts...he was a 6-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, procuring all of them in consecutive seasons from 1980-85 with the Oakland A's...he spent 12 years in the majors, the first 10 of which were with the Athletics before finishing up in 1988 and 1989 with Detroit and Philadelphia, respectively...though his offensive numbers didn't make the headlines that his glove work commanded, Murph produced 166 home runs and 609 RBI...he was named to The Sporting News All-Star team in 1981, leading the A.L. in game-winning RBI...he enjoyed a 33-home run season in 1984 with the A's, knocking in 88 runs, while posting 27 homers and 94 RBI in 1982...he also ended his playing career with 100 stolen bases, twice pilfering 26 in a season...he was part of an unusual trivia question in 1980, as Murph and Wayne Gross each stole home in the first inning of a game vs. Kansas City on May 28.

PERSONAL—Dwayne Keith Murphy...he and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Dwayne (5/12/73) and Scott (11/23/74), and a daughter, Christina (9/2/ 79) and make their home in Ahwatukee...Murph played for one season in Japan in 1990 with the Yakult Swallows, then returned stateside to coach football...a 3-sport athlete at Antelope Valley (CA) High School, football landed him a scholarship to Arizona State, but he turned it down to sign with the Athletics in 1973...he returned to the gridiron in 1991 at Monte Vista (CA) High School, coaching the freshman team, then the junior varsity the following season before taking over the head coach position at California High School from 1993-95...he then returned to baseball, joining the Diamondbacks' organization...an avid golfer, Murph spends a good portion of his off-season on the links near his Arizona home.

COACHING CAREER—The 1999 season was Jim's second major league campaign as a coach after working in Arizona's minor league system for the first 2 years of operation...'99 witnessed a complete change in fortune for the Diamondback offense, finishing third in the N.L. in batting, while topping the charts in runs scored, a far cry from the inaugural season in which the D'Backs were near the bottom in every category...though not highly publicized, but equally important in 1999 was the dramatic drop in strikeouts, after setting a National League record for K's with 1,239 in '98, Arizona finished in the middle of the pack last year by cutting 194 off the previous year...the former 3rd baseman, who made a name for himself hitting home runs for the Seattle Mariners, was with the South Bend Silver Hawks in '97 after working in Lethbridge in 1996... the Lethbridge club set Pioneer League records for home runs and runs scored during Jim's season as the hitting coach.

PLAYING CAREER—Jim spent the better part of 8 seasons in the majors, the first half-dozen with Seattle from 1984-89...he posted 3 consecutive 20-homer campaigns, topping out with 28 in 1985, while knocking in 84 runs...his 1986 season started with an impressive 3-for-4, 2-homer and 6-RBI tilt on Opening Night, as Jim tied the game with a 2-run homer in the 9th, then won it with a grand slam in the 10th...he was Seattle's All-Star representative in the '86 game in Houston, entering the break with a .280 average featuring 18 home runs and 64 RBI...he opened the 2nd half of the season with an 11th inning grand slam to knock off Boston on July 17...he also tied the Seattle club record on September 1, hitting a trio of home runs, all off Detroit starter Jack Morris... Presley finished '86 with 27 roundtrippers and a career-best 107 RBI...he made his major league debut with the M's in 1984 and picked up his first big league hit off Bert Blyleven...he left Seattle after the '89 season and had another productive year in Atlanta, hitting .242 with 19 home runs and 72 RBI as the Braves' everyday 3rd baseman... his big league career wrapped up in '91 with a brief stint in San Diego, playing in 20 games for the Padres...he spent the '92 season with Oklahoma City (AAA), appearing in 48 games.

PERSONAL—James Arthur (Jim) Presley...he and his wife, Pam, and son, Joshua (8/12/88) and daughter, Kendall, (2/22/91) make their off-season home in Cantonment, FL...Jim graduated in 1979 from Escambia High School in Pensacola, FL...upon completing his playing career in 1992, he returned to school, earning an A.A. from Pensacola Junior College, while also gaining experience in his new trade, working as assistant baseball coach...he was a 4th round selection of the Mariners in the June draft, spending the summer of '79 in Bellingham (Rookie)...as a youth, Jim led his 1974 squad to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, PA...since half of his summer is spent under the roof of Bank One Ballpark, Presley enjoys his off-season outdoors on the golf course or hunting.

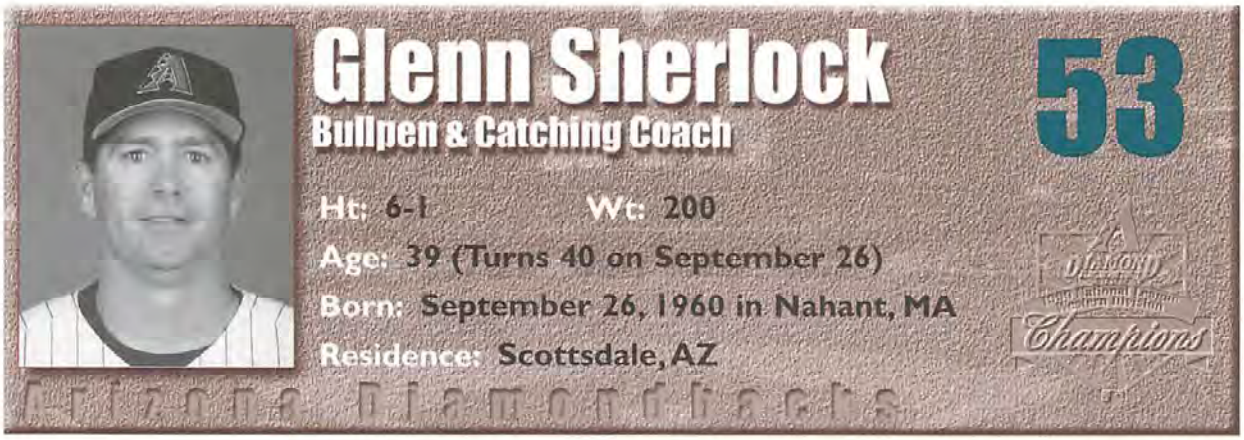
JIM'S COACHING HISTORY

1996	Coach, Lethbridge.
1997	Coach, South Bend.
1998-99	Hitting coach, Arizona Diamondbacks.



COACHING CAREER—Glenn is in his 20th year of pro ball, his second working with Diamondbacks catchers, while also keeping the bullpen in focus during the course of a ball game...his work with the receivers includes drilling them on balls in the dirt, fielding bunts in front of the plate, and throwing to the bases...during game action, Glenn keeps track of the opposing team's lineup card allowing Diamondback relievers to be prepared of the situation when they enter the game...he joined the Diamondbacks as the roving catching instructor in 1996 and worked with the minor league catchers in the system prior to the arrival of the big league talent...he was also tapped for his knowledge and experience during the start-up phase, when the D'Backs were assembled via the expansion draft...a longtime Yankee, Glenn was catching instructor in the Bronx twice, working in the pen in 1992, then once again during the 1994 and '95 seasons...all told, he was employed for 10 seasons in the Yankee chain either as a minor league player, coach or manager...originally signed by the Astros as their 21st pick in the '83 June draft, he set a NY-Penn League record during his first year for double plays by a catcher...after 4 seasons, Sherlock signed as a free agent with New York, playing for 3 years in their system...he was part of 4 titles as a player, including his final year in 1989, which was also his first taste of the instructional phase, serving as player/coach for Albany (AA), though it was more coaching than playing, appearing in just a game...he managed at Tampa in 1990 then led Ft. Lauderdale in '91, and was named a coach for the F.S.L. All-Star Game...Glenn was the catching instructor for the big league club in 1992, then returned to Tampa to manage that club in '93 while also working as an organizational instructor...his 3-year minor league managerial record wrapped up at 121-128 (.486)...he went "down-under" to hone his managerial skills in the winter of 1993, leading the Canberra Bushrangers in the Australian Baseball League.

PERSONAL—Glenn Patrick Sherlock...he and his wife, Lisa, and son, Tim (11/30/86) and daughter, Cara (11/4/90) make their home in Scottsdale, AZ...he graduated in 1979 from St. John's Prep in Danvers, MA, playing baseball and football, featuring All-State honors on the diamond his senior season...he then earned a B.A. degree in environmental studies at Rollins (FL) College, while playing baseball...Glenn was honored with the Rollins College Hall of Fame Achievement Award and earned Sunshine State All-Star status...he also played ball for 3 summers in the Yarmouth-Dennis Cape Cod League...he spent a large part of his "off-season" at Bank One Ballpark, catching pitchers who chose to get their work in...he also participated in Winter Tour 2000 as part of the "all catchers" trip, joining receivers Kelly Stinnett and Damian Miller on a journey through northern Arizona.

D'Backs the Best Among Second-Year Expansion Clubs

Not only did the Arizona Diamondbacks win a division title faster than any club in expansion history, the franchise also posted the single-best turnaround in big league annals. The Diamondbacks are the first expansion team to achieve a .500 or better overall franchise record in less than 8 years. The 1976 Kansas City Royals were the previous fastest expansion franchise to reach break-even, doing so in 1976, their first year as a division winner.

Following are the combined 2-year records for all previous expansion clubs:

Behind the Seams

Paul Lessard

Head Athletic Trainer

Paul's second season in the Diamondback training room was a test of his abilities as a trainer and his skills in rehabilitation, teaming with Dave Edwards to work on the variety of aches and pains that accompany a season, as well as working extended hours to get Todd Stottlemyre back on the hill without surgery. Their dedication paid off, keeping the regulars ready to go on a daily basis, while also tending to Stott's rehab, returning him to the mound by August. The work by the training staff is enhanced by one of the top medical facilities in any professional sports venue, featuring hydro-therapy and an X-Ray machine.

Paul's work here is his first in the majors, though it was a 2-year stint in the minor leagues that led to his appointment. Lessard was the trainer for the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees while Buck Showalter managed that club, and the Arizona skipper recalled his work ethic naming Paul to oversee his big league training room, after working for 10 seasons on the collegiate level.

The 37-year old Lessard graduated from Northeastern University with a degree in athletic training. He spent 2 years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Atlanta Falcons, then went to work in the Yankees' chain before returning to the college ranks. Paul was the senior athletic trainer at Boston University from 1988-94, then served as the head athletic trainer at Holy Cross University from 1994-97.

A native of Stamford, CT, he serves as a certification exam coordinator for the NATA and is a member of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Organization of Massachusetts. Paul has a pair of daughters, Grace and Anne.

Dave Edwards

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Dave Edwards made the jump from a couple of years of minor league duty for the D'Backs before joining the major league training staff prior to the '98 campaign. The 34-year old's baseball training career started in the Arizona chain in 1996 for the Rookie League entry, then it was on to High Desert, working for the California League champs in 1997. Edwards' bilingual skills are a terrific asset in the training room, eliminating any potential medical communication difficulties with Latin American players.

A native of Deming, NM, Edwards received a degree in athletic training from New Mexico State University in 1988. During his final days at New Mexico State, Dave began plying his trade in pro baseball with Pocatello and Everett in the Giants' chain from 1987-90. He earned his Master's in athletic training from the University of Nevada in 1991, then returned to the Valley as the head athletic trainer at Grand Canyon University from 1991-96. Dave is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

David Page

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dave made the jump to the majors at mid-stream last year on an interim basis, and his hard work enabled him to earn the full-time role for the 2000 season. He joined the organization in 1998 as the minor league strength and conditioning coordinator, designing both winter and in-season programs for all minor league players. Page also trained and supervised the strength coaches for each affiliate, and worked specifically with the Tucson Sidewinders until his move to the Diamondbacks.

His baseball strength coaching career began in the Marlins' chain, administering an in-season program with the Portland Sea Dogs in the Eastern League, also serving as their bullpen coach.

A 4-year baseball letterman at the University of Southern Maine in Gorham, Dave received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1989. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and completed a sports medicine internship in 1997.

Dave and his wife Lori make their home in Tempe.

Mike Lopriore

Rehabiltation/Minor League Trainer Coordinator

Mike is the Diamondbacks coordinator of rehabilitation working out of the complex in Tucson. The Louisiana native has had a long career in athletic training, dating back to his days as a student at Eastern Kentucky University in the mid-'70s. He was a student athletic trainer there while earning his degree in physical education and sports medicine. Mike then earned his masters in secondary education and physical education from the University of Southwestern Louisiana in 1979.

Lopriore has made several stops along the way to Arizona, including stints with the Seattle Seahawks during the pre-season of 1979, and with the Los Angeles Dodgers' organization from 1984-88. Prior to joining the Diamondbacks, Mike spent 6 years as the athletic trainer in the Sports Medicine Department at Kenner (LA) Regional Medical Center. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association.

He and his wife, Heidi, have 2 sons, Michael and Lance.

Dr. David Zeman

Head Team Physician

Dr. David Zeman is the lead physician among a team of orthopaedic surgeons and primary care sports medicine physicians from Arizona Orthopaedic and North Scottsdale Orthopaedic and sports medicine specialists who work with the Diamondbacks.

Sports medicine is a specialty of Dr. Zeman, who also serves as team physician for a number of athletic organizations and schools in the region. He is an orthopaedic consultant for the Arizona State University athletic department, and a published author in sports medicine literature. He's also the team physician for Brophy College Preparatory and Xavier College Preparatory.

Dr. Zeman is board certified and an active member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons and the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association. He graduated from the University of Arizona College of Medicine and completed his orthopaedic surgical training at the University of Michigan. He was then honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, GA.

He is a graduate of Brophy Prep and Arizona State University. He and his wife, Mary Ellen, have 6 children, Brian, Karyn, Courtney, twins Michelle and Ashley and Katie.

Dr. Roger McCoy

Team Physician

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the Diamondbacks' family since the organization's start-up, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the '98 major league season. He is a Board Certified Family Physician with special training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school.

Aside from his responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he is also team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

In The Clubhouse

Chris Guth

Equipment Manager

Chris joined the Diamondbacks two seasons before the club would take the field, readying the organization for all of its equipment needs, after a 10-year stint in the Yankees' chain. It was a chance meeting with Buck Showalter that led to his role with the Yankees and subsequent arrival in Arizona. In 1987, Chris was working the clubhouse at Bobby Maduro Stadium for the old Miami Marlins and came across Showalter, who asked if he'd like to work for the Yankees' organization, and Guth immediately accepted the position.

Guth is a Miami native, graduating from Palmetto High School in 1976. He and his wife Lesa have a son, Jason, and make their home in Phoenix. Chris is not the only member of the Guth family working in pro sports, as Lesa works in the front office of the NHL Phoenix Coyotes.

Bob Doty

Visiting Clubhouse Manager

A native San Diegan, Bob made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, and though his job description is that of visiting clubhouse manager, his wealth of experience in ordering equipment has been a valuable asset to the daily operation. He joined the Diamondbacks after 20 years with the San Diego Padres, the last 12 heading up the visiting clubhouse.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Bob and his wife Angie have a pair of daughters, Lauren and Sarah, and make their home in Phoenix.

Glenn Goldman

Video Coordinator

Glenn joined the Diamondbacks just prior to the opening of the inaugural season, bringing video technology with him. The New York native had worked for two seasons in the video scouting department of the NBA's Orlando Magic, and has been invaluable to Buck Showalter, his staff and the players in taping and logging every pitch of every game. Goldman not only has a video record of every move the Diamondbacks make, but he also records other clubs' games for future scouting purposes.

Glenn graduated cum laude in 1990 from Princeton University with a degree in economics, while earning two varsity baseball letters. He then graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a master's in Sport Management. He also served as a graduate assistant baseball coach at Amherst College.

Goldman is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

Jeff Motuzas

Bullpen Catcher

Though the job title is that of bullpen catcher, his day is full of more than simply warming pitchers. Bullpen catching is his last responsibility on a game day, as it begins with preparing baseballs for batting practice, then throwing B.P. on a daily basis.

Formerly a catcher in the Yankees' chain, he was a 13th round pick of New York in 1990 after earning All-American status at Nashua (NH) High School. Aside from his role with the Diamondbacks, Jeff is a certified personal trainer.

He is single and makes his off-season home in Nashua.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Cleveland Indians as the first choice in the first round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

A starter during the inaugural season, Brian had to wait his turn in '99, opening the year in the pen due to the off-season addition of Randy Johnson, Todd Stottlemyre and Armando Reynoso to the starting staff...trying to get accustomed to the relief role, Anderson was 0-1 with a save in his first 8 bullpen appearances, allowing 11 earned runs in 10.1 innings (9.58 ERA)...the save was the first regular season rescue of his career, working the final 3.1 innings vs. the Giants on April 16, picking up for Stottlemyre who had been ejected...a 2-start trip to AAA and a shoulder injury to Stottlemyre later, Brian would once again sub for the veteran hurler, assuming his spot in the rotation for 3 months while Todd rehabbed the injury...things didn't go smoothly at first, as Anderson gave up 19 earned runs in his first 18.2 innings as a starter, a 9.16 ERA, before returning to the form that won 12 games for a team that was just 65-97 the year before...a 4-3 win at home over the Marlins on June 15 began a stretch in which he was 5-1 in Stott's absence, posting a 3.84 ERA over his next 11 starts (28 earned runs in 65.2 innings)... included was an 8-inning stint vs. the Cards at home on June 26, allowing an unearned run in a contest the D'Backs eventually won, 2-1 in 10 innings...he later blanked the Dodgers over 8.0 frames on July 24, allowing 5 hits while tying his career-best with 8 K's, a 3-0 win...B.A. climaxed his substitute role with a 4-0 complete game 3-hitter at home over the Cubs on August 17, his 2nd career shutout...once Todd returned to the rotation in mid-August, Brian returned to the pen, working 4 times, featuring a win over the Mets with 2.0 shutout innings on August 29...due to late-season struggles by others in the rotation, he was given another opportunity to start and picked up where he left off, working 4 times allowing just 6 earned runs over 27.1 innings for a 1.98 ERA...the late-season run included a complete game 10-3 victory over the Rockies on Sept. 27 in B.O.B., and a win in the season finale over the Padres, throwing 5.0 shutout innings while suffering from the flu in the regular season finale...after a loss in Seattle on July 19, Anderson set a career-high with a 6-game winning streak, spanning 13 appearances (9 starts), allowing 15 earned runs over 64.2 innings for a 2.09 ERA...his 2nd half resurgence also included the disappearance of the home run ball, a nemesis that haunted Brian throughout the 1998 campaign and the early portion of '99...he tied for the N.L. lead with 39 surrendered during Arizona's inaugural season, then was tagged 16 times through his first 18 outings, spanning 65.1 innings...he gave up 2 more home runs the rest of the way in 1999, a stretch of 13 appearances and 64.2 frames...Brian also contributed with the long ball, hitting the first of his major league career on August 4 at home, taking Mark Gardner deep in an 8-4 win over the Giants...he was most impressive on the Bank One Ballpark mound, going 7-0 with a save and 2.97 ERA in 18 outings (12 starts) at home.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Brian made his only post-season appearance of '99 in the fourth game of the series against the Mets, tossing 7.0 outstanding innings in Shea Stadium on October 9...he allowed a pair of runs on 7 hits, with no walks and 4 K's in a 7-inning performance in what proved to be the deciding game of the series, as Arizona fell by a 4-3 count in 10 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Arizona's first choice in the expansion draft, he was the top control artist in the majors, posting a ratio of 1 walk per 9.0 innings, totaling 24 freebies, topping Rick Reed and Jose Lima (1.2) in the N.L., and David Wells (1.2) in the A.L....Anderson allowed no more than 1 walk in 27 of his 32 starts, including 15 starts without a pass issued...he closed the year with 1 walk in his last 6 starts, featuring a streak of 156 consecutive batters faced between freebies...when runners did reach base, Anderson reached into another part of his arsenal, picking off 12 men, tying Florida's Jesus Sanchez and Detroit's Justin Thompson for the major league lead...Brian recovered from a 1-6 start to the year, winning 11 of his last 18 decisions...he fired the first complete-game shutout of his career, Arizona's lone 1-0 win, a 3-hitter at Pittsburgh on Sept. 3...the home run ball was his achilles heel, allowing 39, tying Colorado's Pedro Astacio for most in the majors...the easy-going lefthander was voted the initial winner of the team "Good Guy" Award by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA. 1997—His final year with Cleveland, injuries made for a slow start to the year, missing a shot at opening day roster with a left knee sprain that occurred in spring training, then served disabled time with left shoulder tendinitis in mid-July...he had a trio of September starts for the Tribe during their division-clinching run...he did not see action in Division Series, but combined the ALCS and World Series for 10.0 innings of relief in 6 appearances, allowing 2 earned runs for a 1.80 ERA...he appeared 3 times vs. the Orioles in LCS, earning the victory in the deciding 6th game, fanning a pair in the 10th inning, then watched as Tony Fernandez snapped a scoreless tie with an 11th inning homer...was used 3 times vs. the Marlins in the World Series, earning the save in game #4, working the final 3.0 innings of a 10-3 Tribe win. 1996—Was acquired by Cleveland from the Angels on February 15 and had 3 different stints with the Tribe, alternating between the majors and AAA (Buffalo)...named the lefthanded pitcher on the American Association Post-Season All-Star squad...he was the winning pitcher in Cleveland's Central Division clinching win on Sept. 17 in Chicago. 1995—Made 18 appearances (17 starts) for Angels, despite missing over 6 weeks after straining a left biceps in a May 5 start vs. Seattle...posted his first major league complete game, a 6-hit, 13-3 win on July 22 vs. Detroit...conversely, he followed the winning skein with 6 straight losses from August 6-Sept. 5, including 5 as a starter...he tied a major league record by surrendering 4 homers in an 8-pitch sequence in the 2nd inning of an 8-0 loss at Baltimore on Sept. 5. 1994—Opened the year with Vancouver (AAA), but was recalled on April 9 after Mark Langston was diagnosed with bone chips in his elbow...B.A. earned his 1st major league win the day after his recall, 4-1 in Milwaukee...injury bug bit on May 6 when Oakland's Geronimo Berroa hit a 1st inning grounder off of his left thumb causing a non-displaced fracture...he finished the inning but was removed while warming up for the 2nd inning and he was subsequently placed on the D.L....18 starts were the most among big league rookies, while 7 wins ranked second 1993—A first round pick of the Angels in the June draft, the third overall player selected, he reported to Mesa, AZ...was assigned to Midland (AA) on August 18, making a pair of starts there before heading to Vancouver (AAA) on August 31... just 2 appearances later, the quick climb was complete as his contract was purchased on September 7 for duty in the majors...made big league debut on September 10 at Toronto, then made his first major league start on the final weekend of the season, September 30 at Minnesota, making Brian the youngest Angels' starter since Mike Witt in 1981.

PERSONAL

Brian James Anderson...he and his wife, Anna, make their off-season home in North Olmstead, OH, where they spend a portion of their winter as season ticket holders to the Cleveland Browns...Brian was a 1990 graduate of Geneva (OH) High School, lettering twice in basketball, 3 times in golf and 4 times in baseball...from there he went to Wright State University in Dayton, compiling a 28-8 ledger in 46 career games (39 starts), with a 2.23 ERA...he was the Mid-Continent Conference Pitcher and Player of the Year in 1992, posting a 12-3 mark...he followed that in '93 with a 10-1 ledger and 1.14 ERA in 14 games (13 starts), walking just 6 men in 95.0 innings... Anderson was named first team All-American by Mizuno and Baseball America and was selected to the GTE All-American Team...he was also a finalist for the 1993 Golden Spikes Award...despite his Ohio ties, Brian is a die-hard University of Nebraska football fan.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a non-drafted free agent on February 12, 1996. Signed by Steve Springer.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Rod got a surprise phone call in mid-September that found him heading to the majors for the first time in his career...already finished with his first year of AA ball at El Paso, he received the news on September 18, when his contract was purchased to add depth to a depleted catching corps due to a hand injury to Damian Miller...Rod ended up making 5 starts for the D'Backs, collecting his first big league hit on September 27 off of Colorado's Brian Bohanon...he was also behind the plate in the season finale on October 3, when Arizona posted its 100th win, contributing a double and his first major league homer, a second inning solo blast off of San Diego's Heath Murray.

MINOR LEAGUE: Rod hit .318 in 127 games with El Paso, finishing with the third best batting average among all minor league catchers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998–Playing for High Desert (A) in the California League, he led the entire Diamondback organization with 23 home runs...he recorded organized baseball's first 3-homer game of the year when he battered Lancaster on April 7...that kicked off a stretch of 6 homers in 6 games (10 RBI), earning California League Player of the Week honors...finished 5th in California League in hitting (.303) and 2nd in home runs (23)...went 5-for-6 with 3 doubles vs. Bakersfield on August 2 in the midst of an 11-game hitting streak...had a league-high 4 extra-base hits in post-season playoffs. 1997–Missed the first half of the season because of a back injury, but came back to give High Desert 30 RBI and 7 HR in just 57 games. 1996–Started the season on loan to Visalia in California League and struggled until joining Lethbridge for start of short-season Pioneer League campaign...hit .337 in 51 games for Diamondbacks' affiliate.

PERSONAL

Rodrigo Richard (Rod) Barajas...he is single and resides in Norwalk, CA...earned first-team all-conference honors at Santa Fe Springs High School and repeated the honor at Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, where he was also team MVP...Barajas went undrafted, but was signed by Diamondbacks after attending a tryout camp...he spent the majority of this past winter playing for Hermosillo in the Mexican Winter League.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 17, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

A career-year for Jay, who posted his most consistent major league season offensively, made a position switch defensively and was elected by the fans to start in the All-Star Game, while also getting his fourth crack at post-season play...a member of 3 consecutive Pirate teams that played in the LCS from 1990-92, Bell shattered his previous single-season bests in home runs (38), RBI (112) and runs scored (132)... a late-bloomer in terms of the long ball, Jay hit 83 home runs between his debut in 1986 through his final year in Pittsburgh in 1996...his power display in '99 raised Bell's total for the last 3 seasons to 79 roundtrippers, giving him 162 for his career...of his 38 blasts last season, 36 came as a second baseman, making Jay the seventh at that position to achieve 30 homers in a season, the 11th time it has been accomplished (see chart)...his season started quickly, earning the first National League Player-of-the-Week award in franchise history for the second week of the season, hitting .355 (11-for-31) from April 12-18, with 4 homers, 10 runs and 9 RBI, featuring his first of 3 multi-homer games (April 13 vs. the Dodgers)...he also went deep twice in a game on April 25 in San Diego and July 17 in Texas...the pair he hit against the Padres were book-end homers, hitting a solo shot in the first inning, then winning the game with a 2-run blast in the 11th, while tying a team mark with 4 runs scored...the clutch home run was part of Jay's repertoire all season, as 20 of his 38 blasts either gave Arizona the lead or tied a game... one of the most exciting of his clutch homers occurred on July 11, the final game before the All-Star break, hitting a grand slam that not only snapped a 3-3 tie with Oakland, but won a lucky fan $1 million, Jay's fifth career slam...on 3 occasions he tied a club record by homering in 3 straight games...his longest hitting streak was an 11-gamer from August 26-Sept. 7, at a .410 clip (16-for-39)...finished the year strong, batting .347 (33-for-95) with 7 homers and 21 RBI in the final month, including a .447 (21-for-47) mark over his final 12 contests, with 17 runs, 5 doubles, 4 triples, 7 homers and 12 RBI...he logged a trio of 4-hit games on the year, the last on Sept. 19 vs. Florida, giving him 12 career contests of at least 4 hits in a game...finished with 53 multi-hit games, third best on the club...hit at a .308 clip with runners in scoring position, and was particularly impressive with 2 outs, batting .338...went 7-for-12 (.583) with 18 RBI when batting with the bases loaded...he went 0-for-1 with a walk as the starting second baseman for the National League All-Star team at Fenway Park, his first Midsummer Classic appearance since 1993 with the Pirates.

Most Home Runs by Second Baseman - Season

42 - Rogers Hornsby (1922)
42 - Davey Johnson (1973)
40 - Ryne Sandberg (1990)
39 - Rogers Hornsby (1925 & 1939)
36 - Jay Bell (1999)
32 - Joe Gordon (1948)
31 - Jeff Kent (1998)
30 - Joe Gordon (1940)
30 - Ryne Sandberg (1989)
30 - Bobby Grich (1979)

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Jay went 4-for-14 (.286) in the 4-game set with the Mets...he had a pair of hits and scored twice in Arizona's lone post-season victory, a 7-1 win at home in game #2 on October 6...he also delivered a clutch 2-run double in the 8th inning of game #4 at Shea, barely missing a home run, that gave the D'Backs a short-lived 3-2 advantage.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Homered in the season finale to achieve the 20-homer mark...set a club mark on May 4 with 4 walks, later matched by Bernard Gilkey...collected his 1,500th big league hit with an RBI single off of Atlanta's Greg Maddux at B.O.B. on Sept. 18...milestone hits #500 and #1,000 came off of pitchers also in the park that night, collecting those off of Andy Benes and Tom Glavine, respectively...a shortstop for the majority of his career, he was moved to second base on Sept. 11 for the final 15 games of the year, his first regular action there since 1986 season. 1997—Only year with K.C., he set a club record for shortstops with 21 homers and 92 RBI, earning team Player-of-the-Year honors...had third career 2-homer game on April 14 in Toronto (Woody Williams)...set a career-best with 5 RBI on June 27 vs. Milwaukee, including a grand slam off Bryce Florie...had 3 doubles on Sept. 6 vs. Oakland...finished tied for second in the A.L. in fielding pct., matching Cleveland's Omar Vizquel with a .985 mark. 1996—Was Pirates' opening day shortstop for the eighth straight year, the longest streak since Dick Groat started 8 in a row (1955-62)...led major league shortstops with a .986 fielding pct., committing 10 errors in 703 chances...included was a personal best 46 straight games without an error from April 22-June 15 (209 chances)...hit third career slam on April 16 in St. Louis off Tom Urbani...shared N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors with Hideo Nomo for Sept. 16-22...named by Baseball America as the N.L.'s second best bunter...traded to Kansas City with Jeff King on December 13, in exchange for 4 players. 1995—Made first career appearance at third base as a starter on June 27 in Wrigley Field...collected 1,000th major league hit on July 25 off Atlanta's Tom Glavine...had second career 2-homer game on August 6 vs. Houston. 1994—Hit second career grand slam on May 31 at San Diego off of A.J. Sager...matched a career-best with 5 hits on August 7 vs. St. Louis...led league shortstops in assists and total chances. 1993—Won first Rawlings Gold Glove, snapping Ozzie Smith's 13-year reign, the second Pirate shortstop ever to win the award (Gene Alley, 1966-67)...led all N.L. shortstops in fielding pct. (.986), committing league-low 11 errors...named to the Silver Slugger team and The Sporting News All-Star team...was named to first All-Star team. 1992—Had the N.L.'s longest hitting streak of the year, a 22-gamer (August 24-Sept. 16)...led all N.L. shortstops in putouts, assists, double plays and total chances. 1991—Was the third Pirate shortstop to hit at least 16 home runs in a season, joining Glenn Wright (18 in 1925) and Arky Vaughan (19 in 1935)...led the majors in sacrifice bunts (30) for the second straight year, and was the first player with 15 homers and 30 sac's in the same season since Johnny Logan with the Milwaukee Braves in 1956...hit second career inside-the-park homer on May 8 off Cincy's Norm Charlton...had 5-hit game on June 26 vs. Chicago...had first career 2-homer game on July 27 at Houston...hit first career grand slam on Sept. 30 off New York's Doug Simon... led Pirates in LCS with .414 mark vs. Braves, tying the 7-game series record for most singles (9)...topped N.L. shortstops in assists and total chances. 1990—Led majors with a team record 39 sacrifice bunts...led N.L. shortstops in putouts and total chances. 1989—Acquired from Cleveland on March 25 in exchange for infielder Felix Fermin and was Buc's opening day shortstop, but was optioned to Buffalo (AAA) on April 21...had first inside-the-park home run on Sept. 18 off Philly's Chuck McElroy. 1988—Was Cleveland's opening day shortstop, but was optioned on July 10...recalled on Sept. 6, and hit .341 in final 16 games. 1986—Made a big splash in major league debut on Sept. 29 vs. Minnesota, homering on first pitch seen in big leagues off of Bert Blyleven, the 11th player ever to homer on first pitch thrown to him, a year after being traded for Blyleven...Jay was also the 55th player to homer in first major league at bat...was named to Eastern League All-Star team. 1985—Traded to the Indians with Curt Wardle, Rich Yett and Jim Weaver in exchange for Blyleven. 1984—Was the eighth overall player taken in the June draft, reporting to Elizabethton, starting the trend of leading his league in putouts and assists.

PERSONAL

Jay Stuart Bell...he and wife, Laura, have a daughter, Brianna (8/5/91), and sons, Brantley (11/16/94), and Brock (3/18/98)...a Florida native, Jay graduated from Tate High School in Gonzalez, FL, guiding his senior team to the Quad-A State title, while earning a spot on Florida State All-Star team...he was named the Dapper Dan Man-of-the-Year in 1993, an award given annually to a Pittsburgh sports figure in recognition of outstanding achievement on a national level...he was also the '93 recipient of the Pittsburgh Points of Light Foundation Award for his community service work...he was a member of the Diamondbacks Winter Tour for the third straight off-season, paying a January visit to Albuquerque, and works locally with Young Life and the YMCA... when not working out at Bank One Ballpark, Jay spends a good portion of his off-season on the links, this past winter teaming with host Tiger Woods in the Pro-Am event of the Williams World Challenge at Grayhawk.

$$$ A Million Dollar Swing $$$

If a picture is worth a thousand words, then a Jay Bell swing can be worth a million dollars, which was the case for Gylene Hoyle of Chandler on July 11, 1999, in Bank One Ballpark. As part of an in-stadium promotion in conjunction with an area radio station, Mrs. Hoyle predicted prior to the game vs. the Oakland A's that Jay would hit a grand slam in the sixth inning. Bell accommodated the request, snapping a 3-3 tie with a 3-2 blast to left off of Jimmy Haynes, not only staking Arizona to a 7-4 win in the final game prior to the All-Star break, but winning a million bucks for the Chandler resident.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's first round pick in June, 1996, draft...signed by Steve Springer.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Opened the year with El Paso, experiencing AA ball for the first time in his pro career...went 5-6 with a pair of complete games, including his last start for the Diablos, allowing just 2 hits in a 5-inning weather shortened stint on June 19 at Midland, fanning a season-high 7...he was promoted from El Paso to the majors, where Nick literally had a "cup of coffee" with the big league club, spending 5 days on the roster but did not appear in any game action...when optioned out, he was sent to Tucson, finishing the year with his first AAA action, going 1-4 in 11 starts for the Sidewinders...his best outing for Tucson occurred on July 21, tossing 6.0 innings of shutout ball at Oklahoma City, fanning 7 in a no decision.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998–Spent the entire season at High Desert (A), going 8-7 in 24 games (23 starts)...he was named organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month for August, going 1-0 with a 2.81 ERA...his 3.40 ERA was good for fifth in the California League, and ranked fourth in the organization...his best stretch was from May 1-19, going 3-0 with a 0.84 ERA. 1997–Missed the first part of the season because of a pulled muscle in his rib cage, but finished with a 4.04 ERA in 15 starts for South Bend (A) in the Midwest League. 1996–Named organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, when he went 1-1 with a 2.00 ERA for Phoenix (Rookie) of the Arizona League...named to Arizona League post-season All-Star Team as lefthanded starter...was leading the league in ERA (1.66) when he was promoted to Lethbridge (A), where he was 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in 3 starts.

PERSONAL

Nicholas Raymond (Nick) Bierbrodt...he is single and resides in Long Beach, CA, where he graduated from Millikan High School in 1996...Nick earned all-city and all-conference honors on the diamond and also played basketball...he was the first player ever selected by the Diamondbacks in an amateur draft, going in the initial round of the 1996 June free agent draft.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190 B/T: L/L
Age: 27
Born: January 14, 1973 in Cambridge, MD
Residence: Woolford, MD
M.L. Service: 34 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the San Francisco Giants with outfielder Chris Van Rossum as the players to be named in exchange for pitcher Felix Rodriguez, December 21, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Troy was acquired from San Francisco in the winter leading up to the '99 campaign, going to spring training as part of Arizona's 40-man roster...he was optioned to AAA prior to the completion of camp and the injury bug bit hard early in the season with Tucson...after making 3 appearances (2 starts), he was diagnosed with a left elbow injury that required "Tommy John" surgery...Brohawn was subsequently disabled from April 24 through the end of the season...his lone decision with the Sidewinders was a win in relief on April 8, working 5.0 innings allowing 2 runs with 5 K's in beating Colorado Springs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Troy had his first exposure to AAA action, spending the entire season with Fresno in the San Francisco chain...he opened the year with 3 starts, then had only 2 starting assignments over his next 13 outings, before finishing the year with 14 starts...best stretch was June 21-July 6, going 2-0 with a 1.23 ERA, allowing 3 earned runs in 22.0 innings. 1997—Had a breakthrough campaign for Shreveport (AA), earning Texas League in-season All-Star honors...led the league and the Giants' organization with a 2.56 ERA...he was a 3-time winner of the Howe SportsData Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week award...kept the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in 24 of his 28 regular season and post-season starts, including the last 20 in a row...had 3 consecutive scoreless starts from July 17-27, totaling 21.0 innings, going 3-0...went 9-1 with a 1.45 ERA in his final 12 starts, beginning the stretch with an 8-game winning streak...also, picked up a double and a home run among his 4 hits during the year. 1996—First full year at AA, where he was plagued by long ball, surrendering a league-high 30. 1995—Second consecutive year to be affected by injury, undergoing left elbow surgery during the winter after missing latter half of '94...was not activated until July 19, but posted a 7-3 mark and 1.65 ERA in 11 outings (10 starts) for San Jose...was the Howe SportsData Pitcher-of-the-Week in final week of regular season...continued to shine in post-season play, going 2-0 with a 0.61 ERA (1 earned run in 14.2 innings), as San Jose advanced to California League finals. 1994—Signed as a 4th round choice in the June draft and was assigned to San Jose...season ended abruptly on July 19, when he was disabled due to left elbow tendinitis...the elbow was subsequently operated on over the winter.

PERSONAL

Michael Troy (Troy) Brohawn...he is single and makes his off-season home in Woolford, MD...he was a 1990 graduate of Cambridge South Dorchester (MD) High School, then attended the University of Nebraska, earning All-America honors in 1993...after undergoing surgery last summer, Troy chose to remain in Arizona last winter, working out daily at Bank One Ballpark with other teammates.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league pitcher Roberto Manzueta, December 13, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Brad was a non-roster invitee with the Boston Red Sox as spring training commenced, but was reassigned to minor league camp on March 30, and subsequently released on April 6...he signed a minor league contract with Pittsburgh 2 days later and appeared in 12 games of Nashville (AAA)...he was tied for the P.C.L. lead in saves with 7 at the time his contract was purchased by the Pirates on May 9...he gave up just 1 earned run in his first 9 games as a Pirate, spanning 13.0 innings for a 0.69 ERA...season ERA stood at 1.40 after a July 3 appearance vs. Milwaukee, then he surrendered a home run the next day, incurring a 4-3 loss to Milwaukee...his first 5 earned runs allowed came via the long ball...the loss to the Brewers started a 3-game losing streak that was halted with an August 13 victory at Houston...Brad earned a save on September 1 at Colorado, his first major league save since September 25, 1997...he picked up second and final save on September 19 vs. Cincinnati...all told, he posted a 1.59 ERA in his first 29 games with Pittsburgh (5 earned runs in 28.1 innings) and a 4.29 mark (10 earned runs in 21.0 innings) in his final 27 games...Clontz held righthanded batters to a .197 average (29-for-147), but lefthanders hit .435 (20-for-46)...he threw the final pitch of the season, a wild pitch with Mike Piazza batting in the bottom of the 9th inning at Shea on October 3, enabling Melvin Mora to score the tie-breaking run in a 2-1 Mets' victory, sending them into a 1-game playoff vs. Cincy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Was a member of the Atlanta Braves heading into spring training, but was released on March 25 and signed on April 9 by the Dodgers...he did not allow a hit or run in first 9 outings, a span of 11.2 innings, then was touched for 15 hits and 13 earned runs over his last 9 games with L.A....he was optioned to Albuquerque on May 22, then was traded to the Mets on June 5 in an all-pitcher exchange, joining Hideo Nomo on the trip to New York in exchange for Dave Mlicki and Greg McMichael...appeared once for the Mets on June 5, then was optioned to Norfolk (AAA) on June 16, working 28 times...was recalled by New York on September 1, appearing a week later before succumbing to surgery on September 11 to remove bone chips from his right elbow. 1997—Juggled between Atlanta and Richmond, opening the year with the Braves, but was twice optioned to the AAA affiliate...the first option occurred on July 12, spending just under 2 weeks there before returning to Atlanta on July 25...he was optioned once again on July 30, working at Richmond until August 26...he was a member of Atlanta's post-season roster, but did not appear...outstanding at AAA, tossing 22.0 shutout innings in 16 appearances, with 6 saves. 1996—Led the N.L. with an Atlanta record 81 appearances...his September 23 appearance was #78 on the year, breaking Rick Camp's club record of 77 set in 1980...recorded a save on May 4 vs. Philadelphia, his first since May 9, 1995, at Shea...Brad did not appear in the Division Series, but worked once in the LCS vs. St. Louis, then worked 3 times in the World Series against the Yankees, not allowing any earned runs in post-season play. 1995—First visit to the big leagues, Brad opened the year as Atlanta's closer, recording 4 saves between April 27 and May 8...his initial major league rescue occurred on April 27 vs. the Giants...earned his first big league win on June 28 over Montreal, starting an 8-game winning streak that ran thru September 9, the third longest in the N.L. in '95, trailing teammate Greg Maddux (10) and Florida's Pat Rapp (9)...Clontz had an 18.2 scoreless inning streak from June 18-August 2...he went 6-0 in July, with no earned runs in 11.1 innings (13 outings)...he worked in each phase of the post-season, tossing 1.1 scoreless innings vs. Colorado in the Division Series, 0.1 of an inning vs. the Reds in the LCS and allowing a run in 3.1 frames vs. the Indians in the World Series. 1994—Brad made his mark as a closer in the Braves' chain, combining stops in Greenville (AA) and Richmond (AAA) for 38 saves in 63 appearances, earning the National Association Rolaids Relief Title...his club record 27 saves for Greenville led the Southern League, earning Most Outstanding Pitcher honors...also earned Organizational Minor League Player-of-the-Year honors by USA Today, and was named the Phil Niekro Award winner as Most Outstanding Pitcher in the Atlanta organization...he was also named one of Baseball America's Minor League All-Stars and represented Greenville in the Southern League All-Star Game. 1993—Spent season with Durham (A), earning Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for July...he averaged just over a strikeout per inning, fanning 79 in 75.1 innings. 1992—First year as a pro, Brad signed as Atlanta's 10th choice in the June draft and reported to Pulaski (Rookie), where he made only 4 relief appearances before being promoted to Macon (A).

PERSONAL

John Bradley (Brad) Clontz...he is single and makes his off-season home in Alpharetta, GA...Brad was a 1989 graduate of Patrick County High School in Stuart, Virginia, lettering in baseball and basketball...he then lettered in baseball at Virginia Tech University.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 11, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Greg was signed to add righthanded strength to the bench and spell the first basemen on occasion, and he more than filled the bill...the D'Backs possessed a rather anemic bench attack in '98, with pinch hitters providing a composite .173 average, but the N.L. West championship group led by Colby, Bernard Gilkey, David Dellucci prior to his injury and the late-season addition of Lenny Harris, helped combine to provide Arizona with the best overall pinch-hit average in the National League at .319 (60-for-188)...Greg hit .375 (9-for-24) as a pinch hitter, including a season-ending stretch in which he went 5 for his last 8 with 6 RBI...combined with his career numbers entering 1999, Colbrunn has hit .356 as a pinch hitter in his career (47-for-132) with 4 home runs and 33 RBI...his lone pinch homer last year was the icing on a 10th inning cake in Montreal on May 31, taking Steve Kline deep just minutes after Kelly Stinnett had snapped a 5-5 tie with a 2-run shot...Greg opened the year just 2-for-his-first-11 as a pinch hitter, but rebounded to go 7-for-13 over the last 16 times he was summoned from the bench...signed to offset the opposition's lefthanded pitching, Colby hit .361 (35-for-97) against southpaws...he also shined during his limited duty at first base, hitting .324 (34-for-105) in his 31 starts on the infield, committing only 1 error...consistent all year, he saved the best for last, going 10-for-19 (.526) in 6 games to close the year...included was a "bi-cycle" in a 2-game stretch on September 26-27, going 3-for-5 with a homer in San Francisco on the 26th, then adding a double and triple in the opener of the final homestand against Colorado the next night...Greg added another home run on Sept. 30 vs. the Padres, hitting a 3-run shot in the first to tie the game at 3-3, allowing Randy Johnson to regroup and post his 17th win...Colby keyed an August 17 win at home over the Cubs with a bases loaded triple in the first inning, as Arizona scored all of its runs in a 4-0 win, Brian Anderson's first shutout of the year...a clutch performer, Greg hit .343 (12-for-35) with runners in scoring position, including a .368 mark (7-for-19) when there were less than 2-out in the inning.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Greg made a pair of starts vs. the Mets, playing first base in games #2 & #4, collecting an extra-base hit in each contest...he doubled, walked, was hit by a pitch and scored a run in the second game, Arizona's lone win in the series, then tied the fourth game with a fifth inning solo homer in Shea off of Al Leiter.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—For the second consecutive season, Greg opened the year with a new club, but found himself participating in post-season play as a member of the Atlanta Braves...this time, he inked a free agent contract with Colorado, performing for the Rox through July 29, before being shipped to the Braves for a player-to-be-named on July 30...in '97, he had signed a free agent deal with Minnesota, only to be moved to Atlanta for the player-to-be-named on August 14...he combined his stops in 1998 to see duty at first base, the outfield and even an inning behind the plate while with Colorado...all told, he led the majors in pinch-hit average, batting .364 (16-for-44) with 3 doubles and 11 RBI, while his 16 hits ranked second to Houston's Dave Clark...was an overall .340 hitter (17-for-50) with men in scoring position, knocking in 21 runs...he went 2-for-8 in the post-season, with both hits coming in consecutive pinch-hit appearances vs. the Padres on October 7 & 8. 1997—Had first career post-season experience, courtesy of the mid-season trade from Minnesota to Atlanta...appeared in 70 games for the Twins, making 52 starts at first base...had third career 4-hit game on May 12 vs. Toronto...hit his second career grand slam vs. Blue Jays on August 4 off of current teammate Omar Daal...was hitting .281 with 5 homers and 26 RBI at the time of his August 14 trade to Atlanta...went 8-for-16 as a pinch hitter upon his arrival to the Braves, including a pinch home run...enjoyed a terrific post-season, delivering a 2-run single in lone pinch-hit appearance vs. Houston in Division Series, then went 2-for-3 off the bench in the LCS vs. the Marlins. 1996—The end of a 3-year stay with the Marlins, he was the everyday first baseman for the second straight campaign, establishing career bests in doubles, walks and games...also had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from May 31-June 23, hitting .386 (34-for-88)...was disabled from July 24-August 8 with a right wrist bruise...he set a Marlin record and ranked sixth in the N.L. with 12 HBP's. 1995—Set a Marlin club record and personal best with 7 RBI on July 18 at San Francisco, his first career 2-homer game, featuring his first career grand slam (off of Chris Hook)...blasted 2 homers on August 18 at Pittsburgh in the second game of a doubleheader...set a then club record with a 17-game streak (August 20-Sept. 6). 1994—Injury riddled campaign, he made the Marlins' opening day roster just 9 months after undergoing surgery to repair a ligament tear in his right elbow...was disabled from April 9-May 27 with torn cartilage in his left knee...was once again disabled from July 15-30 with a pulled rib cage muscle...he returned to hit .324 with 30 RBI over final 38 games. 1993—Final year in the Montreal organization, the campaign began on the D.L. due to bursitis in his right elbow...had first career 4-hit game on April 29 in Los Angeles...had first career pinch-hit home run on May 30 at Chicago off of Randy Myers...had season-ending surgery on August 10 to repair ligament tear in right elbow (Dr. Frank Jobe and Dr. Larry Coughlin)...was claimed off waivers by Florida on October 7. 1992—Opened the year in AAA at Indianapolis, but was recalled by the Expos and made major league debut on July 9 at San Francisco, collecting first big league hit that day off of Francisco Oliveras...hit first major league homer on July 22 off Giants' Rod Beck...was disabled August 4-18 with a muscle strain in the left side of his back. 1991—Missed the entire season after Dr. Jobe performed surgery to repair a tendon in his right elbow. 1990—Led Jacksonville (AA) in hits, doubles and at bats, earning league and Class AA All-Star honors as a catcher by Baseball America, who also named him the top offensive catcher in the minor leagues. 1989—Split the year between West Palm (A) and Jacksonville (AA), earning Baseball America's tag as Montreal's 10th best overall prospect. 1988—Signed as a sixth round choice in the June draft, he reported to Rockford to begin pro career as a catcher.

PERSONAL

Gregory Joseph (Greg) Colbrunn...he and his wife, Erika, have a daughter, Danielle (10/13/98), and make their home in Isle of Palms, SC...the 1998 post-season with Atlanta was a hectic time for the Colbrunn family, as Danielle was born on the "travel day" between games #5 and #6 of the NLCS, as the Braves returned home from San Diego...Greg was able to get to Florida in time for Danielle's arrival and was back in uniform for the continuation of the series...a native of Fontana, CA, he graduated in 1987 from Fontana High School, earning All-State honors in baseball, while also nabbing All-Conference kudos on the gridiron...he turned down a baseball scholarship to Stanford University to sign with the Expos as their sixth pick in the '87 June draft.

Rewriting the Record Book

Arizona's 35-game turnaround from the inaugural year was the greatest single-season reversal of fortune in major league history. The 100-win campaign wound up a half game better than the 1903 New York Giants, who turned a 48-88 ledger from 1902 into an 84-55 mark the following season, a 34 1/2-game about face, standing as the most prolific for 96 years.

When the Diamondbacks clinched the N.L. West title on September 24, they became the fastest expansion team to qualify for post-season action, a year sooner than the 1995 Colorado Rockies, who used a 144-game season to clinch a Wild Card berth. Arizona's division title broke the previous mark by 6 years, besting the 1969 New York Mets, who went on to win the World Series, and 1976 Kansas City Royals, each club winning their respective divisions in their eighth season.

The 14-game season-ending margin between Arizona and the Giants was the largest spread between first and second place clubs in the N.L. West since the 1975 Big Red Machine of Cincinnati, coasting to a 20-game difference over the Dodgers, when the league was made up of just 2 divisions.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 32nd round of the 1996 June Free Agent Draft.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Jason continued the trek up the organizational ladder, taking part in major league camp for the first time in his career, then spending the entire season with Tucson, his first taste of AAA action...he made a solid first impression, posting a 20-game hitting streak from April 14-May 9, hitting .410 during the skein (34-for-83) with 19 RBI...the 19th game of the streak featured a 2-homer, 4-RBI affair on May 8 vs. Tacoma in Tucson Electric Park...he was most comfortable offensively in Tucson, hitting .313 in 66 home games, while posting a .269 mark in 67 games on the road...Conti also was not fazed by which side a pitcher threw from, as the lefthanded hitting outfielder batted .291 against southpaws and .290 vs. righthanders...he spent the majority of his defensive time in centerfield, patrolling the middle of the outfield in 116 games, while playing 16 games in right...his 8 triples ranked fifth among all minor league players, while his 100 runs scored finished fifth among the AAA fraternity.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Uploaded to the Baseball Archive.org

1998—Earned Organizational Player-of-the-Year honors and wasn't even in his own organization, playing on loan with Tulsa, the AA affiliate of the Rangers...he led all minor leaguers with a team record 125 runs, earning a spot on the Texas League post-season All-Star team...Jason also set a Tulsa record in hits, while ranking second in the league in triples...he also topped the league's outfielders with 20 assists...he led the Texas League playoffs with 9 runs, as the Drillers won the league title, the second consecutive championship campaign for Conti, who finished 1997 with the California League champs from High Desert...his 3-run homer in the 16th inning on May 21 not only knocked off San Antonio, but was his 8th consecutive game with an RBI. 1997—Started the year with South Bend (A), and despite leaving with 2 1/2 weeks remaining in the year, he led the club in hits, runs, triples and stolen bases and was named to the Midwest League post-season All-Star squad...he was promoted to High Desert to assist with the stretch run as the Mavericks won the California League title. 1996—Signed pro contract and reported to Lethbridge (Rookie), hitting .367 in 63 games...finished fifth in the Pioneer League in batting, while his 30 stolen bases ranked third...was named the Organizational Player-of-the-Month for August.

PERSONAL

Stanley Jason (Jason) Conti...he is single and calls Cranberry Township, PA, home, though he spent the majority of each of the past 2 off-seasons working out at Bank One Ballpark with teammates who reside in the Valley... he graduated in 1993 from Seneca Valley (PA) High School, then remained in his hometown, attending the University of Pittsburgh...he was a 1998 member of the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Toronto Blue Jays as the second choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Discovered in the expansion draft, Omar was out to prove that his coming out party in 1998 was the norm and not an aberration, and he was successful in providing the proof, doubling his win total from the inaugural year and ranking 10th in the league in ERA...coming off an 8-12 expansion year in which his 2.88 ERA ranked fifth best in the N.L., Daal survived a slow start in '99 to finish with 16 wins and a 3.65 ERA, while ranking fourth in the league by limiting the opposing hitters to a composite .236 average...he opened the season with 6.1 shutout innings in Atlanta on April 9, but the D'Backs wound up losing a 3-2 decision in 10 innings...Omar then won consecutive starts over the Dodgers and Phillies to open the home half of the slate before falling on hard times... he would lose 3 straight starts and 4 of his next 5, before turning things around...entering a May 22 start in Coors Field, Daal had a 3-4 record, but went the distance in an 8-3 win over the Rockies, a feat anytime but especially in Denver, jumpstarting a 4-game winning streak and a stretch in which he won 10 of his next 12 decisions...the 4-game winning streak ran from May 22-June 19, spanning 6 starts in which he surrendered just 13 earned runs over 44.2 innings for a 2.62 ERA...included was a 2-1 effort in Shea Stadium on May 28, allowing a run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings...he followed that with a 15-2 win in Montreal, allowing 2 earned runs over 6.0 innings, then a no decision vs. the Cubs where he set a season-high with 11 strikeouts, 1 shy of his career best set in '98...the last win in the streak was a 7-3 triumph at home over the Braves, giving up 3 runs over 7.0 innings...he stymied the Reds on a run over 8.0 innings at Cinergy on July 1, but that was only good enough for a no decision, as the game went 10 innings before Cincy won, 2-1...his best overall stretch came after a wake-up call in Seattle on July 18, letting a 6-0 lead get away in a contest the D'Backs dropped, 8-7 in 10...that outing was followed by a 5-start stretch in which Daal allowed just 9 earned runs over 38.0 innings, a 2.13 ERA, going 4-1...the lone loss in that span was to the Giants at home on August 3, entering the 8th with a 1-0 lead, but Omar surrendered a 2-out, 3-run homer to Charlie Hayes...he followed with wins over the Cubs and Brewers, the victory vs. Milwaukee his 2nd career shutout, scattering 7 hits in a 4-0 decision at home on August 15...Daal finished the year strong, allowing 1 earned run or less in 4 of his last 5 starts, including a regular season ending tune-up vs. the Padres at home on October 2, giving up 2 unearned runs in a 6-inning stint...the lone game in that stretch that the opposition scored more than 1 earned run was in none other than Coors Field, where the Rockies were 12-7 winners on September 20, scoring 8 times in just 3.2 innings...all told, in his last 4 starts that didn't take place at a mile high elevation, Omar allowed just 3 earned runs in 26.0 innings, a 1.04 ERA...he finished the year working 52.0 more innings than the year before, previously his busiest season...the southpaw stymied lefthanded hitters, holding them to a composite .200 mark (28-for-140)...Daal also flourished with the bat, leading the staff with a .232 average (16-for-69), including a strong finish, going 9-for-30 (.300) over his last 13 starts, featuring a 5-game hitting streak that was snapped on August 27...he entered the '99 season with 6 hits in 62 career at bats...of his 16 hits, 5 were bunt singles, ranking 2nd on the club to speedster Tony Womack.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Omar worked game #3 for his initial test in post-season play, taking the loss in a 9-2 decision in Shea Stadium...things got out of hand after his departure, as Daal worked 4.0 innings allowing 3 runs on 6 hits, with 3 walks and 4 K's.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—The steal of the expansion draft, Omar opened the year working in relief, but by season's end he was a staple in the starting rotation while finishing fifth in the N.L. in ERA, qualifying for recognition by a mere 0.2 of an inning...he entered '98 with 12 career major league starts, but nearly doubled his career total by making 23 for the D'Backs, while working 63.2 more innings than any previous pro season...his 8-12 overall record was the only sub .500 mark among the top 9 qualifiers in the league ERA race...he was on the losing end of 5 shutouts over the final 2 months, not surrendering more than 2 earned runs in any of those losses, including a pair of 1-0 defeats...D'Backs scored only 73 runs in his 23 starts, 3.2 runs per outing, including 22 runs in his last 10 starts (2.2 per game), a stretch in which he was 3-7...set a personal best and then-club record with 12 K's on September 1 in Pittsburgh, working 8.0 innings of a 4-3 win...he owns the first complete game shutout in franchise history, a 4-0 win at home over the Cubs on July 30...was sidelined for 3 weeks at mid-season with a left hamstring strain...lost bid for starting role in spring training to fellow-southpaw Joel Adamson, but an injury to Adamson necessitated Daal's move to rotation...he had a 1.69 ERA in 10 relief appearances before becoming a starter. 1997—Pitched for both Canadian entries in the majors, as well as their respective AAA clubs, starting the season with Montreal then wrapping it up with Toronto...made 27 relief appearances for Expos before getting optioned to Ottawa (AAA) in June, starting twice before returning to Montreal...appeared 6 more times for the Expos in July, then was placed on waivers...claimed by Toronto, appearing in 4 games before being optioned on August 6 to Syracuse...returned to the Jays for September, working twice in relief before making starts in final 3 outings of the season...posted first A.L. win on Sept. 19 in Yankee Stadium, blanking the New York on 6 hits over 6.0 innings. 1996—Began to show signs that starting was in repertoire, opening the year as the only southpaw in the bullpen, but ended up making 6 starts for the Expos...initial start was August 31 vs. San Diego, snapping a streak of 156 consecutive big league relief appearances...it was a successful experiment, beating the Padres, allowing a single while fanning 8 over 5.0 shutout innings...followed the year with a stint with Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League, going 9-1 with a 1.49 ERA in 12 starts. 1995—Split year between the Dodgers and Albuquerque, going 4-0 in 28 outings for L.A., while working 2 months in AAA...excelled in Venezuela during the winter, going 10-2 with a 1.68 ERA in 13 starts...was traded to Montreal in December for minor league pitcher Rick Clelland. 1994—Opened the year in AAA, but was recalled to L.A. on April 20...stayed in the majors for a month, was optioned to Albuquerque on May 23, then returned to Los Angeles on June 23. 1993—Made 6 relief appearances with Albuquerque to start the season, then had his contract purchased by the Dodgers on April 23 and spent the rest of the year with L.A....made big league debut with 1.0 inning of relief in Philly on April 23...retired first 10 men he faced in the majors until allowing a single to Philly's Dave Hollins on April 30...unfortunately, Darren Daulton followed with a home run to give Omar his first big league decision, a loss...earned first big league win on June 12 in San Diego. 1992—Split the year between San Antonio (AA) and Albuquerque, combining the experience for a 2-8 mark in 47 games. 1990 & 1991—He signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Dodgers, but pitched for their Dominican club in Santo Domingo for 2 seasons...he was 3-6 with a 1.18 ERA and a pair of saves in his first pro season at Santo Domingo, then went 7-2 with an even better 1.16 ERA in 13 games...Daal was employed as a starter in 26 of his 30 outings in the Dominican.

PERSONAL

Omar Jose Cordaro Daal...he and his wife, Josneil, have two sons, Jesus (11/10/95) and Nicholas (9/19/98), and make their home in Flor Amar Valencia, Venezuela...though his home in Valencia was spared the tragedy of last winter's floods, the weather prevented Omar from an abundance of winter ball for the first time, working only 1.0 inning...Omar attended Valencia Superior High School...he was named to Baseball America's All-Winter League team for 1996-97, going 9-1 during the season while pitching for Caracas in the Venezuelan League...he was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Dodgers on August 24, 1990.

Worst-to-First a 90's Thing

Major league baseball had not witnessed a worst-to-first turnaround of any kind until the 1991 season when both World Series participants, Atlanta and Minnesota, climbed from the cellar to the penthouse. The Diamondbacks turnaround from 1998 to 1999 marked the sixth, and final time in the 90's that a club would win its division after sitting on the bottom the previous year.

Other members of the worst-to-first club during the last century's final decade were the 1993 Phillies, 1997 Giants and 1998 Padres. The complete list:

Arizona Diamondbacks

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Baltimore Orioles as the ninth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

David was in the midst of a terrific sophomore season in the majors when a nagging pain his wrist turned into a season-ending disaster...he was diagnosed with a left wrist disorder that required immediate surgery and left him on the disabled list for the remainder of the year...unfortunately for David and the Diamondbacks, he had just upped his season average 43 points at the time he was sidelined, hitting safely in 8 of 9 games at a .500 clip (16-for-32) to rise from .351 to what wound up a season-ending .394 mark...Dellucci closed the year with 8 hits in his last 14 at bats before being diagnosed with the injury...while healthy he flirted with the .400 mark in part-time play, raising his mark as high at .419 on May 23 after going 4-for-5 with a double and 3 runs scored in Colorado...though his playing time was limited due to the outstanding seasons by all 3 regular outfielders, David contributed in the pinch-hit role, collecting 10 pinch hits...Dellucci's best bench stretch was from April 14-May 17, when he went 7-for-13 with 2 doubles and 6 RBI...though his playing time was limited, David flourished against righthanded pitching, batting .419 (39-for-93).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998 — Began the season with Tucson, his first career AAA action, but that visit lasted only 17 games before getting the call to the major league club, where he remained for the year...recalled on April 27, his Arizona debut was a 2-for-4, 2 RBI game...though not an everyday player in the latter half of season, he wound up leading the N.L. in triples with 12, just the second rookie since 1984 to lead the league in 3-base hits (Ray Lankford with St. Louis in 1991)...his first National League homer was a 2-run shot on May 1 at Montreal off of Javier Vazquez... had first career 4-hit game, including 3 doubles, on June 2 at Colorado, just the 4th expansion player in history to pick up 3 doubles in a game (Rusty Staub, Doug Rader and Charlie Hayes)...he started all 3 outfield positions, spending the majority of his time in left with 80 starts, while also getting the nod in center (15) and right (8)...he went 4-for-7 (.571) with 7 RBI when batting with the bases loaded, and had a .294 mark (30-for-102) with runners in scoring position...he hit .306 during his 17-game stint with Tucson. 1997—Opened the year with Bowie, but made the jump from AA to the majors in June, appearing in 9 games for Baltimore...went 4-for-23 (.174), including his first big league home run, a solo shot in Milwaukee on June 25 off of Cal Eldred...he was also part of the September recalls, appearing in 8 games during the final month, going 2-for-4...played all 3 outfield positions while with Bowie, though the majority of his time was in center, committing only 1 error. 1996—Had the sixth best overall average among Baltimore farmhands, hitting a combined .305 with Frederick (A) and Bowie (AA)... was promoted to Bowie on June 26 and went 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, 2 runs and 2 RBI in debut game. 1995—Enjoyed the home field at Frederick, batting .340 (17-for-50), while hitting only .217 (10-for-46) on the road.

PERSONAL

David Michael Dellucci...he is single and resides in his native Baton Rouge, LA, where he graduated from Catholic High School in 1992...David was team MVP in both baseball and football as a prepster, while earning All-State honors on the diamond...followed high school with 3 outstanding years of baseball at the University of Mississippi, where he was an All-Southeastern Conference selection in both 1994 and '95...Dellucci also earned All-American status in '95, setting 10 school records while leading the SEC in hitting...was also named Athlete-of-the-Year at Ole Miss in 1995...David was a 10th round pick of the Orioles in the 1995 June draft...an avid fan of the WCW wrestling craze, he is often in the company of fellow Valley resident, and World Champion, Kevin Nash...also a music buff, he made a lasting first impression with Megadeath guitarist Dave Mustaine, also a Valley resident, when he flipped a foul ball to the rock star during a 1998 home game, only to soak the musician with a soft drink that was in the line of flight...Dellucci returned to the Valley in early January to rehab his surgically repaired wrist, while also participating in Arizona's Winter Tour 2000...he is also active in the Valley with Special Olympics and Easter Seals.

HOW OBTAINED: Contract purchased by the Arizona Diamondbacks from the Monterrey Sultans of the Mexican League, December 16, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: One of the top success stories of the 1999 season was Erubiel's rise through the U.S. minor league baseball system, ending the year as a huge asset to the Diamondbacks' run at the division title... after hitting .404 in a combined 94 games of AA and AAA, Erubiel was a major leaguer on July 25...hitless as a pinch hitter in his first big league appearance the next night, Durazo made an impression 2 days later on July 28, going 3-for-5 with 2 runs scored, collecting his first hit off of San Diego's Brian Boehringer...it was the first of many, as Durazo kept himself in the lineup with a .350 beginning, going 21-for-60 through his first 22 games, featuring 5 home runs and 9 RBI...his first big league blast was in Philadelphia on August 7 in just his 10th major league game, a 446-foot shot to centerfield off of Curt Schilling...that home run ignited his first official hot streak as a big leaguer, batting .366 (15-for-41) over a 13-game stretch with 5 homers and 10 runs scored...his first 6 extra-base hits in the majors were homers, not recording a double until September 1 in his 28th game...he was 2-for-3 with a homer on August 18 vs. Chicago, upping his season mark to .400 and jump-starting a month-long power display...from that date until Sept. 14, Durazo hit 10 home runs over a 22-game span, encompassing 77 at bats for a remarkable ratio of 1 homer in every 7.7 at bats...strangely, the homer he hit off of fellow Mexico native Francisco Cordova on Sept. 14, was his last long ball of the regular season...Durazo picked a great time for his first career multi-homer game, taking John Smoltz deep twice in Turner Field on Sept. 4, the second a 2-run shot that staked Arizona to a 5-4 win...Erubiel closed the regular season hitting .400 (22-for-55) in his last 19 games, including his lone pinch-hit homer, a 2-run blast in Milwaukee off of southpaw Rafael Roque on September 9... defensively, Durazo appeared in 44 major league games at first base, handling all 344 chances without an error... his half-season effort earned the respect of the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA, as Erubiel was tabbed the team Rookie-of-the-Year.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Erubiel appeared in a pair of games vs. the Mets, starting at first base in games #1 & #3...he homered in his second post-season at bat, a solo blast in the opening game at Bank One Ballpark off of New York's Masato Yoshii, Durazo's only hit in the series...he finished 1-for-7 with a walk.

MINOR LEAGUE: Erubiel's first taste of pro baseball in the United States was with El Paso, Arizona's AA affiliate, ripping the Texas League to the tune of a .403 mark through 64 games, with 14 homers and 55 RBI...with nothing left to prove at AA, he was promoted to Tucson on June 19, hitting .407 (48-for-118) in 30 games with 10 homers and 28 RBI...his combined minor league average of .404 totaled enough plate appearances to qualify him as the first player to hit .400 in the minors since Aaron Pointer (.401) of the Houston (Colt 45's) Astro organization in 1961...he also led all minor league players with a .703 slugging pct....he twice earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month honors, hitting .489 with 10 homers and 33 RBI for El Paso in May, then following that with a combined .387 performance with 9 home runs and 23 RBI with El Paso and Tucson in June.

PERSONAL

Erubiel Durazo Cardenas....he is single and makes his home in his native Hermosillo, Mexico...Durazo's story began as a 15-year old when Derek Bryant, then the director of player personnel for Hermosillo and formerly a manager in Arizona's minor league system, saw Erubiel play as a youth...after attending Tucson's Amphitheater High School and Pima Community College, Durazo returned to his native Mexico undrafted, signing to play for Monterrey in the Mexican League, earning both summer and winter Rookie-of-the-Year honors... since the Diamondbacks had a working agreement with the Monterrey Sultans, they signed Erubiel at the suggestion of Bryant, and as they say in the business, "the rest is history"...a popular figure in his homeland, Durazo was summoned to travel with the big league club to Hermosillo last spring, picking up a pinch-hit single in a late-inning at bat...little did anyone know that he would eventually spend much more time with the major league squad later in the year...Erubiel returned to Hermosillo last winter to play in the Mexican Pacific League, hitting .360 with 11 homers and 37 RBI in 41 games for the Orange Growers, leading them to post-season play.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Nelson's first full year in the Arizona organization, he participated in big league camp prior to his regular season assignment to Tucson (AAA)...twice sidelined by a right shoulder strain, he still managed an 11-6 record, matching Andrew Good for the second highest win total in Arizona's minor league chain...he was tabbed the organization's Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Month for April, going 3-1 in 5 starts with a 4.07 ERA, fanning 23 in 24.1 innings...Nelson was sharp out of the chute, allowing just a run and a hit in a 5-inning stint to open the year on April 10 vs. Colorado Springs, then followed that with 7.0 shutout innings of 1-hit ball on April 15 at home vs. Omaha, fanning a season-high 7 in each outing...he was 7-2 with a 3.36 ERA through 12 outings (10 starts), capping the stretch with an impressive 2-hit shutout at Calgary on June 6...little did he know that would be his last healthy performance for awhile, as he was tagged for 8 earned runs his next time out on June 11 and the next day went on the disabled list for 11 days with a right shoulder strain...he returned to work on June 23, but was only able to make 3 starts before heading back to the D.L. with a similar injury, this time keeping the righthander out of action through the end of July...once deemed healthy, Nelson made a 3-inning rehab appearance for the Rookie League club in Tucson, then finished the year with 8 starts for the Sidewinders, only once allowing more than 3 earned runs, posting a 5-3 mark.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Nelson was in the midst of an outstanding year with Binghamton (AA) in the Mets' chain, before getting his first taste of AAA action after joining Arizona as part of a trade that also brought Bernard Gilkey to the desert...Figueroa was 12-3 in 21 starts for Binghamton, departing the club during a personal 6-game winning streak, spanning 7 starts...he had 3 complete games, including a 12-K, 2-hit shutout on June 10 at Reading...upon arriving in Tucson, he split 4 decisions in 7 starts, finishing the year with 8.0 shutout innings in a win at Las Vegas. 1997—Had his lone pro year with a losing record, going 5-11 in 33 games (22 starts) in first year with Binghamton (AA)...finished second on the staff with 116 strikeouts...he earned Eastern League Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for April 21-27. 1996—Had a terrific year for Capital City, earning Pitcher-of-the-Year honors and All-Star status in the South Atlantic League...he was also named Capital City's Doubleday Award winner...led the S.A.L. in ERA, complete games, shutouts and strikeouts...Figueroa's strikeout total led all minor league hurlers, while his shutouts were tied for the top spot and ERA ranked second...his 14 wins ranked second in the Mets' chain. 1995—Signed as a 30th round pick in the June draft and reported to Kingsport (Rookie), leading the Appalachian League in shutouts, and tying for the club lead in victories.

PERSONAL

Nelson Walter Figueroa, Jr....he is single and calls his native Brooklyn, NY, though he worked out at Bank One Ballpark after finishing his winter ball commitment in Hermosillo... he's a graduate of Abraham Lincoln High School in Brooklyn, then attended Brandeis University, posting a 2.35 ERA during his final season in 1995...due to the injury he incurred in '99, Nelson picked up some innings for Hermosillo in the Mexican Pacific League last winter, going 4-2 with a 2.66 ERA in 11 starts, recording 58 K's in 67.2 innings.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Steve's reputation as a streak hitter and terrific defensive outfielder held true in his initial year as a Diamondback, establishing career bests in homers and RBI, while earning his third career Rawlings Gold Glove, first since winning consecutive awards in 1995 & 1996...all of this was accomplished while suffering from a back ailment that twice required pain-killing injections during the season...Steve eclipsed the 100-RBI mark on Sept. 28 vs. Colorado, joining teammates Matt Williams, Jay Bell and Luis Gonzalez in the century club, as Arizona became 1 of 7 National League clubs in history with 4 100-RBI men...Fins also scored 100 runs, the fourth time in his last 5 years he has stepped on the plate at least 100 times...his year started slowly at the plate, hitting just .231 through May 19, but then one of his patented streaks commenced and Fins went on his first official tear of the year...from May 20-June 5, he batted .452 (28-for-62) over a 15-game stretch, with 17 runs, 8 doubles, 2 triples, 6 homers and 29 RBI, totaling 58 bases for a .935 slugging pct., raising his season average 63 points to .294... included was a 5-game stretch against New York, Montreal and Texas in which he went 16-for-23 (.696) with 4 doubles, a triple, 5 homers and 18 RBI, totaling 37 bases for a slugging pct. of 1.609, earning N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...the stretch began with a 4-for-5 game on May 30 in Shea Stadium, featuring a double, 2 homers and 5 RBI, but he trumped that 2 days later with another 4-hit effort, hitting 2 more home runs, while setting a club record with 6 RBI...he would later tie the RBI mark with another 6-pack on September 8 in Milwaukee, the result of a club record 3-homer game, the third of his career...Fins entered last year with 7 career multi-homer efforts, but he doubled that with 7 more during the '99 season, tying Barry Bonds for second in the league to Mark McGwire, who logged 9 multi-HR games for the Redbirds...the 3-homer effort in County Stadium occurred in the middle of another of Steve's hot streaks, batting .444 (12-for-27) on a 6-game tour through Atlanta and Milwaukee from Sept. 3-9, including 4 doubles, a triple, 5 homers, 10 runs and 11 RBI...that streak jump-started a 22-game period in September in which Fins batted. 330 (29-for-88) with 24 runs scored, 6 doubles, 2 triples, 9 homers, 21 RBI and 66 total bases, a .750 slugging pct....he hit the seventh grand slam of his career on May 10 at home vs. Montreal's Javier Vazquez...he was 1 of 2 D'Backs to make a splash in right-center at Bank One Ballpark, taking a Mark Gardner delivery into the pool on August 4, Steve's second homer of the game...with the leather, Fins committed only 2 errors, ironically the first occurring on April 24 in the familiar surroundings of Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, where he patrolled centerfield for 4 years...he then set a Diamondback record with 109 consecutive errorless games, snapping the streak with a miscue at home on August 30 vs. the Mets... Steve collected the 1,500th hit of his career on June 13 in Anaheim off of Omar Olivares...he logged 4 hits on 4 occasions in 1999, giving him 24 career contests with at least 4 knocks...of Fins' 34 home runs, 10 were off of left-handed pitching, 8 more than he had vs. southpaws during the entire 1998 season... the first 5 home runs he hit last year were solo blasts, but 20 of his last 29 came with men aboard...Steve was not discriminating between home or road, hitting 17 home runs in Bank One Ballpark and 17 away from the Valley.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Fins hit safely in all 4 games vs. the Mets, finishing the series with a .385 mark (5-for-13), with a double and 5 RBI...the double and 5 RBI all took place in the second game of the series, Arizona's lone win, providing a 2-run single in the third inning and 2-run double in the fifth, then coaxing a bases loaded walk in the seventh...he entered that contest with 18 career post-season games under his belt, totaling 4 runs batted in.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Steve has hit 106 home runs in his last 4 seasons after totaling 47 through his first 7 years in the majors...he entered the new millennium ranking fourth among active players in triples with 85, trailing Toronto's Tony Fernandez by 7 and 1 ahead of Tony Gwynn. 1998—Though the average tailed off to .249, he hammered 60 extra-base hits, 39% of his overall hit total...he had a pair of 4-hit games, the first included a club record-tying 3 doubles and 5 RBI vs. the Rangers in Arlington on June 7...he hit his fifth career first inning leadoff homer, taking the Giants' Shawn Estes deep to open the scoring on September 9 in San Diego...it was his second with the Padres, after hitting 3 with Houston...he hit the sixth grand slam of his career on April 10, delivering a 2-out blow to the newcomer Diamondbacks, taking Felix Rodriguez deep to end the game. POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Steve rode the offensive rollercoaster during the Padres' run into fall ball, finishing October play with a .209 mark, going 9-for-43 in 13 games...he struggled through a 1-for-10 in the Division Series vs. the Astros, but rebounded to hit .333 (7-for-21) in the 6-game NLCS....Finley was not as fortunate in the Fall Classic against the Yankees, going just 1-for-12 while appearing in 3 of the 4 games. 1997—Led the Padres in homers, triples and runs...also ranked in the top 3 on the club in RBI, extra-base hits, hits, doubles and stolen bases, earning his first trip to the All-Star Game...added his name to the record book by becoming the sixth National Leaguer and 11th player in big league history to homer 3 times in a game twice in the same season...first 3-bomb game was on May 19 at Cincinnati, hitting a pair of shots off of Pete Schourek, then taking Stan Belinda deep, all solos...he duplicated the effort on June 23 at San Francisco, clubbing bases empty shots off of Mark Gardner and Rich Rodriguez, then hitting a 2-run homer in the ninth off of Joe Roa...he also singled in the game to set a club record with 13 total bases, 1 more base than Nate Colbert's club record 3-homer game on August 1, 1972...the second 3-homer game led to N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors, finishing the week of June 23-29 with a .520 mark (13-for-25) with 6 homers and 9 RBI, adding a 2-homer and 3-RBI affair on June 28 in Los Angeles...he slugged career home run #100 on August 23 at Shea Stadium off of Dave Mlicki. 1996—Had a career year rewriting the San Diego record book, setting career bests in average, runs, hits, doubles, homers, extra-base hits, total bases (348), RBI, slugging pct. (.531) and at bats, and finished 10th in the N.L. MVP balloting...in the process, he established Padres' records in runs, doubles, extra-base hits and total bases...he also swiped 22 bases, becoming just the fourth Padre ever to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases...he also had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from June 20-July 14, hitting .419 (39-for-93)...he had a streak of home runs in 3 consecutive at bats on June 29-30 in San Francisco, hitting a 3-run blast off Mark Leiter and a 2-run shot off of Rod Beck on the 29th, then a solo homer off of William VanLandingham the following day...Finley set a career-high with 5 hits on May 23 at Philly...he hit his third career grand slam on June 1 at Philly off of Dave Leiper...notched career hit #1,000 on June 5, a double off St. Louis lefty Donovan Osborne...had a milestone evening on Sept. 10 vs. the Pirates, joining the 20/20 club with his 20th steal, then setting the club record for doubles in a season, and ending the contest with a 2-out, 0-2, 2-run homer to give the Friars a 6-5 win...defensively, he earned his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove...he wrapped up 1996 by earning MVP honors on an 8-game Major League Baseball All-Star tour through Japan, hitting .400 (8-for-20) in 7 games. 1995—First year in San Diego, he was the only National League player to achieve 100 runs, 10 homers and 35 stolen bases (Minnesota's Chuck Knoblauch was the only A.L. player), while earning his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award...was used in the leadoff spot in 73 games, hitting a major league best .338 (103-for-305) in that slot...stole a career-high 4 bases on August 12 vs. St. Louis...was in the delivery room on Sept. 1 when son Reed was born, then headed to the ballpark and played the last 2 innings of San Diego's 6-3 win over Philly. 1994—Steve appeared in 94 games of an injury and strike-shortened season, missing nearly a month after being hit by a pitch on June 8 in Montreal, breaking the third metacarpal bone in his right hand...he was placed on the D.L. on June 13 and did not return until July 3...hit his second career grand slam on July 17 at Pittsburgh off of Paul Wagner, then tied a Houston club record on July 23 with 4 runs, also vs. the Pirates...Finley was part of the 11-player trade with San Diego on December 28. 1993—Slowed by an early-season ailment and injury, he did not play full-time until mid-May...was slowed in spring training by Bell's Palsy, a viral infection of a nerve in the upper neck, resulting in numbness that prevented him from closing his left eye...he then played the first 16 games of the year before getting plunked by a John Candelaria pitch on April 24 in Pittsburgh, resulting in a hairline fracture, which forced him on the D.L. from April 27-May 14...upon returning, he did not collect his first triple of the year until the 41st game and still led the N.L. with 13. 1992—Steve and teammates Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell were the only 3 N.L. players to participate in all 162 games...he finished in the league's top 10 in hits, triples, stolen bases and sacrifice bunts. 1991—Finley's first year as an Astro he was acquired on January 10 with pitchers Pete Harnisch and Curt Schilling in exchange for Glenn Davis...he matched a then personal best with a pair of 4-hit games, May 29 and August 15, both at Dodger Stadium. 1990—Led the Orioles with 22 stolen bases, while ranking second with 119 hits...had a trio of 4-hit games, May 22 vs. Minnesota and twice vs. the Angels (August 11 and Sept. 7). 1989—Made his major league debut with Baltimore on opening day vs. Boston...on first big league fielding chance, Steve made a diving catch while crashing into the wall in right-center, suffering a right shoulder sprain that necessitated D.L. time...was activated on April 22 and picked up first big league hit that night, a single off of Minnesota's Fred Toliver...hit first major league home run on April 25 off California's Willie Fraser...blasted first grand slam on June 5 at Yankee Stadium off of lefthander Chuck Cary. 1988—Steve was named International League Rookie-of-the-Year, leading the I.L. in batting and hits to help Rochester to the title...it was a quick climb, playing just 8 games at Hagerstown (A), then participating in 10 games at Charlotte (AA), before heading to Rochester. 1987—Signed with Baltimore as a 14th round choice in the June draft and reported to Newark, earning a spot on the New York-Penn League All-Star team.

PERSONAL

Steven Allen (Steve) Finley...he and wife, Amy, and sons, Austin (10/8/93), Reed (9/1/95) and Blake (2/23/97) make their home in Del Mar, CA...Steve graduated from Paducah (KY) Tilghman High School, then went to Southern Illinois at Carbondale, earning a degree in physiology...he was accepted to chiropractic school (Logan College in St. Louis), but opted to play pro ball...he was drafted by Atlanta in the 11th round of the '86 June draft, but chose to remain at S.I.U., where he was a 2-time All-Missouri Valley Conference player, and a third team All-American in 1986...Finley's 1984 and '86 S.I.U. clubs each captured conference titles...he was a member of Team USA in 1986 that won the Bronze medal in international competition in the Netherlands...Steve's father is a retired middle school dean in Paducah, while his mother is still teaching middle school...Steve earned the 1997 Chairman's Award with San Diego, as the Padre who best exemplifies the community spirit of team owner John Moores and his family...both Steve and Amy have been extremely active in the communities that Steve has called home, inspiring the Padres Scholars program in 1995...they also began a program in which they purchased 20 tickets for every game to enable underprivileged children to attend games, and have continued the program in Bank One Ballpark since joining the Diamondbacks...they toured Indonesia in '95 and Hungary in '92, conducting youth baseball clinics and providing equipment to help form leagues...the family also formed the Steve Finley Charitable Youth Fund in 1993, encouraging kids to stay in school, earn a degree and live drug free.

Fins Reaps Rawlings Gold

Steve Finley became the first Diamondback in the team's brief history to earn a Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence. It was Fins' third career Rawlings Gold Glove, first since the 1996 season with San Diego. The veteran centerfielder committed only two errors all season, the first occurring in the familiar surroundings of Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego on April 24. He followed with a club record 109 consecutive errorless games, snapping the streak with a miscue at home on August 30 against the New York Mets.

Finley's three career Rawlings Gold Gloves raise the total to 14 such honors won by Diamondback uniformed personnel in their respective careers. Matt Williams leads the pack among active players on the roster, earning four in his career, the most recent in 1997 with the Indians. Jay Bell snapped Ozzie Smith's reign at shortstop in 1993 while with the Pirates, his lone Gold Glove. First base and outfield coach, Dwayne Murphy, won six consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves from 1980-85 while patrolling centerfield for the Oakland A's.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the New York Yankees in exchange for pitchers Todd Erdos and Marty Janzen, March 8, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Coming off a career-year in 1998, Andy was used sparingly early in '99, then suffered through an injury that limited his play late in the season...he was hitting .305 as late as June 6, though his playing time was lessened as Tony Batista had earned an opportunity to play after the second half he experienced in 1998...when Batista was traded to Toronto in mid-June, Fox handled the majority of the shortstop duties for the better part of 2 months... his best overall stretch offensively was from May 11-June 4, a 16-game period in which he batted .392 (20-for-51) raising his season average from .167 to .320...Andy was a thorn in St. Louis' side during a one-week period, knocking home the game-winning run in Bank One Ballpark with a pinch single on June 27, then he celebrated the fourth of July holiday in style at Busch Stadium, going 2-for-5 with a home run and career-high 4 RBI...Foxy hammered his fifth homer of the year 3 days later, a solo shot off Houston's Wade Miller, then didn't go deep again until September 29...the time between the home runs was the most frustrating of the year for Fox, who spent 3 weeks out of action with a right rib cage strain...despite the limited playing time, Andy still managed to find a way to lead the club in hit by pitches, getting plunked 9 times...he set an expansion record during the inaugural season of '98 by getting drilled on 18 occasions.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Andy's lone appearance was as the starting shortstop in game #3 at Shea, going 0-for-3 .

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Andy set personal bests in every offensive category, serving as Arizona's leadoff hitter for the final 4 1/2 months of the season, starting at 6 different positions, including all 3 outfield spots, third base, second base and first base...he was used on the infield corners when injuries sidelined both Matt Williams and Travis Lee for extended stretches...Anaheim's Craig Shipley was the only other major leaguer to start at 6 different positions in '98...Andy was hitting .246 as of May 15, the first day he served as the leadoff hitter, then batted .314 (77-for-245) in his first 64 games at the top of the order, topping his season mark out at .299...despite struggling to a .214 mark in September (18-for-84), Fox finished hitting .282 in the #1 slot in the order (120-for-426)...he finished sixth in the N.L. with 18 hit by pitches, establishing an expansion player record for bruises, 3 more than Montreal's Mack Jones in 1969...Fox had his first career 4-hit game on July 28 at home vs. the Cubs, starting the contest with a leadoff home run, his 2nd of the year (June 12 vs. St. Louis)...he tied a club mark with 4 runs scored in the nightcap of a twinbill at Philly on August 20...he was the only D'Back to steal home, pilfering the plate on the back half of a double steal on August 16...he set the club record by reaching base safely in 7 consecutive plate appearances (June 26-28) with 4 hits and 3 walks...he had a pair of career-high 8-game hitting streaks, the first featuring an impressive .515 mark (17-for-33) from July 25-August 1...epitomizing consistency, he hit .277 (67-for-242) in 72 games prior to the All-Star break, then hit .277 (72-for-260) in 67 games after the break...a lefthanded hitter, Fox batted .333 (32-for-96) against southpaws, while hitting .264 (107-for-406) vs. righties. 1997—Spent the majority of the year with Columbus (AAA) in the Yankees' chain, earning the distinction as the "Best Baserunner" among AAA players in a poll of managers by Baseball America...appeared in just 22 games with the Yankees, going to the plate 31 times during a pair of recalls...he was a member of the post-season roster, twice appearing as a pinch runner in the Division Series vs. the Indians. 1996—Hit .196 in 113 games for the World Champion Yankees... recorded first major league hit on April 11 vs. Kansas City, a single off of Tim Belcher...hammered first big league homer on June 6 vs. Toronto, a 3-run blast off of Paul Spoljaric...he had 9 assists at third base in a game on June 11, 2 shy of a big league record...Fox saw action in 8 post-season games, 7 times as a pinch runner, scoring a run during the Fall Classic vs. the Braves. 1995—All of his playing time came at Columbus (AAA) and Norwich (AA)...he was recalled to the majors on Sept. 18, though did not appear in a game...he earned International League Player-of-the-Week honors for June 12-18...he ended '95 playing for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .353 in 9 games before a bruised left knee ended his year. 1994—Spent the entire year at Albany (AA), hitting .222 in 121 games, but turned heads with his Fall League performance, hitting .272 with 7 homers, 41 RBI and 9 stolen bases with Peoria...his fall performance earned Fox one of the top prospect honors as voted by league managers...he was the first AFL Player-of-the-Week, hitting .407. 1993—Was limited to 65 games at Albany (A), spending 2 months on the D.L. with a sprained finger on his right hand. 1992—Appeared in 125 games for Prince William (A), earning "Best Defensive Third Baseman" and "Best Infield Arm" honors in a Baseball America vote of Carolina League managers. 1991—His first season at Prince William, he hit for a cycle on May 4 vs. Lynchburg...played 126 games at third base, and earned a spot on the Carolina League All-Star team. 1990—While with Greensboro (A), he was named to the South Atlantic League All-Star squad as the third baseman. 1989—Signed as a second round choice in the June draft and was assigned to Sarasota.

PERSONAL

Andrew Junipero (Andy) Fox...he and his wife, Stefanie, are the owners of a pair of dachshunds, Super Joe (named after former NFL quarterback Joe Montana) and Six...Andy graduated in 1989 from Christian Brothers High School in his native Sacramento, CA, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...he had the opportunity to play baseball at Loyola-Marymount University, but turned it down and signed a professional contract...he was a participant in Arizona's Winter Tour 2000, making stops in Globe, Miami and Yuma, Arizona.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Texas Rangers as the twelfth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

After traveling back-and-forth between AAA and the majors for the first 2 months of the season, Hanley spent the majority of the second half of '99 establishing himself as a major league shortstop...he opened the season on the big league roster, but appeared in just 3 games before his first option to Tucson...he played for 2 weeks with the Sidewinders then was summoned back to the D'Backs on April 26...Hanley was optioned to the Sidewinders again on May 22, but recalled for the final time on June 8, and with the trade of Tony Batista to Toronto, he was able to accumulate some playing time...it took awhile for him to get comfortable offensively, hitting just .183 as late as August 24, before turning his year around the next day...a simple 1-for-2 evening in Florida on August 25 ignited a season-ending stretch that featured a .354 mark (28-for-79) over 28 games, with 16 runs scored, 10 RBI and a proficiency for patience by coaxing 18 walks...included were consecutive 3-hit games in Milwaukee on Sept. 7 & 8, upping his season average from .217 to .261...from there he made a steady climb, achieving the .280's during the final week of the campaign...he also provided the club with sound defense, committing only 5 errors on the year, including just 3 in his last 32 starts...he delivered his lone homer in '99 on September 13 vs. the Pirates, his second major league blast, first since taking Mike Grace into the swimming pool on August 12, 1998, a span of 118 AB's between bombs...speaking of delivering, about the only thing that cooled Hanley off during the final week of the regular season was a 2-day break from baseball, making it to New York in time to be with his wife, Nancy, as she delivered their son Hanley Jr. on September 28...during his stints with Tucson, Frias combined his 2 stops for a .300 average at AAA, going 24-for-80 in 23 games, including 7 hits in his last 9 at bats, with 5 runs scored before being recalled for the final time.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Hanley appeared in all 4 games vs. the Mets, going hitless in 7 at bats... his lone start was in the opening game of the series, going 0-for-4 as the shortstop.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Had a pair of brief stints with the D'Backs, though his year in general didn't begin until mid-June due to hamate bone surgery in spring training...was recalled for the first time on August 7, and played shortstop 2 days later, going 0-for-4 at Montreal...he made a splash with his first N.L. hit, which was also his first major league home run, taking Philly's Mike Grace into the pool on August 12 with a pinch-hit blast...Hanley also appeared in 63 games for Tucson, hitting safely in 27 of his last 28 games in AAA, batting .363 (45-for-124). 1997—Had a pair of stints with the Rangers, appearing in 14 games...originally recalled on June 19, and made major league debut 2 nights later vs. Seattle as a pinch hitter...was optioned to AAA on June 23, then recalled to finish year in September, batting .200 (5-for-25) in 12 games, including 7 starts at short... doubled on Sept. 16 vs. Kansas City for first major league hit...first big league RBI was a game-winner on Sept. 28 in Anaheim...opened year with first look at AAA, hitting .338 as late as May 12 with Oklahoma City...he led all AAA shortstops in total chances (623). 1996—Spent entire season at Tulsa (AA), leading the Texas League in triples (12)...hit safely in first 13 games of the season at a .396 clip (21-for-53)...topped T.L. shortstops in fielding pct. (.965), assists (417), total chances (637) and double plays (84)...went 4-for-11 in playoffs, then came to Arizona for the Fall League, batting .219 for Tempe. 1995—Hit .333 in 33 games for Charlotte (A) and earned promotion to Tulsa...had an 11-game hitting streak with the Drillers in July. 1994—Was on loan to High Desert of the California League, pilfering a pro career best 37 bases...led league shortstops in assists (404). 1993—Ranked 2nd on Charleston in runs (61) and stolen bases (27). 1992—Led the Gulf Coast League in runs and finished 2nd with 26 stolen bases.

PERSONAL

Hanley Acevedo Frias...he and his wife, Nancy, have a son, Hanley Jr. (9/28/99), and make their off-season home in his native Villa Atiagracia, DR...Hanley was originally signed as a 16-year old non-drafted free agent by the Texas Rangers' organization on July 3, 1990.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with pitcher Nelson Figueroa and cash considerations from the New York Mets in exchange for pitcher Willie Blair and catcher Jorge Fabregas, July 31, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

When the Diamondbacks added the likes of Luis Gonzalez, Steve Finley and Tony Womack prior to the '99 season, playing time was limited for members of the '98 outfield, and Bernard was affected to the tune of his fewest number of plate appearances since breaking in as a regular in 1992...despite the part-time work, the veteran outfielder maintained an average near the .300 mark all year, finishing at .294...his year started quickly, as previous success against Dodger ace Kevin Brown afforded Gilkey a start on opening day in Los Angeles and he did not disappoint, going 3-for-5, including a pair of home runs...it was the 6th career multi-homer game of his career, with the second clout also his 1,000th major league hit...the long ball was part of Bernard's repertoire early, hitting 4 bombs in his first 32 at bats, including a 3-run pinch-hit homer off of former teammate and current Giant Felix Rodriguez on April 18...it was his third career pinch home run, but would be his last roundtripper until July 20, when he became the first player to go second deck at new Safeco Field in Seattle...Gilk's bench work established a club record for pinch hits in a season, as he went 13-for-39 (.333) in that role, assisting the Arizona bench in leading the National League with a composite pinch hit average of .319 (60-for-188)...Bernard finished the year with 10 hits in his last 26 pinch at bats for a .385 finish, a huge asset to Arizona's solid second half of the campaign...he had the end-all birthday celebration, turning 33 on the day the Diamondbacks clinched the National League West, and contributing with 2 hits, including a double and 2 RBI...that contest began a 3-game stretch in which he went 6-for-11 (.545) with 3 doubles and 8 RBI... all told, he closed the regular season in a 10-for-27 stretch (.370), including a 2-run homer in the season finale on October 3, giving the D'Backs the lead in what wound up a 10-3 win and the 100th victory of the year.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Bernard's first taste of post-season play occurred against the club that traded him to Arizona in 1998, starting in right in games 2 and 4, going a combined 0-for-6.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998 —Gilkey joined the Diamondbacks at the trading deadline, appearing in 29 games for Arizona before pulling the curtain on his year to undergo laser eye surgery in Calgary, Alberta, on Sept. 14...he was hitting just .227 at the time of the trade, and hit a slightly better .248 while with Arizona...he tied a club record with 4 walks in the nightcap of a doubleheader at Philly on August 20...Bernard had a promising start to the year, hitting .323 (21-for-65) in April, but the month ended with a trip to the disabled list due to a left elbow stress fracture... despite missing 51 games, he tied for eighth in the N.L. with 12 outfield assists. 1997—Though his numbers fell from the career season of '96, he still had a productive campaign for the Mets, posting his second highest homer and RBI totals...he also led the N.L. for the second straight year in outfield assists with 17, marking the fifth consecutive year he paced his club in outfield assists...climaxed a dramatic comeback victory by hitting his second career pinch-hit home run, snapping a 6-6 tie in Shea on September 13, a 3-run blast off Montreal's Mike Thurman in the 11th inning (the Mets had trailed the game, 6-0, entering the 9th)...had fifth career 2-homer game on September 15 in game #1 of doubleheader at Philly...had 4-hit games on August 16 vs. Colorado and August 27 vs. San Francisco, giving him 12 career 4-hit affairs...matched a career-best with 4 RBI on August 30 at Baltimore, his seventh 4-RBI game...twice collected 2 hits in the same inning, April 28 at Cincy (fifth inning) and August 27 vs. S.F. (seventh inning). 1996—Achieved career highs in batting, hits, runs, doubles, homers, RBI and AB's... Bernard joined Lance Johnson as the first Met teammates to score 100 runs in a year, and paired with Todd Hundley as the first Met duo to knock in 100 runs in the same season...his 44 doubles established a Mets' record, 3 more than Howard Johnson in 1989, and 117 RBI tied HoJo's 1991 team standard...led the N.L. with 73 road RBI, tied for second in the majors with 34 go-ahead RBI and ranked third in the majors with a .406 mark with runners in scoring position...had a trio of multi-homer games, a pair of 4-hit games and 2 4-RBI contests...led the N.L. with 18 outfield assists. 1995—Topped the Cards with a .298 average...hit 15 of his then career-high 17 homers off righthanders...was disabled from June 28-July 15 with a right elbow strain. 1994—Hit first career pinch homer on May 27, a 3-run blast in San Diego...led the Redbirds with 15 stolen bases and tied for the top spot on the club with 9 outfield assists. 1993—Led the Cardinals in extra-base hits and runs scored...his 40 doubles were sixth in the N.L....was on the disabled list with a strained right quadriceps from April 29-May 13...tied for the N.L. lead with 19 outfield assists, and also saw action at first base, making 3 starts. 1992—First full year of major league action, had a career best 13-game hitting streak in late September, and reached base safely in last 28 starts of season...had first career 4-hit game in second game of doubleheader on June 8 vs. Chicago, then followed with another 4-hit tilt the next day...threw out runners at the plate in the 10th and 11th innings at Houston on August 25. 1991—Outstanding spring work earned Bernard the opening day starting assignment in left...he was disabled from June 15-July 17 with a broken right thumb...struggled offensively and was optioned to Louisville on August 19, remaining there until September recalls...had first career multi-homer game on October 5 at Chicago in the second game of a twinbill. 1990—His first year of AAA and major league action, hitting .295 in 132 games for Louisville, then spent September with St. Louis...he was the first professional batter since 1953 (Gene Stephens of Boston) to collect 3 hits in the same inning, picking up 2 singles and a home run in a 16-run 3rd inning on May 9 vs. Nashville...Gilkey was the first minor leaguer since John Conway (Birmingham) in 1943 to have a 3-hit inning...he earned a spot on the American Association All-Star team and was recalled by the Cardinals on Sept. 4...picked up first big league hit on Sept. 5 vs. Montreal... hit first major league homer on October 1 at Montreal off of Howard Farmer. 1989—Led the Texas League in stolen bases and runs scored while playing for Arkansas...also led the league with 22 outfield assists. 1988—Spent the year with Springfield (A) and led St. Louis' minor leaguers with 54 stolen bases...twice swiped 3 bases in a game. 1987—Appeared in just 46 games for Springfield, missing the majority of the year with a fractured left thumb...was placed on the D.L. on May 29 for the remainder of the year, but still ranked third on the club in stolen bases. 1986—Led the South Atlantic League in doubles while playing for Savannah. 1985—His first year as a pro was with Erie, finishing in the top 5 in 5 offensive categories...also led league outfielders in chances, putouts and assists.

PERSONAL

Otis Bernard (Bernard) Gilkey...he and his wife, Patrice, and sons, Jaelen (7/9/95) and Caeven (2/16/99), make their home in his native St. Louis, MO...Bernard graduated in 1984 from University City High School in St. Louis, earning All-Conference, All-District and All-Metro honors in baseball and basketball...he signed a letter of intent to play basketball at Drake University, but chose to take a shot at making it big with his hometown baseball team, signing with the Cardinals' organization as a non-drafted free agent on August 22, 1984...got a taste of Hollywood in 1997, making a cameo as an outfielder in a scene in the box office hit "Men In Black," starring Tommy Lee Jones and Will Smith.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with cash considerations from the Detroit Tigers in exchange for outfielder Karim Garcia, December 28, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

When the Diamondbacks retooled after the '98 season, many of the winter acquisitions made headlines, but one of the quieter transactions was the Christmas break arrival of Luis Gonzalez from the Tigers, though there was nothing subtle about his 1999 campaign...acquired for Karim Garcia, the veteran outfielder had a breakout season in his 10th year of major league ball, establishing career bests in hits (206), home runs (26), runs scored (112), RBI (111) and doubles (45), with his hit and double totals easily establishing club records...his 206 hits won the N.L. crown, 2 more than Philly's Doug Glanville...a lot of players are known as "streak" hitters, but Gonzo's '99 season was one that consisted of streaks...he manufactured 5 different double-digit hitting streaks, including 30, 16, 13, 11 and 10 games, totaling 80 contests during the year that were tied up in streaks, nearly half of the schedule...with 5 double-digit streaks, Gonzo joined Eric Young (1996) as the only National League players with at least that many such streaks in a season...the headline grabber was the 30-game skein that ran from April 11-May 18, achieving the 30-game mark with a first inning homer at San Francisco off of Chris Brock, the such streak in the N.L. since 1989 (Jerome Walton)...Luis was the 37th player in major league history to hit in at least 30 consecutive games, with Vladimir Guerrero hitting in 31 straight later in the year to become the 38th...at 30 in a row, Gonzo's streak tied 11 others for the 14th longest in history...consistent throughout, he batted .400 over the 30 games (46-for-115) with 25 runs, 11 doubles, a triple, 7 homers, 25 RBI and 80 total bases for a slugging pct. of .696...probably the most memorable hit during the streak was at home on May 11 against Montreal, snapping a 3-3 tie with his first hit of the night, a game-ending 10th inning homer into the pool area off of Guillermo Mota...he opened the year by hitting safely in 4 straight, featuring 3 home runs, including his first of 2 multi-homer games, going deep twice on April 7 in Dodger Stadium...after an 0-for-3 in the middle game of a series in Atlanta, "the streak" began with a home run off of Greg Maddux in the series finale at Turner Field on April 11...once the streak was halted, Luis was hitless for 2 straight games, then hit safely in 13 in a row, giving him a start to the season that featured hits in 48 of his first 51 games at a .398 clip (80-for-201)...his impressive start to the season did not go unnoticed, as 478,311 fans placed him as a write-in candidate for the All-Star Game, and though those votes were only good enough to finish sixth among outfielders, he still earned his first Midsummer Classic visit as a selection of manager Bruce Bochy...Gonzo's contribution to the club was rewarded by management with a 3-year contract extension on August 2, locking up the potential free agent...he tied a career best with a trio of 4-hit efforts, giving him 10 career, while also driving in 4 in a game on 3 occasions...as the regular season wound down, Luis had one more hitting streak in him, hitting safely in the last 12 games of the year at a .408 clip (20-for-49), starting the skein with a 10th inning homer at Bank One Ballpark on September 18, ending an 8-6 Arizona victory...the lefthanded hitting outfielder did not discriminate offensively, hitting .339 against right-handed pitching (152-for-449) and .327 vs. southpaws (54-for-165).

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Gonzo started all 4 games in the series with the Mets, going 2-for-10 with a team-high 5 walks...both of his post-season hits came in the first game of the series and each went for extra bases...he doubled in his first at bat in the first inning, then hit a 2-run homer in the sixth inning, tying the contest at the time at 4-4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998 —Luis eclipsed the 20-homer mark for the first time in his career, hammering 23 for the Tigers, his only year in the American League...he tied a career best with 154 games played, even with the addition of triplets to the Gonzalez family, when Christine delivered the threesome of Megan, Jacob and Alyssa on June 26...included was his fourth career 2-homer game, taking Anaheim's Omar Olivares deep twice on August 10, with the second blast the 100th of Luis' career...he also picked up the 1,000th hit of his career with a fifth inning single off of Olivares...the Tampa native celebrated his return home by belting the first-ever home run at Tampa's Tropicana Field in the Devil Rays' inaugural game on March 31, a 2-run blast in the fifth inning off of Dan Carlson...homered off Anaheim southpaw Chuck Finley on May 9, the first home run by a lefthanded hitter vs. Finley since Sept. 23, 1996 (Ken Griffey Jr.)...recorded his 500th career RBI on May 24 at Chicago...had a streak of 129 consecutive errorless games snapped on July 30. 1997—Signed as a free agent with the Astros, returning to the franchise where he began his career after a year and a half with the Cubs...had a 23-game hitting streak, tying Art Howe's club record, also the longest streak in the N.L. in '97...enjoyed a visit to Montreal on July 18-20, collecting 3 hits in 3 consecutive games, going 9-for-11 in the series, with 2 homers, 6 runs and 7 RBI...included was his first career grand slam on July 20 off of current teammate Omar Daal, Luis' second homer of the day. 1996—Set a then career-high with 79 RBI for the Cubs...fanned only 49 times in 483 AB's, while walking 61 times, the first time he walked more than K'd in his career...started twice at first base, his first major league work there since 1990. 1995—Split the year between Houston and the Cubs, as he was traded to Chicago on June 28, with Scott Servais in exchange for Rick Wilkins...hit his first career game-opening home run on September 27 off St. Louis' Allen Watson. 1994—Ranked 10th in the league with 29 doubles during the strike-shortened season...he hit .331 (50-for-151) in the final 41 games leading up to the stoppage of play. 1993—Singled in his final at bat on October 3 to break the .300 mark...led the N.L. in sacrifice flies (10) and ranked third in getting hit (10)...had second career 5-RBI game on Sept. 6 vs. New York...hit in 14 consecutive games from July 8-23. 1992—Opened the season with Houston, but due to .158 average on May 20, he was optioned to Tucson (AAA)...appeared in 13 games and hit .432 for the Toros and said goodbye to the minor leagues for the final time, returning to the majors on June 3...hit first career pinch-hit home run on June 13, a game-winning, 3-run shot off the Giants' Jeff Brantley in a 4-1 Houston win...was on the D.L. from July 21-August 5 with a partial dislocation of his left shoulder after making a diving catch vs. Pittsburgh on July 20. 1991—His first full year in the majors, he led the Astros with 50 extra-base hits, a club record for rookies, breaking Joe Morgan's team record of 48 set in 1965, earning a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team...Gonzo suffered a partial dislocation of his left shoulder attempting to make a diving catch on August 28 at Philly, and was disabled from August 29-Sept. 13...had the first 5-RBI game of his career on July 3 at San Francisco...recorded first career 4-hit game on July 17 at Pittsburgh...hit first 2 major league home runs on May 1 at Wrigley Field off of Greg Maddux, knocking in 4 runs. 1990—Earned a spot on the Southern League All-Star team, while playing for Columbus (AA), tying for the league lead in home runs and sacrifice flies...was promoted to Houston after AA season, making debut on Sept. 4 in L.A. as a pinch hitter... made first start on Sept. 8 in San Francisco, picking up a double off of Steve Bedrosian for first major league hit. 1989—Was limited to 86 games for Osceola (A) due to an injured right shoulder...was on the disabled list from May 26-July 5, but still tied for the team lead in triples. 1988—Signed as Houston's fourth choice in the June draft and split his first pro season between Auburn and Asheville, totaling 70 games.

PERSONAL

Luis Emilio Gonzalez...he and his wife, Christine, had triplets on June 26, 1998, with the arrival of Megan, Jacob and Alyssa...the Gonzalez family made the move from Texas to Scottsdale during the off-season...Luis graduated from Tampa's Jefferson High School in 1985, recently earning a spot in that school's Hall of Fame...he then played collegiately at the University of South Alabama, earning Baseball America's All-Freshman 2nd team honors, and was inducted into South Alabama's Hall of Fame last spring...he was also named the Major League Player-of-the-Year from his native state of Florida for the 1999 season, receiving the award in his hometown of Tampa...off the field, he is involved in several community ventures including the Grand Canyon State Games, co-chairing the event with Suns forward Tom Gugliotta...Luis has established the "Kids Going Gonzo for School" program locally, while also working closely with Make-A-Wish Foundation and Sunshine Acres...he has served on the Board of Directors for the Houston chapter of the American Cancer Society, and has been the spokesperson for Life Gift organ donors...Gonzo was named the City of Houston's 1997 Sportsman of the Year by the RBI Foundation...he participated in Arizona's Winter Tour 2000, making January stops in Globe, Miami and Yuma.

Arizona Diamondbacks

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Colorado Rockies in exchange for minor league infielder Belvani Martinez, August 31, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

A member of the Colorado Rockies for the majority of the season, Lenny arrived for work on August 31 and found himself in the middle of a pennant race as he was dealt to the Diamondbacks just hours before playoff rosters had to be submitted to their respective leagues...a pinch hitter deluxe, Harris fell just 2 hits shy of John Vander Wal's 1995 major league record for pinch hits in a season, finishing with 26, the second highest total in big league history...Lenny's 115 lifetime pinch hits tops the chart among active players and rank sixth on the all-time list, 1 behind Jerry Lynch for the fifth spot...Harris had 6 pinch hits in 12 at bats after making the move to Arizona, while also spelling some of the regulars around the diamond as the club prepared for post-season action...he finished the campaign by hitting .436 (24-for-55) in his last 30 games, featuring a 4-hit effort in B.O.B. on Sept. 28 against his former mates from Colorado...included in that game was something that he was unable to accomplish while batting at elevation for the Rockies, hitting his lone homer of the year off of southpaw Bobby M. Jones, snapping a 213 at bat dry spell that dated back to Sept. 12, 1998...at the time of his acquisition, Harris was in a terrific offensive groove, hitting .500 (13-for-26) with 6 doubles in his last 11 games as a Rockie, including a 7-for-11 finish before the trade.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Lenny didn't appear against the Mets until the series shifted to Shea Stadium, going 0-for-2 overall...he was a pinch hitter in game #3, then entered Saturday's game as a defensive replacement and was hitless in his lone at bat.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Opened the year with Cincinnati, his fifth straight season with the Reds, but did not finish up in Cincy, joining the Mets on July 3 in a swap for pitcher John Hudek...before the exchange, Lenny made his big league pitching debut with a scoreless inning of work vs. San Francisco on June 1, a 16-3 Cincinnati loss...his New York debut was a start in leftfield on July 4 in Atlanta...he established a career-high with 6 home runs, all coming in a Met uniform and in the final 36 games of the year...included was his second career leadoff homer, starting the August 26 affair at San Francisco with a blast, his first since the 1990 season (Sept. 2 at Montreal). 1997—He went 9-for-44 (.205) as a pinch hitter, leading the Reds in pinch AB's...he started 5 different positions (first base, second base, third base, left and rightfield), totaling 48 starts...appeared in 1,000th major league game on June 18 in Cleveland, 2 days after swiping his 100th career base in Jacobs Field. 1996—Had a .347 pinch-hit average, with 17 pinch hits finishing 2 shy of the Reds' single-season record...he stole home on May 4 at San Francisco...hit second career grand slam on August 31 in Florida, tying a career best with 4 RBI. 1995—Homered on Sept. 23, his first in over 2 years (Sept. 20, 1993), then he went deep again 4 days later...was 2-for-2 with an RBI in the LCS vs. Atlanta after not seeing action in the Division Series. 1994—His first year back in Cincinnati after 4 1/2 seasons with the Dodgers, he led the Reds with 12 pinch hits...made only 12 starts, hitting .313 (15-for-48). 1993—Made 26 starts for the Dodgers, his last season in L.A., playing 4 different positions (second base, third base, shortstop and rightfield). 1992—Stole a career-high 19 bases, while setting a personal best with a 10-game hitting streak. 1991—He played a career-high 145 games, collecting 100 hits for second straight year...hit the first grand slam of his career on June 10 off Chicago's Chuck McElroy...Lenny broke up Mark Gardner's no-hit bid on July 26 vs. Montreal with a 10th inning single, then scored the winning run. 1990—Made 103 starts, playing 5 different positions...he fanned only 31 times in 431 AB's, a 1 in every 13.9 at bats...he was a .315 leadoff hitter. 1989—Opened the year with Cincinnati, but was traded to Los Angeles on July 18...wound up leading N.L. pinch hitters with a .400 average (8-for-20)...had a career-high 5 hits in a 22-inning, 1-0 win at Montreal on August 23 (5-for-9). 1988—Played in both Nashville and Glens Falls, then made major league debut on September 7...singled off San Diego's Ed Whitson on September 19 for first big league hit...led the American Association with 45 stolen bases.

PERSONAL: Leonard Anthony (Lenny) Harris...he and his wife, Carnettia, and daughters Chanel (1/17/93) and Ciara (11/27/95), and make their home in his native Miami, FL...Lenny graduated in 1983 from Miami's Jackson High School, hitting .463 as a senior...he also attended nearby Miami-Dade Community College...he was Cincinnati's fifth round choice in the 1983 June draft.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the New York Yankees in exchange for pitcher Ben Ford and catcher Izzy Molina, March 30, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

The veteran hurler was acquired by the Diamondbacks near the end of spring training on March 30, bringing some stability to the middle relief role, as Holmes had over 9 years of experience, the majority of which had been out of the pen...he posted wins in consecutive outings during a late-April road trip, winning with 2.0 innings of 1-hit relief in Houston on the 28th, then 2 nights later getting credit for the 3-2 victory over the Brewers in County Stadium...Darren's best stretch came from May 10-May 31, appearing in 8 games, tossing 7.2 innings of shutout relief, allowing only 3 hits while fanning 6...included was a 3-K performance in San Francisco on May 18, retiring all 6 men he faced in a 2-inning stint...he ended the streak with a win in Montreal on May 31, retiring the only man he faced in an 8-6 triumph in 10 innings...unfortunately, June wasn't as prosperous, losing his first 2 appearances, then as the month wore on he was plagued by a lower back strain that eventually landed Holmes on the disabled list on June 28 (retroactive to the 24th)...his return to work was as brief as they could come, as Darren was activated on July 15, appeared for an inning in Texas on the 17th, then went back on the shelf on the 18th, remaining on the D.L. until August 11...once deemed healthy, it took him some time to get back into the flow, allowing 5 earned runs over his first 5.0 innings, spanning 5 outings...Darren then posted his second win of the year over the Brewers in Milwaukee, going 0.2 of an inning on September 7, an 11-9 triumph... Holmes inherited 28 runners during the campaign, with only 7 scoring, 3 of which came in on one swing when he was touched for a grand slam by Rafael Palmeiro on June 5, his second and last blown save of the year.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Darren appeared once in the post-season, a tough outing at Shea in the third game of the series, facing 5 men, allowing a hit and 3 walks (1 intentional), with all 4 runners scoring.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Signed as a free agent with the Yankees and was winless with a pair of saves in 34 appearances, his only season in the Apple...earned his first save on July 22 against Detroit, tossing 3.0 shutout innings in a 13-2 win...was placed on the disabled list on August 1, missing 34 games due to a bulging disc in his lower back...made a pair of rehab appearances with Tampa...was not included on New York's post-season roster. 1997—Completed a 5-year stint with Colorado, going 9-2 with 3 saves in 42 games (6 starts)...hit first major league homer in Coors Field on April 13 off of Montreal's Carlos Perez...made first major league start on April 20, snapping a streak of 319 consecutive relief appearances, earning a 9-2 win over the Braves, going 6.0 innings allowing a run on 5 hits, with no walks and 5 K's...was placed on the D.L. on April 30 with sore right elbow...returned on May 15, making 10 relief appearances before next start on June 12 at Seattle...tossed a career-high 8.0 innings in a 6-2 win at Los Angeles on June 24...fanned a career-best 8 on July 5 at San Francisco. 1996—Was moved from closer to set-up role at midway point and went 3-1 with a 2.29 ERA after the break...set a club record by retiring 21 consecutive batters in last 5 outings, breaking team mark by 3 (Bruce Ruffin in 1993). 1995—Led staff with 14 saves in a career-high 68 appearances...had streak of 15.1 consecutive scoreless innings from June 5-July 9...converted 10 saves in 13 outings from July 3-31 after Ruffin went down with elbow injury...from early-June through July, he allowed just 2 earned runs in 24.1 innings (0.74 ERA)...stranded 25 of 33 inherited runners (76%)...he was the winning pitcher in Colorado's only post-season victory, getting the triumph in relief in game #3 of the Division Series in Atlanta. 1994—Opened the year as the closer, but made only 29 appearances due to inflamed right elbow that required scoping for removal of a bone spur...struggled in May and was optioned to Colorado Springs for 11 days...returned on May 28, but did not work much due to elbow injury...was placed on the D.L. in late-July and did not return. 1993—Was Colorado's third choice in the expansion draft, then tied for ninth in N.L. with 25 saves (29 chances)...earned the first save in Rockies history on April 23 vs. Florida, then struggled with a 17.19 ERA and was optioned to AAA on May 5...after 3 appearances with Colorado Springs, he returned to the majors and finished going 3-1 with 23 saves and 2.43 in last 53 outings... earned Rockie-of-the-Month honors for August, earning saves in 9 consecutive appearances...did not allow an earned run in last 11 games (13.2 innings), and converted 22 of last 23 chances. 1992—Pitched in Denver before Denver had a major league team, splitting time between the Zephyrs (AAA) and Milwaukee...he allowed only 6 of 35 inherited runners to score (17%), tops among Brewer relievers...allowed only 1 earned run in last 17 outings, spanning 20.2 innings (0.44 ERA). 1991—Appeared once for Denver before recall to Brewers...fanned 6 in his A.L. debut on April 14 at Toronto...earned first big league save on May 16 at Minnesota...was disabled in July with hamstring injury, then allowed 17 earned runs in next 11.2 innings...finished strong, allowing 1 earned run in last 15.2 IP (0.57 ERA). 1990—Spent most of year with Albuquerque (AAA), making 56 relief appearances, the first season since 1985 that he worked exclusively out of pen... appeared 14 times for the Dodgers, with major league debut taking place on September 1 in Montreal with 2.0 shutout innings...was traded to Milwaukee on December 20 for catcher Bert Heffernan. 1989—Used primarily as a starter, splitting time between AA and AAA. 1988—Spent the majority of the year on loan to San Luis Potosi of the Mexican League, then finished year with a start for Albuquerque.

PERSONAL: Darren Lee Holmes...he and his wife, Kathy, and daughters, Courtney (5/8/89), Hayleigh Nicole (12/16/94) and Brentlie Marie (5/14/98), and son, Branson (4/30/97), make their home in Fletcher, NC... Darren was a 1984 graduate from T.C. Robertson High School, lettering in baseball, football and wrestling...he was named the Wester (NC) Male Athlete-of-the-Year in 1983...a music buff, part of Darren's pre-game features guitar playing by his locker in the clubhouse...he and his family made a January move to Phoenix prior to the 2000 season, allowing Darren to workout with his teammates in Bank One Ballpark, strengthening the back muscles that plagued him in '99.

One of the Best After the Break

Arizona's run to the N.L. Western Division title was fueled by one of the top post All-Star break records in major league history. The Diamondbacks entered the 3-day break trailing San Francisco by a 2 1/2-game margin, then lost 4 of the first 5 games after the Midsummer Classic before going on a tear that secured the 100-win season. The turning point occurred on July 20 in Seattle's Safeco Field, when Randy Johnson returned to the northwest by a 6-0 complete game victory, igniting a 51-17 run (.750). All told, the D'Backs played at a .712 clip in their final 73 games, the eighth best post All-Star break winning pct. in major league history. Arizona's season-ending run was the second best in the decade of the 90's, trailing only Atlanta's .740 mark (54-19) in 1993.

Following is the complete list of clubs with a .700 winning pct. after the break:

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Randy made his first season in Arizona a memorable one, earning the Cy Young Award for the second time in his career, and in doing so joined Gaylord Perry and Pedro Martinez as the only pitchers in history to win the coveted honor in each league...the top strikeout performer in the majors during the decade of the 90's, R.J. added to those numbers with a career-high in K's, posting 364, the fourth best single-season total in major league history, just 3 shy of Nolan Ryan's 1974 mark for third highest...Randy also set personal bests in complete games (12) and innings pitched (271.2), leading the majors in each category...it was the sixth time he has led the majors in strikeouts, the third time that he's surpassed the 300-K mark...it was only fitting that the ace of the staff was on the hill for the division clincher in San Francisco on Sept. 24, allowing 3 unearned runs in the first inning, then limiting the Giants to just 2 hits the rest of the way in an 11-3 win...the road to the Cy Young Award began on opening day in L.A. with a no decision vs. the Dodgers...the Unit then began displaying the strikeout skill that has made him one of the most dominant pitchers in history, fanning 15 men in an 8-3 win at Atlanta on April 10, setting a team record for K's in just his second start...little did anyone know that the 15-K performance would be the first of 23 double-digit strikeout games for R.J., tying Nolan Ryan's major league record for most in a season, 2 more than the previous N.L. mark set in 1965 by Sandy Koufax...the Big Unit also set a big league record by achieving the 300-strikeout mark faster than any hurler in history, fanning the Marlins' Kevin Millar for the milestone 'K' on August 26 in his 29th start, 2 starts quicker than any other pitcher...while strikeout statistics are nice, game results are what put clubs in contention, and Randy made a statement with wins in 5 consecutive starts from May 25-June 14, posting a 2.08 ERA during the streak, allowing 9 earned runs in 39.0 innings, while fanning 55...he opened the streak with league Player-of-the-Week honors, winning on May 25 & 30 at home over San Diego and in New York, respectively, allowing 1 run over 17.0 innings...the 4-0 win over the Friars was a 6-hitter and the first of 2 shutouts he tossed in '99...his other shutout was a focal point to Arizona's winning of the West, as the Unit returned to Seattle on July 20 tossing an 8-hitter to appropriately record the first-ever blanking in Safeco Field, a 6-0 victory, his second shutout of the year and 25th career, 19 of which came in a Mariners' uniform...entering play that night, Arizona was 2 1/2 games behind in the West, but his win ignited a 10-1 run that reversed the standings to a 2 1/2-game lead, and a season-ending stretch in which the club finished 51-17 to run away with the title...Randy's pair of shutouts weren't the only ones involving him that made news in '99, as one of the more publicized losing streaks occurred immediately after his 5-game winning streak...the Unit tied an improbable major league record by coming up on the short end of 4 consecutive shutouts from June 25-July 10...the oddity of the streak was that the D'Backs were no-hit by the Cards' Jose Jimenez in the first loss, then subsequently beaten on a 1-hitter, 2-hitter and 3-hitter in succession...it marked the 10th time in major league history that a starter was blanked in 4 consecutive appearances, joining Willie Hernandez (1980 Cubs), Jim McAndrew (1968 Mets), Ray Sadecki (1968 Giants), Chuck Estrada (1962 Orioles), George O'Donnell (1954 Pirates), Paul Derringer (1933 Reds), Hub Pruett (1932 Boston Braves), Jesse Petty (1927 Brooklyn Dodgers) and Irv Young (1907 Boston Braves)...as for Randy's work during all of this, he did not surrender more than 2 runs in any of the 4 starts, posting a 1.41 ERA, allowing 5 earned runs in 32.0 innings, fanning 54 and going 0-4...included was his 2,500th career strikeout in the no-hit loss to the Cards, getting Eric Davis in the ninth inning...that was followed by a 2-0 loss in Cincy on June 30, breaking his own club record with 17 K's, starting a streak of 3 games in which he totaled 43 strikeouts, tying Doc Gooden's 3-game N.L. record set in 1984...he was also impressive enough to earn a spot on his sixth career All-Star team, first as a National Leaguer, working a perfect inning in Fenway Park...Randy recovered nicely from the run of opposing shutouts, finishing the year by going 8-2 in his last 15 starts, posting a 1.89 ERA, with 25 earnies in 119.0 innings while recording 153 K's...the second half featured league Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for July, despite a 2-3 record, he had a 1.13 ERA (6 ER in 48.0 IP) while recording 64 strikeouts...he also garnered another N.L. Player-of-the-Week award for August 16-22...as has been the case throughout his career, few lefthanders faced

Randy, and when they did, few had success limiting them to a .103 average (9-for-87) with no homers, while righties hit .219 (198-for-906), as the overall opposing mark finished at .208, second only to Atlanta's Kevin Millwood in the N.L....at the plate after a 2-for-28 start with the stick, the Unit showed another side of his game, going 6-for-19 (.316) over a 6-start stretch from May 20-June 14, including a 4-game streak.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Randy appeared once in the post-season, absorbing an 8-4 loss in the series opener in Bank One Ballpark...he was charged with 7 earned runs on 8 hits over 8.1 innings, walking 3 and striking out 11...he left the game with the bases loaded and the score tied at 4-4 in the ninth, but an Edgardo Alfonzo grand slam staked New York to the decision...he allowed a pair of home runs, including a blast by John Olerud, the first home run that Randy has surrendered to a lefthanded hitter since the 1997 regular season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Randy's career total of 2,693 K's entering the 2000 season are 16th on the all-time last, 110 ahead of Warren Spahn and 80 behind Frank Tanana for 15th...the Unit entered the new millennium with 125 career double-digit strikeout games, the most by a left-handed hurler, and second only to Nolan Ryan's remarkable 215 games with 10 or more K's, including 20 with 15 or more K's...he has won 67% of the time that he has fanned at least 10 in a game, going 84-25 with 16 no decisions...Johnson has kept lefthanded hitters to a .186 overall average in his career (154-for-830)...he's been touched for 199 regular season home runs during his career, but only 10 have been hit by lefties (Von Hayes and Jim Eisenreich-1989; Wally Joyner and Mike Greenwell-1991; Mo Vaughn-1992; Darren Bragg-1996; Darrin Erstad, Mo Vaughn & Jim Edmonds (2)-1997)...he had a personal 16-game winning streak that ran from August, 1995 through May 2, 1997, falling a win shy of the American League record for consecutive games won in a career.

1998—A record setting 10-year career with the Seattle Mariners came to an abrupt end just prior to midnight at the end of the trade deadline, joining a pennant race in Houston...R.J. was 9-10 with a 4.33 ERA in 23 starts for the Mariners, then enjoyed a reversal of fortune after joining the Astros, going 10-1 with a minuscule 1.28 ERA in 11 starts...he totaled a then career-high 329 strikeouts, accruing 213 in Seattle and 116 with the Astros...Randy wrapped up the '98 season with 20 double-digit strikeout games...though Randy only spent 2 months in the N.L., his 4 shutouts with Houston ranked second to Greg Maddux, who led the league with 5...Johnson was acquired on July 31 with Houston clinging to a 3 1/2-game lead in the Central...after the deal, the Astros enjoyed the best overall month in franchise history, going 22-7 in August, upping the division lead to 11 games...after a debut win in Pittsburgh, Randy blanked the Phils on 5 hits in the Astrodome on August 7 in front of the fifth largest crowd to witness a regular season game in the Astrodome (52,071)...an August 17 loss to the Phils snapped a streak of 19.0 consecutive scoreless innings, the longest shutout streak by a Houston pitcher in '98...he rebounded by closing the regular season with wins in his final 7 starts, posting a 1.16 ERA (7 earned runs in 54.1 innings)...included in the streak was a 2-0 win in Houston over the Pirates, a 7-hitter in which he did not allow a walk and fanned 16, the most ever by a Houston lefthander, and the most since a 16-K performance by Nolan Ryan on Sept. 9, 1987 vs. S.F....he earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for August, going 5-1 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 starts, leading the league in shutouts (3) and strikeouts (61)...after a win in Atlanta over Greg Maddux on Sept. 2, Randy fired his fourth straight shutout in the Dome, 1-0 over Cincinnati on Sept. 7...he posted his eighth win in a Astro uniform on Sept. 12 vs. St. Louis, a 3-2 triumph that ended his consecutive scoreless inning streak in the Astrodome at 36.0, allowing both runs in the first inning...all told, in 5 starts in the Dome during the regular season, Johnson held the opposition scoreless in 42 of the 43 innings he pitched, allowing 2 earned runs (0.42 ERA)...he wrapped up September the same way he ended August, winning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award, going 5-0 with a 1.41 ERA (6 ER in 38.1 IP)...though he finished the Seattle chapter of his career by going 9-10 prior to the trade, he had provided Mariner fans with some solid memories before departing, tossing consecutive shutouts on July 11 & 16 over Anaheim and Minnesota, totaling 6 hits and 26 K's. 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: All Randy had to show for a pair of starts in the Division Series against San Diego were great numbers and a pair of tough losses...he went up against Kevin Brown in the opener in Houston, losing 2-1, allowing 2 runs over 8.0 innings, while fanning 9...he then worked what ended up as the series finale, losing 6-1 to Sterling Hitchcock, allowing 1 earned run on 3 hits over a 6-inning stint, with 8 K's. 1997—Randy rebounded from an injury shortened 1996, to set a personal and Seattle franchise record with 20 wins...he led the A.L. in opponents' batting average (.193), winning pct. (.833) and K's per 9-innings (12.3), while ranking second in ERA, strikeouts and wins, finishing second to Roger Clemens in the Cy Young balloting...the staff stopper, Randy went 12-1 after a Mariner loss...he had a streak within a streak from May 13-June 19, a stretch that witnessed a 7-game win streak (8 starts), but included was a 5-game period in which he allowed only 1 earned run over 40.0 innings (0.23 ERA)...he had a streak of 31.0 straight scoreless innings halted by an Eric Young homer on June 13 in the Kingdome...included in the shutout inning streak was a complete game win over Toronto, a 2-hitter, his first route-going effort since Oct. 2, 1995 vs. California...the 7-game winning streak was halted by Oakland on June 24, a 4-1 decision featuring 19 K's by Johnson in a complete game effort that included a 538-foot home run by his former college teammate Mark McGwire...Randy's effort matched the major league record and set an A.L. mark for K's in a game by a lefthanded pitcher, while also tying the big league mark for K's in a loss...Johnson earned A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for June (4-1 and 0.92 ERA)...he was tabbed the starter in the All-Star Game at Cleveland, working 2.0 shutout innings, his second Midsummer Classic start...he fired a shutout on August 8 vs. Chicago, a 5-hitter, fanning 19, tying his own A.L. record for K's in a game by a southpaw...it was only the eighth 19-strikeout (9-inning) game in history, the first time it was done by the same hurler twice in a season...he was forced out of an August 20 start vs. Cleveland in the seventh inning with tendinitis in the middle finger of his throwing hand, the only time he left a game in the middle of an inning in '97...he worked 2.0 innings of relief on Sept. 27 vs. Oakland to pick up 20th victory, his first career relief win, fanning 3, featuring his 2,000th career strikeout (Ben Grieve). 1996—The good news was that he went 5-0, the bad news was that he worked only 14 times (8 starts) due to a lower back injury that eventually required season-ending surgery...he was Seattle's opening night starter for an unprecedented fifth time, giving up 3 hits over 7.0 innings with 14 K's in a no decision...he entered an April 26 start in Milwaukee with a 4-0 mark, but just 3.2 innings into the affair, Randy departed with lower back pain...the pain lingered as he was capable of only 2.0 frames in his next start vs. Texas on May 1...he waited 11 days for what turned out to be his final start of the year, going 5.0 innings in a win over Kansas City to up his mark to 5-0...he was placed on the D.L. on May 13 with an irritated nerve in his lower back...he was on the 60-day disabled list, making 1 rehab appearance for Everett (A), then was activated from the D.L. on August 6, and worked 2.0 scoreless frames of relief that day vs. Cleveland...he fanned 8 in 4.0 innings on August 13 vs. KC, earning his second career save...he gave up 6 earned runs over his final 2 outings, including a grand slam to Darren Bragg on August 24 at Boston, the first homer surrendered to a lefthanded hitter since 1992...Johnson was placed on the D.L. on August 27 and underwent surgery (a micro endoscopic discecktomy) to correct an extruded disc herniation in his lower back on Sept. 12, a procedure performed by Dr. Robert Watkins in Los Angeles. 1995—Randy went 18-2 with a 2.48 ERA to win his first Cy Young Award, and only one in Seattle history, garnering 26 of 28 first place votes...he was also named to The Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star Teams, and was named the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Year by The Sporting News...he also finished sixth in the league MVP balloting...the first Mariner to ever win the ERA title, he also led the A.L. in winning pct. (.900), strikeouts and batting average against (.201), while ranking second in wins...he won his fourth consecutive league strikeout crown, while establishing an A.L. record for best winning pct. in a season (minimum 20 decisions), breaking Ron Guidry's .893 mark (25-3) for the '78 Yankees...Randy also set a major league mark for K's per 9-innings with a ratio of 12.35, breaking Nolan Ryan's 11.48 mark in 1987 with Houston...he held lefthanded hitters to an overall .129 average (11-for-85)...Seattle was 27-3 in his 30 starts...he equaled a career-high with a 160-pitch complete game at Cleveland on July 7, the first time he did not walk a man in a complete game...was selected to his fourth All-Star team and named the starter, working 2.0 hitless innings in Arlington...in his first start after the break, he tossed a 3-hitter in a 3-0 win over Toronto on July 15, recording 16 K's...incurred his second (and final) loss of the year on August 1 at California...missed 3 starts over a 4-week stretch due to inflammation in his left shoulder...finished strong, earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for Sept. 18-24, going 2-0 with a 0.59 ERA, fanning 25 in 15.1 innings...was 7-0 with a 1.45 ERA for his final 10 starts, including a 3-hit, complete game in the 1-game playoff on October 2 vs. California for the A.L. West crown. 1995 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He was the winner in game #3 of the Division Series vs. the Yankees, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...came back on a day's rest to work in relief in game #5, fanning 6 in 3.0 innings as Mariners advanced to the LCS...he had a no decision in game #3 of the LCS vs. Cleveland, allowing a run over 8.0 innings, a game that Seattle won, 5-2 in 11 innings...he was the losing pitcher in game #6, giving up 3 runs in 7.1 frames...R.J. had off-season surgery on his right knee performed by Dr. Larry Pedegana. 1994—Finished third in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors in K's, while topping the junior circuit in K's per 9-innings (10.7), complete games and shutouts...Randy was Seattle's opening day starter in Cleveland on April 4, and with President Bill Clinton in attendance, he no-hit the Tribe until Sandy Alomar Jr. singled in the 8th, winding up with a no decision, an eventual 4-3 Seattle loss in 11...became the Mariners' all-time strikeout leader by fanning Mike Huff for #1,079, passing Mark Langston...missed a turn in early May due to a medial meniscus cartilage tear in his right knee...returned to work on May 15, beginning a 7-game winning streak...included were 3 consecutive shutouts from May 25-June 4, winning at Oakland (1-0, 4-hitter on May 25), at Minnesota (12-0, 2-hitter on May 30) and vs. Toronto (2-0, 6-hitter on June 4), earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors...he ran the scoreless streak to 29.0 innings before unusual circumstances brought it to an end...in the third inning of a June 10 start at the Kingdome, a power outage forced a 20-minute delay, then after play resumed, the A's scored a run on back-to-back doubles...a July 7 win in Boston was his 75th in a Seattle uniform, breaking Langston's team mark...he was named to his third All-Star team, working an inning and allowing a run in Pittsburgh...Randy had his 2nd 15-K game of the year in the season finale on August 11, fanning Ernie Young on what wound up being the final pitch of the strike-shortened season. 1993—Led the majors for the second straight year with a club record 308 K's, 36 more than the old mark held by Mark Langston...Randy was the first pitcher to top the 300-K plateau since Nolan Ryan in 1989 (301) and the first lefthander since Steve Carlton in 1972 (310)...Johnson won the A.L. strikeout crown by 112 K's, then the fifth largest margin in history...he also topped the majors in batting avg. against (.203), fewest hits per 9-innings (6.52), K's per 9-innings (10.9) and hit batters (16)...ended year with an 8-game winning streak, spanning last 11 games, with a 2.11 ERA and a save...had second career 1-hitter on May 16 at Oakland, a 7-0 win, fanning 14 and taking a perfect game through 7.1 frames, then had the no-no broken up by Lance Blankenship's blooper to right with 1 out in the ninth...earned a spot on the All-Star team with 10-5 mark thru 19 starts prior to break...had 2.0 perfect innings in Midsummer Classic at Camden Yards, including a memorable strikeout of Philly's John Kruk...Johnson volunteered to work in relief following Norm Charlton's season-ending injury and earned first big league save vs. Baltimore on August 16, fanning 4 of 6 men in 1.1 innings, his second career relief appearance, snapping a streak of 146 straight starts...Mariners scored 13 runs in his 8 losses, including 1 run or less in 4 of the setbacks...he recorded 1000th career K fanning Chuck Knoblauch on July 28 (the same night that Ken Griffey Jr. homered for eighth straight game)...R.J. finished second to Chicago's Jack McDowell in Cy Young balloting, receiving 6 first place votes...he also appeared in a game as an outfielder, though he did not have any chances. 1992—Led the league in strikeouts, batting avg. against (.206) and hit batsmen (18)...he was hit by a line drive off the bat of Mike Greenwell on May 31, bruising his left elbow...after 10 days of rest, he attempted a return to action on June 10 at Texas, but pain persisted and he was placed on the D.L. until June 27...tied Ron Guidry's then-A.L. record for K's by a lefthanded pitcher with 18 strikeouts on Sept. 27 at Texas...despite record-tying performance, he left after 8.0 innings and 160 pitches with score tied 2-2...over a 3-game stretch from Sept. 16-27, he went 0-1 with a 1.80 ERA and 45 K's, the second highest 3-game strikeout total in major league history. 1991—Despite early-season back problems that led to a 3-6 start, Randy finished second in the A.L. in K's...best outing of the year was August 14 vs. Oakland, a 4-0 win featuring 12 K's, taking no-hitter into the 9th before Mike Gallego singled for the A's only hit...he had arthroscopic surgery after the season to repair a lateral release and a patellar shaving to remove a rough area on the back of his kneecap. 1990—He fired the first no-hitter in Mariner history, a 2-0 victory on June 2 vs. Detroit, walking 6 and fanning 8, an accomplishment that earned A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...he followed that on June 7 with a 2-1 complete game victory in Chicago, fanning 10 and retiring the last 20 in order...he wound up 5-0 with a 2.40 ERA in June, winning the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award...earned a spot on the All-Star Game roster, but did not pitch...he dropped 4 straight starts following the break, as the Mariners were outscored 19-2, including 3 straight shutouts. 1989—He began the year with Montreal going 0-4 with a 6.67 ERA in 7 games (6 starts), with the Expos scoring 7 runs in the 4 losses...was optioned to Indy (AAA) on May 9, then was included in trade with Seattle on May 25, joining the Mariners with pitchers Brian Holman and Gene Harris in exchange for pitcher Mark Langston and a player to be named (Mike Campbell)...made his Mariner debut on May 30 at Yankee Stadium, a 3-2 win. 1988—Spent the majority of the year with Indy...he was out of action from June 14-July 31 with a hairline fracture of the 5th metacarpal on his right hand...was named the #3 major league prospect in the American Association by Baseball America... was recalled by the Expos after the playoffs, and won big league debut on Sept. 15 vs. Pirates... he fanned 11 in first career complete game vs. Cubs on Sept. 20. 1987—Spent the season with Jacksonville, leading the Southern League in strikeouts...he was 6-0 with 65 K's and only 17 hits allowed in his first 8 starts, totaling 46.0 innings...he was the S.L. Player-of-the-Month in May and closed the year ranked by Baseball America as the #2 prospect in the league. 1986—At West Palm Beach, Randy caught the eye of the Baseball America for the first of 3 straight years, earning #3 prospect status. 1985—Signed with the Expos as their second choice in the June draft and reported to Jamestown.

Arizona Diamondbacks

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, February 19, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Byung-Hyun signed with Arizona in spring training, opening the year with El Paso...he made it look easy, going 2-0 with 32 K's in 21.1 innings, then went to Tucson (AAA), posting a 2-0 mark with 21 K's in 17.1 frames and was summoned to the majors...20 years old at the time of his recall, he was the youngest player in the majors, 6 months younger than Odalis Perez (6/7/78), and 10 months younger than Adrian Beltre (4/7/78)...B.K. made his big league debut in Shea Stadium on May 29, retiring the Mets in order in the ninth, ending the game with a strikeout of Mike Piazza to save the 8-7 Arizona win... Kim earned his first major league win on October 2 over San Diego, working 0.1 of an inning...he was disabled from August 2-September 7 with a neck strain.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

A member of the Korean National team, the '99 season was not his first work on U.S. soil, performing against the U.S. Olympic team in Tucson in the summer of 1998, fanning 15 in 6.2 innings...he then accompanied the Korean National team to Italy for the World Championships, where they competed in the finals, once again facing the U.S. squad, earning a save with 3.0 innings of hitless relief to preserve a 3-1 Korean win...he was a member of the Gold Medal winning club in the Asian Games, a tournament that also included teams from Chinese Taipei and Japan...B.K. fanned 12 against China in the Asian Games, featuring a stretch of 8 consecutive K's...his work in the Asian Games earned him the opportunity to sign a baseball contract, receiving a deferment from any military commitment for the Korean government....he was the winning pitcher over the Cuban National Team in the Four Nations Invitational Games played in Osaka, Japan in 1997.

PERSONAL: Byung-Hyun Kim...he is single and makes his home in Kwangsan-ku Songjung-dong, Korea, though he spent a portion of this past winter in the U.S. studying the English language...he graduated from Kwang-ju First High School in 1997, and at the time he signed he was a sophomore at Sungkyunkwan University in Seoul...he was named both the Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Pitcher for the National High School championships in Korea...he was selected a delegate to the Korea Junior National Team in 1996, then named to the National Team in both 1997 and 1998.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Milwaukee Brewers as the fifth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Danny had an injury-shortened campaign, spending better than 2 months of the season on the shelf with arthroscopic right knee surgery...his big league work was limited to just 1 at bat, providing a pinch-hit single on September 9 in Milwaukee against the club that made him available in the expansion draft...he appeared in only 64 games for Tucson (AAA), with his best work coming early in the year, hitting .343 in April (24-for-70)...he immediately went into a tailspin in May, batting just .202 (22-for-109), then was on the road to offensive recovery in June, hitting .385 (15-for-39) before being sidelined with the knee injury just 10 games into the month...Danny went on the disabled list on June 11 and didn't return to active duty until August 26...upon recovering from the surgery, he performed in 6 games for the Diamondbacks' Rookie League club as part of his rehab.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Danny had never played above AA until joining the D'Backs as an expansion pick...he spent the majority of '98 in Tucson (AAA), but did have a small dose of big league action, appearing in 29 games...he was recalled on July 4 and made his big league debut that night, going 0-for-1 with 3 walks and a run scored as the starting second baseman in a 7-4 win in the Astrodome...the 22-year old had an impressive Bank One Ballpark initiation, going 3-for-4 on July 10 vs. Cincinnati...included was his first major league hit, a single in the second off of Brett Tomko, then his first big league homer, a ninth inning, 2-run shot off of Danny Graves...Klassen reached base safely in 13 of his first 14 big league games, including a 7-game hitting streak from August 12-19...unfortunately, he couldn't keep up the pace, falling into an offensive rut, going 4-for-44 (.091) over a 12-game stretch before being optioned back to Tucson on August 9...as for his minor league work, he was successful at the plate, but the year ended abruptly with a left shoulder fracture just 2 games after returning from his month-long stint in the majors...his first taste of AAA action witnessed a .327 average through the month of May. 1997—The everyday shortstop at El Paso, his first exposure to AA, finishing with a .331 average, tops among all short-stops in AA or AAA in '97, and a 56-point increase over any previous minor league season...for his effort, he was named the Texas League "Star of Stars" by Howe Sportsdata...hit .511 through his first 13 games (23-for-45), including a pair of 4-hit games...did not go more than 2 consecutive games without a hit...scored at least once in 11 consecutive games from May 14-25, totaling 13 runs...finished the year with 47 multi-hit games, including 22 of 3 or more hits. 1996—Spent the entire season at Stockton (A), hitting .269 in 118 games...set a then-pro best with 22 doubles (surpassed with 30 in '97). 1995—His second straight year at Beloit, hitting .275 in 59 games. 1994—First full year with Beloit (A), established pro best with 28 stolen bases. 1993—Signed as an 18-year old and reported to Chandler (Rookie)...finished the season with Helena, but scuffled offensively, hitting .200.

PERSONAL

Daniel Victor (Danny) Klassen...he is single and resides in Stuart, FL, though like many of his teammates returned to the Valley in January to workout at Bank One Ballpark...Danny graduated from John Carroll High School in 1993, lettering for 4 seasons in baseball...he was named third team All-State for his junior year, then second team All-American and first team All-State as a senior...he was also selected to play on the USA Junior National South team...Klassen signed a letter of intent to play at Florida State University, but chose to sign as Milwaukee's second round pick...a native of Canada, Danny was born in Leamington, Ontario...he played in the Arizona Fall League with Scottsdale after the '98 regular season, but another shoulder injury brought his fall ball to an end...the AFL injury was not related to the shoulder fracture that ended his regular season...Klassen has participated in both the 1999 and 2000 Diamondbacks Winter Tours.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, October 15, 1996.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

It was a tale of 2 seasons for the sophomore, who had an outstanding month of June in an effort to salvage a slow start, but a difficult mid-season slump compounded by a an injury made for a forgettable second half...hitting just .233 entering June, Travis snapped out of his doldrums with a 24-game stretch in which he batted .341 (29-for-85) with 4 homers, 17 RBI and 19 runs scored...the majority of the damage came early in the month, as he went 15-for-33 (.455) through the first 9 games, featuring 5 doubles, a triple, 4 homers and 12 RBI...he also scored a run in each of those games as well as the last 2 contests in May, giving Lee a streak of 11 consecutive games in which he stepped on home plate (17 runs)...he had the third 2-homer game of his career on June 7, hitting a pair of 2-run shots off of Cub pitching, but little did anyone know that those would be his last home runs of the year... his season average continued to hover around the .260 mark until mid-July, which included a 3-hit game in Safeco Field on July 18, featuring a double and 2 RBI in front of family and friends from his hometown of Olympia, WA...but the next night he would go hitless in his last 3 at bats, triggering a frustrating 0-for-30 drought that wouldn't end until an August 2 single at home against the Giants...to make matters worse, while still embattled in a 2-for-43 dry spell, Travis severely sprained his left ankle during batting practice in Bank One Ballpark on August 15, disabling him until mid-September...though not completely healed from the injury, Lee began getting some pinch-hit at bats upon his return before making a pair of starts in rightfield during the waning days of the regular season, his first outfield work as a major leaguer...on a brighter note, Travis hit the first 2 grand slams of his career during the first half of the season, taking Chan Ho Park out with the bases juiced in the home opener on April 12, his third career 5-RBI game...he later drove a Rich Rodriguez pitch to the opposite field in 3Com on May 18 for his second salami...Travis also displayed an outstanding knack for stealing bases, pilfering 17 bags in just 20 attempts prior to the All-Star break, with no further attempts during the second half of the season...due to the second half ankle injury, Lee was not a member of the Division Series roster.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998 —After just one season as a pro, Travis made the jump to the majors in '98, earning team Rookie-of-the-Year honors as voted by the local BBWAA chapter and finishing third in the N.L. vote behind Kerry Wood and Todd Helton...Lee tied Devon White for the club home run lead, while topping all N.L. rookies in walks, and finishing second among freshmen in homers, on-base pct. (.346) and total bases (241), third in runs, hits, multi-hit games (40) and slugging pct. (.429)...Travis accomplished a majority of Arizona's offensive "firsts" in the home opener on March 31, beginning with his first big league hit, also the team's initial hit, a first inning single off of Colorado's Darryl Kile...Lee later added his first big league homer, a solo shot off of Kile in the sixth inning, which was also the first homer, run scored and RBI in franchise history...he homered twice in a game on a pair of occasions (June 13 vs. St. Louis and June 26 vs. Seattle), and knocked in 5 runs twice (June 13 vs. St. Louis and Sept. 14 vs. San Francisco)...he was hitting .288 with 15 doubles, 19 homers and 54 RBI, when a left groin strain occurred during a rundown play on July 24 in Dodger Stadium...he was placed on the D.L. and did not return to play until August 9, then struggled offensively, hitting just .168 (18-for-107) over his first 29 games back... defensively, he committed only 3 errors in 1,371 chances, the 2nd lowest error total among N.L. first basemen, trailing only Gold Glove winner J.T. Snow. 1997—HIGHLIGHTS: In his first year as a pro he combined stops in High Desert (A) and Tucson (AAA) to hit .331 (150-for-453) with 105 runs, 34 doubles, 3 triples, 32 home runs and 109 RBI...those totals resulted in a slugging pct. of .631, amassing 286 total bases...finished up work with High Desert hitting safely in 11 of last 13 games at a .489 clip (23-for-47), then was loaned to Tucson (AAA) in the Brewers' chain and went 3-for-5 in debut game at home vs. Edmonton...began AAA experience by hitting safely in 13 of first 14 games at a .423 clip (22-for-52). HONORS: Baseball America named him the top prospect in the organization entering the year and he did not disappoint...his combined effort at High Desert and Tucson earned a spot as first baseman on Baseball America's Minor League All-Star team, as well as first baseman on the Class-A All-Star team...the publication also named him the "Most Exciting Player" in both the Pacific Coast and California Leagues, while playing only a half-season in each...he was also voted the California League's "Best Batting Prospect, Best Power Hitter and Best Defensive First Baseman" in the Baseball America poll...he was tabbed the #1 prospect in the California League and #4 prospect in the PCL.

PERSONAL

Travis Reynolds Lee...he is single and a native of Olympia, WA, where he graduated from Capital High School in 1993...Travis then attended San Diego State University, earning virtually every honor available after his junior year...he was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award as the country's outstanding amateur player...he was the first baseman on the U.S. Olympic team, hitting .382 during the Atlanta Games after batting .427 during the Pre-Olympic Tour...Lee set the USA Baseball single-season record for homers with 17, while committing 2 errors in 350 chances...originally drafted by the Minnesota Twins as the second overall pick in the '96 June draft, he was declared a free agent and signed with Arizona...Travis teamed with Hall-of-Fame inductee George Brett and country music star Tim McGraw to win the Rookie Skills Challenge at the All-Star Game festivities in Denver in 1998...a high school quarterback, Travis possesses the rare ability to throw a football righthanded, but plays baseball as a southpaw...he is extremely active in the Phoenix area with various youth groups, including unannounced visits to the Thomas J. Pappas School, where he spends time with the disadvantaged children who attend classes there...he also works with the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Florida Marlins in exchange for pitchers Vladimir Nuñez and Brad Penny, and a player-to-be-named, July 9, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

One of the keys to Arizona's second half success actually took place just a couple of days prior to the All-Star break when the D'Backs acquired Matt from the Marlins, arriving in Bank One Ballpark on July 10 and immediately solidifying the bullpen...ironically, the trade was consummated on July 9, the same night that 15,000 pins were being distributed in Pro Player Stadium in honor of Mantei, but while fans were receiving his likeness on a pin, the Diamondbacks got the real thing...the possessor of 10 saves during the first 3+ months of the year with Florida, Matt rescued 22 games in 25 tries for the Diamondbacks, dominating the opposition with 49 strikeouts in 29.0 innings after the trade, a 15.2 strikeout per 9-inning ratio...all told for the year, Matt fanned 99 men in 65.1 frames, a 13.6 ratio...dubbed the Iceman during his stay in south Florida, Mantei recorded a save in his first appearance as a D'Back on July 11, working a scoreless ninth at home vs. Oakland in the finale prior to the All-Star break...things didn't go quite as well in his second appearance, entering in the ninth of a 2-0 game vs. the Rangers on July 15 in Arlington, attempting to close the door on a potential Randy Johnson victory...after retiring the first 2 men, he surrendered what appeared to be a harmless walk, but 2 walks later the bases were loaded, then Mark McLemore's double unloaded them for a 3-2 Texas win...it was 1 of only 3 blown saves charged to Mantei, unfortunately each of them came in potential Big Unit wins...after the loss in Arlington, Matt recorded saves in his next 7 trips to the hill, his second best streak of the year...following his second blown save on August 11 and an inning of work against Milwaukee 3 days later, the Iceman went on another roll, recording saves in 9 consecutive appearances in which he was virtually untouchable, allowing only 2 hits in 9.0 innings with 19 of the 27 outs coming via the strikeout...in fact, dating back to the inning of work in a non-save situation vs. the Brewers on August 14 through a save on Sept. 14 at home over the Pirates, Mantei tossed 12.0 consecutive shutout innings, allowing only 7 hits while recording 25 K's...the scoreless streak was snapped at home on Sept. 18, when he faced his former mates again trying to finish up for Johnson, but a Mike Lowell 3-run homer capped a 4-run inning for the Fish...fortunately, the D'Backs tied the game in the ninth, then won it on Luis Gonzalez's 2-run homer in the 10th...Matt wrapped up the year with 4 scoreless relief appearances, earning 3 saves...his 21 saves after the All-Star break tied John Rocker for the third most in the majors, trailing Mariano Rivera and Ugueth Urbina, who each had 22...Mantei recorded at least 1 strikeout in 28 of his 30 appearances with Arizona, including a streak of 19 consecutive outings from August 8-Sept. 28, totaling 34 K's in 17.1 innings...all told, he was 32-for-37 in save situations during the '99 season, rescuing 10 of 12 while a member for the Marlins...during his stint with the D'Backs, Matt held opposing lefthanded hitters to a .140 average, surrendering just 7 hits in 50 at bats...overall, opposing hitters finished with a composite .189 average against the Iceman, collecting 44 hits in 233 at bats...while with Florida, Matt had a 5-strikeout performance on May 3 against Milwaukee.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt was called upon once in the post-season, working 2.0 innings in the fourth game of the series at Shea...he was saddled with the 4-3 setback, surrendering a 1-out homer to Todd Pratt in the 10th inning...it was the only hit that Mantei allowed, though he walked 3 (1 intentionally)...the 2-inning stint was his longest since May 24.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Started the year with Charlotte (AAA), making 16 appearances before May 20 recall to the Marlins, appearing that night with an inning against the Diamondbacks...gave up only 1 earned run in first 11 outings after recall, spanning 14.0 innings (0.64 ERA)...led the Marlins with 9 saves, earning club Rolaids Relief Man Award... earned first win on June 12 vs. the Mets...was disabled from August 19-September 4 with a right ankle sprain. 1997—Opened the year on the D.L. following off-season rotator cuff surgery...was transferred to the 60-day list on May 16...appeared in 9 minor league games as part of rehab work. 1996—Made the Marlins opening day roster and fanned 24 in his first 16.0 innings of year...earned first big league win on May 19 at Chicago, tossing a scoreless 10th inning...was optioned to AAA just 8 days later, then was recalled on June 21, but placed on the D.L. with a sore right shoulder. 1995—Was on the D.L. at the outset due to off-season back strain...activated on June 18 and made major league debut that day in Philly, working an inning with a walk...suffered first big league loss on July 6 at St. Louis. 1994—Spent entire season with Appleton in the Mariners chain, leading the club with 26 saves and 2.06 ERA...left unprotected by Seattle, he was acquired by Florida in the Rule 5 draft on December 5. 1993—Led the Northwest League with 12 saves for Bellingham...earned the save on August 16 by striking out the side in the ninth inning of a 1-0 win over Spokane in Bellingham's annual game in the Kingdome...was named the righthanded relief pitcher on the league's All-Star team and earned Rolaids Relief Man-of-the-Year honors for the league...also named the ninth major league prospect by Baseball America.

PERSONAL: Matthew Bruce (Matt) Mantei...he and his wife, Erika, make their home in Pembroke Pines, FL...he graduated in 1991 from River Valley (Michigan) High School, earning All-State honors in baseball...he signed as Seattle's 25th round choice in the '91 June draft.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Minnesota Twins as the tenth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Damian had a solid season splitting the catching chores with Kelly Stinnett, though it was cut short at the end...Miller suffered a hairline fracture near the thumb on his right hand, blocking a pitch in Colorado on September 21, forcing him to miss the rest of the year, including the post-season...the injury occurred on the night of his first career multi-homer game, taking Brian Bohanon deep twice in Arizona's 7-6 win...while healthy, Miller and Stinnett combined for 25 home runs and 88 RBI...Damian closed the campaign hitting .321 (28-for-87) over his last 25 games, which included a 12-game stretch just prior to the injury that featured a .389 mark (14-for-36), with 4 homers and 9 RBI...included in the late-season run was his second career grand slam, putting the exclamation point on an 8-run ninth at Florida on August 26 off of southpaw Brent Billingsley... Damian also provided some outstanding offensive production in the first 2 months of the campaign, hitting as high as .343 on May 22...his best stretch ran from April 28-May 22, batting at a .404 clip (19-for-47), featuring a pair of 3-hit games, with 10 runs scored, 4 homers and 14 RBI...just 3 days after this hot streak was halted, Miller etched his name in the record book for a rather obscure mark, tying a big league record on May 25 by throwing out 3 Padres on the back end of double plays, as they attempted running while Randy Johnson was on one of his strikeout binges...it was the first time in 68 years that a catcher had finished up a trio of "strike 'em out, throw 'em out" double plays, tying Shanty Hogan's mark set in 1931 with the New York Giants...Damian threw out 29% of the potential base thieves during the season (28-for-97).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Opened the year with Tucson (AAA), hitting safely in 15 of 18 games (.349), then was recalled to the D'Backs on May 6, remaining with the major league club for the duration...sharing the catching duties during the second half, Damian started 43 games behind the plate, while also displaying his versatility with brief appearances at first base and rightfield...he went 2-for-3 in his Arizona debut, kicking off a 3-game stretch in which he went 7-for-11...he had a successful return to his home state, as the LaCrosse, WI, native was 4-for-7 in a pair of games at County Stadium in Milwaukee, including a 3-for-3 tilt on August 2, including a walk and home run...defensively, he tossed out 11 of 31 potential base thieves (35%). 1997—Spent most of the year with Salt Lake, his third straight campaign at AAA, but earned a recall to the Twins in mid-August, appearing in 25 games...he hit his first major league homer on August 19 at Detroit off of Willie Blair...hit his first career grand slam on Sept. 22 off of Milwaukee's Jeff D'Amico. 1996—Led PCL catchers in chances (695) and assists (70), while nabbing 42% of potential base thieves (41-for-97). 1995—First year of AAA action, finished strong by hitting .349 in last 23 games...led PCL catchers in fielding with a .998 pct. 1994—First full year at Nashville, he began a trend of strong finishes, hitting .359 (28-for-78) in August...was third in the league in nailing base thieves at a 42% clip (49-for-116). 1993—Struggled offensively at Ft. Myers (A), but was promoted to Nashville for the final week. 1992—Earned a spot on the Midwest League All-Star team, hitting .292 for Kenosha (A)...finished eighth in the league in batting, while his .385 on-base pct. was 10th. 1991—Opened the year in extended spring, earning Twins' Minor League Player-of-the-Week honors for April 30-May 4, hitting .846 (11-for-13)...was sent to Kenosha on May 10, playing in 80 games. 1990—Signed as a 10th rounder in the June draft and homered with 3 RBI in pro debut on June 22 with Elizabethton...suffered a thumb injury in home plate collision on August 6, missing remainder of season.

PERSONAL

Damian Donald Miller...he and wife, Jeanne, and daughter, Josephine, (6/2/98) make their home in La Crosse, WI...Damian lettered in baseball, basketball and football at West Salem (WI) High School, graduating in 1987...he then attended Viterbo College in La Crosse, majoring in business, earning NAIA District 14 Player-of-the-Year honors while falling one game short of the NAIA World Series...while in college, he played for the La Crosse Angels summer team...spends a good portion of his off-season doing what most Wisconsin natives do, watching the Packers...Damian made the trip to the Valley in January to participate in the "all catchers" portion of Winter Tour 2000, joining Kelly Stinnett and catching coach Glenn Sherlock.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's 13th round pick in the 1996 June free agent draft...signed by Ray Corbett.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Ben led Arizona's minor league system with 12 wins and 28 starts, combining a pair of stops to achieve those totals...his year began where the '98 season left off in High Desert (A), but after just 8 starts he was promoted to El Paso for his first look at AA hitters, and he wound up with 20 starts for the Diablos...he went 0-2 in his first 6 efforts for the Mavericks, then won his last 2 starts to even his record prior to heading to the Texas League...Norris won his initial 4 starts with El Paso, posting a 2.96 ERA, with 9 earned runs in 27.1 innings...he posted a decision in each of his first 9 starts, going 6-3, then recorded only 1 decision over his next 4 starts...some of his best work came during those 4 outings, combining consecutive mid-July starts for 13.0 shutout innings, surrendering just 7 hits while fanning 12...he struck out 9 on August 1 at Shreveport, over a 5-inning stint, while twice recording 8 K's in a game during his stint with El Paso.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Though he posted just a 1-5 record at South Bend, Ben performed in the Midwest League All-Star Game...after 15 starts for the Silver Hawks, he was moved to High Desert, working 9 times, including 3 in a relief role, his only professional work out of the pen since making 1 appearance in Rookie ball in '96. 1997—Started the year at South Bend, but after a 1-8 ledger he was moved to the short-season Lethbridge club, leading Pioneer League southpaws with 7 wins, just a victory shy of the overall league lead. 1996—Was assigned to Phoenix in the Arizona Rookie League after signing, making 8 appearances (7 starts)...included was the first organizational game ever played in Arizona, working 3.0 shutout innings vs. the A's in front of 6,124 fans at Scottsdale Stadium... finished the year with 3 starts at Lethbridge.

PERSONAL

Benjamin Owen (Ben) Norris...he is single and resides in his native Austin, TX, where he graduated from Westwood High School in 1996...he pitched for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League after the '99 minor league season, making 7 starts, going 0-2 with a 4.91 ERA.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, August 30, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Vicente had a pair of brief stints with the Diamondbacks, first getting the call on June 24 and making his major league debut 5 nights later in Cincinnati...he was saddled with a loss in his initiation, called upon to work the ninth with a 4-2 lead, but allowing 3 runs to absorb the defeat...after recording his first big league out on July 2 in St. Louis, he had the unenviable task of facing Mark McGwire in a 1-1 game with the bases loaded and 2 outs in the 10th at Busch the next day, and the home run king coaxed a walk to end the game...Vicente was optioned to AAA on July 8, but was only in the minors for 11 days before getting the call again...he appeared once during the second stay, allowing 2 runs on 2 hits in 1.1 innings at Seattle on July 19.

MINOR LEAGUE: Vicente reported to spring training on the minor league side and was assigned to High Desert (A), opening his first professional season with the Mavericks...he made 9 starts for the California League entry, going 4-1 with a 3.73 ERA, fanning 55 men in 50.2 innings, while walking just 17...in what turned out to be his last 2 starts with the Mavs, Padilla fanned 10 and 9 against Lancaster and San Jose, respectively...he was then promoted over AA and directly into Tucson where he made 5 starts for the AAA-Sidewinders...Padilla made a solid first impression for Tucson, working 7.0 shutout innings on March 30 at Nashville, scattering 6 hits with no walks and 6 K's...combined with his last 5 starts for High Desert, Padilla went 4-1 in May with a 2.89 ERA, allowing 12 earned runs in 37.1 innings to earn the Diamondbacks Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Month award...after incurring a loss at home to Calgary on June 4, Vicente won 3 straight decisions for the Sidewinders leading up to his promotion to the majors...he wound up with a 6-game winning streak that spanned 8 outings (7 starts), interrupted only by his pair of visits to the big league club...his year ended with a 3-game losing streak, not posting another victory after July 31.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Prior to signing a professional contract, Vicente pitched for Nicaragua in the XXXIII World Cup in Italy that ran from July 22-August 2, the same tournament that current teammate Byung-Hyun Kim performed in as a member of the Korean squad...the Nicaragua team wound up with the Bronze medal in the World Cup, with Padilla earning the save in the medal game against the host country of Italy, a 5-1 win in which he worked 1.2 perfect innings, fanning 3...he also worked in the quarterfinals against the Dominican Republic, tossing 2.0 frames, scattering 4 hits with a strikeout...Vicente appeared 3 times in the qualifying round, totaling 4.1 innings allowing just 3 hits, with no runs or walks and 6 strikeouts...opposing hitters could muster only a .188 mark (3-for-16) in the qualifying round, which included an appearance against the USA team, retiring all 4 men he faced, fanning a pair...Padilla also pitched in 4 games for Nicaragua in the Central American Games from August 29-September 18, earning a save and a win as his country finished 2nd in the tournament.

PERSONAL

Vicente D. Padilla...he was born in Chinandega, Nicaragua, and makes his residence in Managua...the oldest of 5 brothers, Vicente had the opportunity to hone his skills with easily the most famous pitcher from his country, Dennis Martinez, as "El Presidente" spent 2 weeks giving him tips on improving his change-up, slider and curve... Martinez, who retired after the 1998 season, won 245 games over a 23-year major league career...Vicente spent last winter pitching for Estrellas in the Dominican Republic, going 2-4 with a 4.97 ERA in 7 starts.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Toronto Blue Jays in exchange for infielder Tony Batista and pitcher John Frascatore, June 12, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

After a 14 major league seasons, Dan finally had the opportunity to play beyond the 162-game schedule, snapping the second longest dry spell among active players who had not participated in post-season play...the longest drought was also snapped in '99, with the Mets' John Franco making it to the playoffs as well...Dan was in the midst of his second season in Toronto, when the D'Backs, in need of another southpaw in the pen to assist Greg Swindell, made a June 12 trade with the Blue Jays, sending Tony Batista and John Frascatore to Canada...the return to the National League seemed to agree with Plesac, who arrived on the scene with an 8.34 ERA with the Jays, yet posted a 3.32 mark in 34 outings for Arizona...generally limited to a specialization role out of the pen, facing 1 or 2 hitters an outing, "Sac" was scored upon in only 5 of the 34 games he appeared...of the 8 runs allowed with the D'Backs, 5 were the direct result of 3 home runs...consistent with his partners in the pen, Dan was outstanding down the stretch, throwing 10.0 consecutive scoreless innings over an 11-appearance span, before having the streak halted on October 1 by a Tony Gwynn homer...the blast by the lefthanded Gwynn was the first that Plesac had surrendered to a lefthanded batter since September 5, 1998, when Boston's Troy O'Leary went deep...he worked a 1-2-3 inning in the regular season finale to finish the year with 1 earned run allowed over 12.0 innings, a 0.75 ERA...Dan had a pair of wins with the D'Backs, both extra-inning affairs...the first was July 17 in Texas, recording an out before a 2-run 10th inning rally by Arizona...he later worked 1.1 frames in his old stomping grounds of Wrigley Field on August 11, as the D'Backs won a 7-5 decision...his specialty is retiring lefthanded batters and he excelled in '99, allowing a composite average of .198 to lefties (19-for-96)...he finished the year with 822 career appearances, good for 22nd on the all-time list, 2 behind Tug McGraw for the 21st spot.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Despite not working for the Brewers since 1992, he remains their all-time leader in appearances (365), saves (133) and ERA (3.21)...he was a 3-time All-Star in the American League, each time with Milwaukee (1987-89)...entered the 2000 season with 822 career appearances, spanning 14 major league seasons, and has never been placed on the disabled list...he has committed only 3 errors in 822 major league games, spanning 917.0 innings, and none since July 27, 1993, vs. San Diego.

1998—Worked a career-high 78 games, breaking his own Blue Jay record for appearances by a southpaw set the previous season with 73...he tied teammate Paul Quantrill for the A.L. lead in holds with 27...only 19% of his inherited runners scored, with 65 of 80 remaining stranded...recorded career save #150 on August 13 vs. Anaheim, fanning a man to seal a Toronto victory...had a composite batting average against of .224, with lefthanded hitters posting a .198 mark, while righties hit .265...traveled to Japan in November to pitch for the MLB All-Star team. 1997—First year in Toronto, he established a club record for appearances by a lefthanded hurler (73)...recorded lone save of the year on April 22 at Anaheim...allowed runs in only 8 of 51 games after June 1...included was a stretch of 10 straight scoreless appearances from July 19-August 10 (6.2 IP)...he held lefthanded batters to .200 mark (19-for-95) while righthanders hit .286 (28-for-98). 1996—Final year with Pittsburgh, Dan set a then-career high with 73 appearances, second most among N.L. southpaws...recorded 11 saves, his highest total since posting 24 with the 1990 Brewers, while his 76 K's in 70.1 innings were the most he had since 1987 with Milwaukee. 1995—Started Pittsburgh portion of his career with 16.0 consecutive scoreless innings, spanning 13 outings...the opposition hit .149 (10-for-67) in his first 18 games as a Buc...worked 500th big league game on June 27 at Wrigley Field...he did not allow a home run until July 13, a span of 28 games and 30.1 innings...collected only major league hit on August 12 at Dodger Stadium off of John Cummings. 1994—Final year as a Cub, he recorded his lone save on July 20 at Colorado, his first since September 4, 1992...held lefthanded batters to a. 186 mark (13-for-70). 1993—First year in the senior circuit after spending initial 7 big league seasons in Milwaukee...he did not record a save in 57 relief outings for the Cubs, but landed first N.L. win on August 24 at Montreal...was charged with a fielding error on July 27 vs. San Diego, snapping a streak of 310 consecutive errorless games, dating back to July 8, 1987. 1992—His last season in Milwaukee was also the last time he started a game, making 4 starts for the Brewers...opened year with 4 relief appearances, followed by 4 starts, then returned to the pen for what has been the rest of his career...closed year with a 1.23 ERA in final 27 games (5 earned runs in 36.2 innings)...lone save occurred on September 4 at Detroit. 1991—Opened the year in the pen, but received first major league starting assignment on August 10, winning a decision at Texas and snapping a major league career-opening streak of 311 consecutive relief appearances...finished the year with 10 straight starts, including a career-high 8-inning performance vs. Detroit on September 14. 1990—Ranked 10th in the A.L. with 24 saves, his fourth consecutive 20-save season. 1989—Set a Milwaukee club record and career-high with 33 saves, fifth best in the league...earned third consecutive trip to the All-Star Game, the first Milwaukee pitcher to be so honored, allowing a hit to only batter faced in Anaheim...recorded 100th major league save on September 30 at Boston, working 0.2 of an inning. 1988—Made 50 appearances, going 30-for-35 in save situations...fanned the only man he faced in the All-Star Game at Cincinnati...suffered from left shoulder tendinitis, limiting him to just 3 outings after August 19. 1987—Set a career-high with 89 K's in 79.1 innings, earning a spot on the A.L. All-Star team for the first time, working a perfect inning in Oakland...made good on 23 of 24 save situations...injured his left elbow on August 19 while fielding during B.P., but was not disabled. 1986—Jumped from AA to the majors, spending the entire year with the Brewers, making big league debut on April 11 at Yankee Stadium...earned first major league win on April 18 vs. New York, retiring all 12 men he faced in a 4-inning stint...he recorded initial big league save on May 2 vs. California. 1985—Spent the year at El Paso (AA), he started 24 of his 25 appearances, with lone relief outing the first of his professional career...earned a spot on the Texas League All-Star team, leading El Paso with 12 wins. 1984—Split year between Stockton (A) and El Paso (AA), combining for 8-8 mark and 3.36 ERA in 23 starts. 1983—Signed as the 24th overall selection in the June draft and made pro debut for Paintsville, leading the Appalachian League in wins (9) and strikeouts (85).

Stephen Randolph 58

Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 185 B/T: L/L
Age: 25 (Turns 26 on May 1)
Born: May 1, 1974 in Okinawa, Japan
Residence: Austin, TX
M.L. Service: None

Arizona Diamondbacks

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the New York Yankees in the Rule 5 draft on December 15, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Stephen made a pair of stops in the system and also spent nearly 2 months on the disabled list...he opened the campaign at El Paso, his first career work at AA, after jumping from High Desert to Tucson in '98...he posted a 2.64 ERA in 8 starts for the Diablos, but was much more impressive than those figures, allowing 7 of his 13 earned runs in a 5.1-inning start on May 5...his other 7 starts produced a 1.38 ERA, with just 6 earnies over 39.0 frames...his final AA start featured a season-high 10 K's in 6.0 innings vs. Arkansas...he was then promoted to Tucson, where he didn't fare as well, going 0-7 in 11 outings (10 starts)...after losing his first 2 outings, Stephen was diagnosed with a left elbow ligament sprain, forcing him to the D.L. from June 1-July 25...he made a pair of rehab starts for Tucson (Rookie League), totaling 6.0 innings, then returned to the Sidewinders to finish the year...despite going winless, Randolph allowed 3 runs or less in 6 of his 9 starts after returning to action.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998 —Stephen opened the year in High Desert, the third consecutive season that he began in Class A, but by mid-July was experiencing AAA work, making the jump to Tucson...he allowed 2 or fewer earned runs in 11 of his 17 starts, after a 7-inning 1-hit effort on July 10, he was promoted to Tucson, making 17 appearances, but only 1 start...during his duty with the Sidewinders, he did not allow more than 2 earned runs in any outing, and began his AAA life giving up 2 earnies over his first 12.0 innings, a 1.50 ERA spanning 9 appearances...Stephen also got an unofficial taste of the big league life, making the start in a Diamondback uniform on June 29 at South Bend, when Arizona played an exhibition game against its Class A affiliate...unfortunately Mother Nature did not cooperate, as the game was washed out in the 4th inning. 1997—Opened the year in the Tampa (A) bullpen, but wound up making 13 starts...was 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA as a reliever, but went 4-5 with a 3.03 mark in starting role...recorded at least 6 strikeouts in 9 of 13 starts, including a pair of 9-K performances...he was nabbed by the D'Backs in the Rule 5 draft on December 15. 1996—Shared duties between starting and relief at Greensboro (A), working in 32 games (17 starts), fanning 111 men in 100.1 innings. 1995—Started pro career by going 4-0 with a 2.22 ERA in 8 games with Gulf Coast (Rookie), then was promoted to Oneonta (A).

PERSONAL

Stephen LaCharles Randolph...he was born in Okinawa, Japan, and now makes his home in Austin, TX... Stephen was a 1992 graduate of James Bowie (TX) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball, winning the District title in his senior year...he earned All-District honors as a junior and senior, and was All-Central Texas in '92...Stephen then attended Galveston Junior College, winning the Junior College World Series in 1994...he earned All-Conference honors during both seasons at Galveston, and was All-Tourney at the World Series in Grand Junction, CO...he then attended the University of Texas in Austin...was selected in the 18th round of the '95 June draft by the Yankees...an off-field interest of Randolph's is reading non-fiction crime stories.

Arizona Diamondbacks

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 25, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Armando posted the second highest win total of his career, contributing a 10-6 mark to Arizona's championship season...he began the year with 3 relief appearances, as an off day delayed his debut in the rotation until the first homestand...he won for the first time as a Diamondback on April 18 vs. the Giants, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings of a 12-3 decision...his next outing wasn't quite as inspiring, a tough 11-0 loss in Houston on April 27, but it would be his last defeat for nearly 3 1/2 months, as the veteran righthander took the majority of the summer to record a club record 7-game winning streak, also establishing a personal best...he opened May with a pair of no decisions, which was not an unusual sight during the summer, as the record-setting winning streak encompassed 17 starts...of the 10 no decisions that fell around the victories, 4 wound up in extra innings with the D'Backs going 3-1...3 of the bonus frame affairs came in consecutive starts from June 27-July 8, in the middle of a 6-start stretch in which he did not record a decision...Armando snapped out of the drought with wins in 3 straight starts from July 26-August 8, kicking off the streak with a 2-0 win in San Diego on July 26, allowing 5 hits over 8.0 innings...the 7-game winning streak was halted with a 4-2 loss at home vs. Milwaukee on August 14, before posting 2 more wins, giving him a 9-1 mark from May 2-August 28...things weren't quite as prosperous in September, as innings began to wear on his twice surgically repaired arm, losing his last 4 decisions (5 starts), with the long ball his nemesis, surrendering 8 homers over his final 20.1 innings, after giving up just a dozen in his first 146.2 frames...the first inning proved to be an achilles heel throughout the season as well, allowing 19 first frame runs in 27 starts, a 6.33 ERA, while giving up 58 earnies in his other 134.0 innings as a starter for a 3.90 mark...known for one of the best pickoff moves by a righthanded hurler, Armando nabbed 4 runners in '99, raising his career total to 44 since joining the majors in 1991...his work as a starter was geographically distorted at times, as Reynoso made 3 starts in the state of California, going 3-0 with a 0.82 ERA, giving up just 2 earned runs in 22.0 innings, posting wins in San Francisco, Anaheim and San Diego...meanwhile, things weren't quite as rosy in the Lone Star State, going 0-1 in 3 starts in Texas, giving up 18 earned runs in 14.0 frames for an 11.57 ERA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—A late start to the season for Armando, opening the year on the D.L. as he continued to recover from a pair of arthroscopic procedures that were performed on August 18, 1997...the first was to remove bone chips from his right elbow, while the other was to debride the rotator cuff and labrum, both of which were partially torn...the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, the same surgeon who worked on Reynoso's elbow in 1994...once healthy he made 7 minor league rehab starts, then finally took a big league mound on July 24 at Wrigley Field, his first start in the majors in a year and 8 days, and answered any questions regarding his health, winning a 5-0 decision...Armando worked 8.0 innings of 5-hit ball, fanning 3 and walking a pair in the first game of a twinbill...the win over the Cubs began a streak for Reynoso, who combined his first 5 starts for a 5-0 mark and 1.54 ERA, allowing 6 earned runs in 35.0 innings...he wound up going 7-1 through his first 8 starts, posting a 1.59 ERA (9 earned runs in 51.0 innings) over the 7 wins. 1997—Armando made 16 starts for the Mets, his first year with the New Yorkers after a 4-year stint with Colorado...he was 6-3 before tendinitis struck his right shoulder during a July 16 start at Shea vs. the Cubs, his final appearance of the season...he underwent a pair of arthroscopic procedures by Dr. Andrews (August 28)...while healthy, Reynoso tossed the first shutout of his career, winning a 6-0 decision over the Marlins on June 5 at Shea, a 5-hitter that included a walk and 4 K's...it was his first complete game since May 3, 1994...he no-hit his former mates from Colorado for 6.2 innings on May 19 in New York, before a Jeff Reed homer spoiled his bid for the record book...Reynoso hit his third career homer, a solo shot off of Houston's Mike Hampton on May 13. 1996—His final year with the Rockies, as he was dealt to the Mets on November 27 in exchange for reliever Jerry Dipoto...Armando tied a career best with 30 starts, while helping his cause with 8 pickoffs, featuring a trio of games with 2 picks. 1995—Didn't get to work in the majors until June 18 relief appearance vs. the Braves, missing the first 2 1/2 months while recuperating from elbow surgery the previous May...made first start on June 22, winning a 3-2 decision at San Diego, working 5.0 innings, his first win in the majors in 57 weeks (May 15, 1994)...still picked off 7 runners during abbreviated campaign. 1994—Was Colorado's opening day starter, working 6.0 innings in a no decision at home vs. the Phillies...he made just 9 starts until undergoing surgery on May 26, when Dr. James Andrews transplanted a ligament from Armando's left wrist into his right elbow, strengthening the region and adding support to the injured area... Reynoso also had his right knee arthroscopically repaired at that time by Dr. Andrews... despite the shortened year, Armando recorded 5 pickoffs. 1993—Though he did not make the 25-man club out of spring training, he ended up Colorado's Pitcher-of-the-Year, falling 1 victory short of the then-expansion record of 13, finishing 12-11...was recalled from Colorado Springs (AAA) on April 30, making Rockies' debut that night in Florida, going the distance in a 6-2 win over the Marlins...he twice fanned a career-best 8 men, each coming in complete games (May 10 and June 26 vs. the Giants)...11 of his 12 wins came after Colorado losses...he was 7-3 in 11 starts at Mile High Stadium...his 8 pickoffs were the most by an N.L. righthander...first major league hit was a home run in Mile High off of SF's Trevor Wilson (May 10)...his second home run was a 3-run shot at Shea off the Mets' Bobby J. Jones on August 28, leading to a 7-5 win. 1992—Spent the majority of the year with Richmond (AAA), finishing second in the International League in ERA, while tying for second in complete games...was promoted to Atlanta in September, earning his lone career big league save on October 3 vs. San Diego...was left unprotected in the off-season and selected in the third round of the expansion draft by Colorado. 1991—Tied for the I.L. lead in shutouts, while earning a spot in the AAA All-Star Game...had his contract purchased by Atlanta on August 8 and won major league debut on August 11 with 6.0 shutout innings vs. Houston, allowing 2 hits...followed with a win in his second start, August 16 at San Diego, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...had 6 pickoffs over a 4-start stretch (August 16-31), 5 of which came in the first inning. 1990—Went 20-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in the Mexican League, featuring 12 complete games and 5 shutouts... included was a 7-inning no hitter vs. Monterrey...Reynoso signed with Atlanta on August 15 and made 4 appearances for Richmond.

PERSONAL

Martin Armando Reynoso (Gutierrez)...he and his wife, Yolanda, have a daughter, Alejandra (11/3/89), and a son, J. Armando (3/16/93)...they split their off-season between their native Mexico and Chandler, where they purchased a home last year, with Armando working out at Bank One Ballpark in the winter...Armando graduated in 1984 from Escuela Secundavia Mista del Estado in his native Jalisco, Mexico...after participating in semi-pro ball in Mexico, he signed as a free agent with Saltillo in 1988, where he was 44-23 with 29 complete games until signing with the Braves in 1990.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 36th round selection in the 1996 June free agent draft...signed by Chris Knabenshue.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Junior managed to participate in only 44 games for El Paso (AA) due to a pair of injuries tied to his left arm... his season didn't begin until May 15, missing the first 6 weeks due to a ligament tear in his left thumb that occurred in spring training and required surgery...once healthy, Spivey hovered near the .250 mark for his first 10 days on the job before hitting a 13-game stretch in which he batted .408 (20-for-49), upping his average from .238 to .330...as his season mark tapered off to near the .300 mark, disaster struck again, as Junior required surgery to repair the hamate bone in his left hand, bringing an abrupt end to his year...while healthy, Spivey showed terrific patience at the plate, recording 36 walks while fanning just 27 times.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998 —Junior combined stops in High Desert (A) and Tulsa (AA) to accumulate an organizational leading 42 stolen bases and 92 walks...he was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .337 with 7 RBI and 12 stolen bases while with the Mavericks, earning a spot in the California League All-Star Game, but a finger sprain prevented his participation...after hitting .281 in 79 games for High Desert, Spivey made the move to AA, playing on loan with Tulsa of the Texas organization...he hit .311 for Tulsa, but was most impressive in the post-season, hitting .342 in 10 playoff games as they won the Texas League title. 1997—Spent the entire season at High Desert, hitting .273 for the California League champs...his best stretch was a 16-game hitting streak from July 29-August 15...after a hitless game ended the 16-gamer, he immediately began a 10-game skein. 1996—First year as a pro, his career started in the Valley with the Phoenix (Rookie) club, ranking second in the league with a .333 mark, while leading the circuit with 11 stolen bases...he earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month for June, then was promoted to Lethbridge, hitting .336 in 31 games.

PERSONAL

Ernest Lee (Junior) Spivey, Jr....he is single and makes his home in Oklahoma City, but spent a majority of last winter in Phoenix, working out with teammates at Bank One Ballpark...Junior graduated in 1993 from Douglass High School, then attended Cowley County (KS) Junior College...upon conclusion of the '98 season in Tulsa, he played in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .127 in 34 games for Scottsdale.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 3, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Russ served the National League champion Braves as their go-to righthanded set-up man, supplying a most impressive second half, allowing 6 earned runs over 29.0 innings (29 appearances), a 1.86 ERA...dating back to July 22, he did not allow an earned run in 24 of his final 26 outings...overall, he limited the opposition a .185 average, surrendering just 31 hits in 168 at bats...he was particularly effective against lefthanded batters, allowing only 10 hits in 65 AB's, a .154 mark, while righties batted .204 (21-for-103)...he recorded a save against Cincinnati on August 23, his first in nearly 2 seasons dating back to September 9, 1997, while hurling for the Astros...his big league season started late due to January back surgery (herniated lumbar disc), working 11 times for Richmond (AAA) on a rehab stint before joining Atlanta on May 17.

POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Russ was near perfect in the post-season for the Braves, totaling 5.1 shutout innings for 5 appearances, with 3 hits, 2 walks and 3 strikeouts...he worked once against the Astros in the Division Series, allowing 2 hits over an inning of work...Springer's lone post-season decision was a win in game #6 of the LCS, as he worked the top of the 11th inning, then benefitted from the bases loaded walk to Andruw Jones that sent the Braves to the World Series...Russ had also pitched a scoreless 12th inning in game #5 at Shea, a contest the Mets won, 4-3 in 15...he appeared twice in the World Series, tossing 2.0 shutout frames in the second game in Turner Field, then recording an out in the finale at Yankee Stadium.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Selected with the third choice in the third round of the expansion draft, Russ was a member of the original Diamondbacks, making 26 relief appearances before a June 23 trade to Atlanta in exchange for lefthander Alan Embree...he had an impressive 1.46 ERA in May (2 earned runs in 12.1 innings), but scuffled with an 8.31 mark in 7 games in June, then was dealt to the Braves...he allowed only 1 earned run over his first 8.0 innings with Atlanta, but was touched up for 8 earnies in his next 5.1 frames before going on the D.L. with bone spurs in his right elbow...Russ had surgery to clean up the injury in October. 1997—Made the transition to full-time reliever, appearing 54 times for the Astros, each time out of the pen...fanned 6 in a 2-inning stint on April 13 at St. Louis...had a career-high 3 saves in 7 chances...finished with 74 K's in 55.1 innings, a 12.3 per 9-inning ratio, second on the Houston staff to Billy Wagner's 14.4...was disabled from June 17-July 10 with a lower back strain. POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He appeared twice against the Braves in the Division Series, allowing a run in 1.2 innings, the tally scoring in the seventh inning of the third game of the series. 1996—Was used primarily out of the pen for Philly, appearing in 51 games, 44 in relief...fanned 73 men in 62.2 innings out of the bullpen...he tied a career-high with 7 K's in a 3.1-inning stint at Cincinnati on June 25...made first start on July 2, a 3-2 win over New York, going 5.0 innings, his first start in the majors since July 24, 1995, while with the Angels...worked 7.0 innings in a win over St. Louis on August 1, his longest outing since an 8-inning stint on July 17, 1993, at Cleveland. 1995—Russ opened the year with the Halos, but he was optioned to Vancouver on May 16 after 7 games, going 1-0 with an 11.70 ERA...was recalled on June 9, working 12 times (6 starts), then was optioned again on July 28, remaining there until an August 15 trade to Philadelphia as the player-to-be-named in the Dave Gallagher deal...made N.L. debut with a 3-inning, 6-strikeout performance on August 20 vs. San Francisco. 1994—Started year with Vancouver, tying for PCL lead in complete games with 4 over 12 starts...was recalled on June 9, going 1-0 with 2 saves and a 2.11 ERA in 13 relief appearances, but was 1-2 with an 8.51 mark in 5 starts. 1993—Opened the year with Vancouver, going 5-4 in 11 games (9 starts), then made first major league start on June 11 vs. Chicago, incurring an 11-6 loss...he posted first major league win on July 10, a 4-2 triumph over the Yankees...lone career complete game was a 3-1 loss at Cleveland on July 17, an 8-inning stint...he was on the disabled list from August 2 through the remainder of the year with a cracked facet joint in his lower back...pitched in the Arizona Fall League. 1992—Opened year with Columbus (AAA), but was recalled by Yankees on April 14, making big league debut 3 days later with 4.0 innings of relief vs. Cleveland...optioned to Columbus on April 28, then recalled on August 22 when Tim Leary was traded...finished third in International League with a 2.69 ERA, and was tabbed the third best prospect in the Yankees' organization by Baseball America. 1991—Led Ft. Lauderdale in starts, strikeouts and innings, earning a spot on the Florida State League All-Star team...was promoted to Albany to finish year. 1990—Opened the year with Tampa, but was promoted to Greensboro just 4 starts into the season. 1989—Made his professional debut with Tampa, going 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA in 6 starts, fanning 34 in 24.0 innings.

PERSONAL

Russell Paul (Russ) Springer...he and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Karlee (12/8/95) and a son, Jake (12/8/98), and make their home in Pollock, LA...the Louisiana native graduated in 1986 from Grant High School in Dry Prong, LA, earning All-District honors, while he was named MVP in the Louisiana State All-Star Game...he then attended LSU, where he was named a 1989 pre-season All-American by Baseball America...pitched 3 seasons for the Tigers, going to the College World Series in Omaha twice...he recorded a win over Miami in the '89 Series, fanning 9 over 8.1 innings...he still holds several LSU pitching records, including most innings pitched in a game, working 10.2 frames in 1988 vs. Kentucky.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Milwaukee Brewers as the fifth choice in the third round of the Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

An early-season injury stymied Kelly's offensive production at the outset, thus spent the majority of the year playing catch-up with his average...on April 9 in Atlanta, the Braves' Ryan Klesko collided with Stinnett on a play at the plate, inflicting a severely bruised quadriceps that kept him out of the starting lineup for 10 games... despite the painful injury, Stinnett was called upon for one of the defining moments for the D'Backs during their division winning season...limping to the plate on April 13 vs. the Dodgers, he picked a terrific time to deliver his first career pinch-hit homer, driving a Dave Mlicki pitch out to left in the 16th inning, a 2-run shot that tied the game and set the stage for a 7-6 Arizona victory...once healthy, Kelly worked on getting his stroke back, digging out from a .141 mark as late as May 26 to hit safely in 9 of his next 10 games at a .389 clip (14-for-36)... included was a 3-hit, 4-RBI affair in Montreal on May 31, featuring a 2-run homer in the 10th inning to snap a 5-5 tie and stake the D'Backs to an eventual 8-5 win...Stinnett owns the first 2-homer game in Safeco Field history in Seattle on July 19, the first of his career...Kelly's home runs came in spurts during the year, tying a club record with roundtrippers in 3 straight games from May 18-21...he also went deep 5 times over a 9-game stretch (July 17-28), which included his second 4-RBI game of the year on July 28 in San Diego...another defining moment for the D'Backs also involved Stinnett, but this time it was his head for the game that snatched a win from the jaws of defeat...with 2 outs and nobody aboard in the ninth inning on September 5 in Atlanta, Kelly appeared to have been struck out by John Rocker, but the ball was not caught cleanly, and the Arizona catcher took off for first base...when the dust settled he was at second base as the throw from Eddie Perez ended up in rightfield, extending the ninth inning... Kelly was run for by Dante Powell, and Tony Womack followed immediately with a game-tying single, then the D'Backs scored 2 more runs for a 7-5 miracle win...Stinnett and Damian Miller combined to hit 25 home runs and drive in 88 in their dual roles behind the plate...Kelly closed the year by hitting safely in his last 6 games at a .391 clip (9-for-23), which included a solo homer in the division clincher in San Francisco... behind the plate, he nabbed 26% of the potential base thieves during the year (21-for-80).

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Due to an injury to Damian Miller, Kelly caught every inning of post-season play for the Diamondbacks, going 2-for-14 (.143) with a double and run scored...he singled in Arizona's game #2 victory over the Mets, then doubled and scored in game #3 at Shea.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Kelly's year began as the #2 catcher, getting most of his early work vs. lefthanded starters, but an injury to Jorge Fabregas signaled more playing time...his extra duty resulted in an inaugural year club record 13-game hitting streak (April 28-May 21), in which he batted .413 (19-for-46) with 3 homers and 7 RBI...he took over for Fabregas, who sprained an ankle on May 11, and in his first at bat went deep off of eventual N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year Kerry Wood...Kelly followed the next night with a 3-run shot off of Terry Adams...he tossed out 30% of the potential base thieves (19-for-63). 1997—Kelly opened the year in AAA, spending 2 1/2 months with Tucson, hitting .321...he had a pair of stints with the Brewers, totaling 30 games...was placed on 15-day disabled list on July 26 with an intercostal strain in his left side, keeping him out of action until Sept. 2. 1996—Acquired by the Brewers from the Mets on January 17 in exchange for Cory Lidle...opened the year on the big league roster, but lasted less than a week, and was optioned on April 5...recalled by Milwaukee on June 20, but was up only 4 days without appearing in a game...recalled again on August 11 and stuck with the Brewers for the remainder of the season...started American League career 0-for-16 before getting first hit on August 30 off of the Twins' Rich Robertson...hit .287 with 27 home runs for New Orleans, earning spot in AAA All-Star Game. 1995—Started 59 games behind the plate for the Mets, hitting .219...homered in successive starts on May 17 at Houston and May 21 at Philly. 1994—Spent the entire season with the Mets after being selected from Cleveland in the Rule 5 draft the previous December...made 41 starts for New York, with his big league debut coming on April 5 at Chicago, collecting initial major league hit, a 2-run double off of Shawn Boskie in the third inning...hit first big league homer on May 5 in Busch Stadium off of the Cards' Allen Watson...had a memorable series vs. the Rockies in Mile High Stadium on July 6-7, going 4-for-5 with 3 runs scored the first night, then was 3-for-4 with 3 more tallies and 3 RBI the next game. 1993—First year of AAA, hit .274 in 98 games with Charlotte. 1992—Earned Eastern League Player-of-the-Week honors on April 19-25, spending the entire season with Canton-Akron (AA). 1991—Led Columbus (A) in home runs with 14. 1990—First year as a pro, hit .240 in 60 games for Watertown (A), after signing as Cleveland's 11th choice in the June draft of '89.

PERSONAL

Kelly Lee Stinnett...he and his wife, Gina, entered spring training expecting their third child to join sons, Austin (3/20/95), and Alex (11/11/98)...the Stinnett's make their year-round home in the Valley...Kelly graduated from Lawton (OK) High School in 1988 earning All-State honors in baseball and football...he was an All-State quarterback on the Class 5A State Champion his senior year...then attended Seminole (OK) Junior College, where he led all JUCO's in home runs (30) and RBI (124) as a freshman, winning All-Conference and All-Region honors...hit .399 with 22 homers and 97 RBI as a sophomore before signing with the Indians...his 1990 club finished 3rd in the Junior College World Series, while Kelly pulled in National Junior College Player-of-the-Year honors and was named first team All-American...he was part of the "all catchers" portion of Winter Tour 2000, joining teammate Damian Miller and catching coach Glenn Sherlock on a tour through the state.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 20, 1998.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Regardless of what had occurred in Todd's career prior to the '99 campaign, nothing could have prepared him for his first season in an Arizona uniform...the veteran hurler opened and closed the year in the starting rotation, including Arizona's only win in post-season play, but what took place in between was a true test of fortitude...Stott was off to a 4-1 start as a Diamondback and appeared to be cruising to his fifth win on May 17, leading the Giants by a 6-1 count when he took the mound for the fifth inning...what happened next was the nightmare of every pitcher, leaving the game with what would be later diagnosed as a partial tear of the right rotator cuff...3 days shy of his 34th birthday, Todd had to make the decision of his life, either have the shoulder surgically repaired with hopes of coming back in 6 months to a year, or rehab around the injury, add body strength and attempt to come back during the season...fortunately for himself and the D'Backs, he chose the latter...an intense program was designed by Arizona's medical team and supervised by trainers Paul Lessard and Dave Edwards, putting Stott through a rigorous rehab to strengthen the muscles around the injury, as well as increase his leg strength, while adding 15 pounds of muscle to his frame...he was not allowed to touch a ball for 6 weeks, limited strictly to lifting and range of motion exercises...just prior to the All-Star break, Todd was finally allowed to test the arm with a throwing program that if all went well, would have him pitching competitively in August... all went well, and Stott returned to action in a Rookie League game at Tucson on August 4, and after 3 starts allowing a run over 17.0 innings, he was deemed ready to return to the majors...the return took place in Pittsburgh on August 20, and had it not been for Brian Giles, it could have been a success, but the Buc outfielder spoiled the festivities with a pair of homers in a 5-4 Pirate victory...that was the only negative on an otherwise positive night, as Stott experienced no ill effects from his shoulder injury and found himself back where the season began, in the starting rotation...the final hurdle was returning to the win column, which took place in his second start after the rehab, a 7-2 decision in Florida on August 25, working 7.0 innings, allowing 5 hits and 2 runs...after a pair of no decisions, he provided his best performance of the year, pre or post-injury, shutting out the Phillies over 6.0 frames on Sept. 12 in Bank One Ballpark, allowing 5 hits while tying a season-high with 6 K's in a 5-0 win...his pre-injury work started with a pair of frustrating no decisions, allowing just 3 earned runs over 15.1 innings (1.76 ERA) during the first road trip with starts in Los Angeles and Atlanta, both games ending up 3-2 Arizona losses...he was particularly sharp in Turner Field on April 11, blanking the Braves for 7.0 innings before allowing the tying run in the eighth...Todd finally logged his first win with Arizona on April 16, but it wasn't without incident, as his evening was cut short after 5.2 innings when a disgruntled Charlie Hayes decided to charge Stott from second base, causing the benches to empty and the ejections of both parties...all told, after Arizona was defeated in Stott's first 2 starts, the club went 12-3 in his last 15 starts.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Todd's perseverance was rewarded in the second game of the series with the Mets, working 6.2 strong innings of a 7-1 win, the only victory Arizona enjoyed...he scattered a run on 4 hits, with 5 walks and 6 strikeouts, allowing the lone tally in the third inning, trailing early, but the offense scored 3 times in the bottom of the frame then tacked on more runs from there...the start was his 15th career post-season appearance, ninth start, upping his overall record to 3-5 .

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998 —Todd joined current mound-mate Randy Johnson as a pair of the marquee hurlers who changed uniforms at the trade deadline...while Johnson was dealt from Seattle to Houston, Stottlemyre left St. Louis and ended up in a pennant race, working the final 2 months with Texas...he and shortstop Royce Clayton were swapped for pitcher Darren Oliver, infielder Fernando Tatis and a player to be named (Mark Little)...Todd combined his stops for a 14-13 ledger and 3.74 ERA, going 9-9 with the Cardinals and 5-4 for the playoff bound Rangers...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for June 22-28, going 2-0 with a 1.06 ERA, allowing 2 earned runs in 17.0 innings, with 15 K's...he averaged 8.5 K's per 9-innings while with Texas, fanning 57 in 60.1 innings...the son of former big league pitcher and current Yankees' coach Mel Stottlemyre, Todd was a 16-5 winner in Yankee Stadium on August 15, the first time that he worked a major league game with his father in either dugout...he fanned 10 or more on 3 occasions, with a season-high of 13 K's on May 11 vs. Milwaukee. 1998 POST-SEASON: Todd was Texas' game #1 starter in the Division Series against New York, and lost a 2-0 decision in Yankee Stadium, going the distance (8.0 innings), allowing 2 runs on 6 hits, with 4 walks and 8 K's...the Yanks scored both of their runs in the second, which was all David Wells needed, combining with Mariano Rivera on the 5-hit shutout. 1997—Todd tied Matt Morris for the Redbird lead with 12 wins, despite missing the final month of the season with shoulder fatigue...he was 4-5 through June 15, then won 7 of his next 9 decisions from June 21-August 2...he posted 100th career victory on May 25 at San Francisco, joining Mel as the first father-son tandem to reach the century mark...best single-game performance was July 28 vs. Houston, working 8.0 shutout innings, while doubling in the deciding run in the 8th of a 2-1 victory...at the plate, he had 4 doubles and a triple, and fashioned a 5-game hitting streak from June 21-July 13. 1996—Had a successful first test as a National Leaguer, joining the Cardinals in January as part of a 4-player trade with Oakland, working a career-high 223.1 innings, while posting 14 wins for the second straight year...had a season-high 13 K's in a 6-0 complete game win on May 15 at Florida...he recorded career-K #1,000 on August 2 at Shea...a 12-3 win over Houston on Sept. 3 vaulted Todd and Mel ahead of the Trout twosome (Dizzy & Steve) for most wins by a father/son duo (259)... offensively, he swiped a base on June 20 at Montreal, the first stolen base by a Redbird pitcher since Bob Forsch (1988)...Todd had 3 hits on June 30 vs. Pittsburgh, the first 3-hit game by a Cardinal hurler since Scott Terry (1988). 1996 POST-SEASON: Stott was the Cards' only multiple-game winner in the post-season, going 2-1 in 4 outings (3 starts)... he won for the first time in 10 post-season tries by winning the Division Series opener against San Diego on October 1, working 6.2 frames of a 3-1 win...he followed that with a victory on October 10 in the second game of the LCS at Atlanta, fanning 8 over 6.0 innings, an 8-3 triumph. 1995—Signing as a free agent on April 11, his only year with Oakland, Todd's 205 strikeouts ranked second in the A.L. (behind Randy Johnson), third in baseball...his season strikeout total and 7 double-digit "K" games were second only to Vida Blue's 301-K and 8 double digit strikeout games in Athletics' history...he set personal bests with a 10-inning, 15-K game, featuring 7 strikeouts in last 3.1 innings, in no decision vs. Kansas City on June 16. 1994—Opened the year in Toronto's bullpen going 2-0 with a save and 2.19 ERA in 7 appearances...earned only professional save on April 5 vs. the White Sox...returned to starting on April 26 with win over Kansas City...fired fourth career shutout with a 4-hitter vs. California on May 29...departed Toronto ranking in their top 5 in wins (59), starts (175), shutouts (4) and strikeouts (662). 1993—Ranked fourth in the A.L. in fewest homers allowed with 11 in 176.2 innings...was on the disabled list from May 23-June 13 with pulled lat muscle. 1993 POST-SEASON: Made the start in the fourth game of the LCS vs. Chicago, but took 7-4 loss...started fourth game of World Series vs. Philly, but was injured running the bases in second inning. 1992—Had a career-high 6 complete games, tying for top spot on Toronto staff...tossed first professional shutout on April 29 vs. California...went on the D.L. on June 20 with right knee injury and did not make another start until July 20...tossed second shutout with a career-low 1-hitter on August 26 at Chicago, a 9-0 win, carrying a no-no into the ninth before Dan Pasqua doubled with 1 out...was suspended by A.L. for Sept. 23-27, missing final start. 1992 POST-SEASON: He worked 3.2 innings in fourth game of LCS vs. Oakland, then made 4 relief appearances against the Braves in the World Series, fanning 4 in 3.2 shutout innings. 1991—Set a professional best with 15 wins, his first winning season in the majors...did not miss a start, making a career-high 34...went 5-0 through 7 starts to open the year, and 8-2 through first 14 starts. 1991 POST-SEASON: He started and lost the fourth game of the LCS vs. Minnesota, a 9-3 setback. 1990—First full major league season, worked exclusively as a starter, making 33 appearances, topping the Jays' staff with 4 complete games...was the youngest opening day starter in franchise history, taking the ball at 24 years old, losing a 4-2 decision vs. Texas. 1989—Opened the year in Toronto's pen, making 7 relief appearances, including a team-high 6-inning stint on April 18...was outrighted to Syracuse on May 15...returned to Jays on June 30 and joined the starting rotation for the remainder of the year, winning 7 of 8 decisions from July 6-Sept. 6, including 5 in a row. 1989 POST-SEASON: He made first post-season appearance in second game of ALCS vs. Oakland, losing a 6-3 decision. 1988—Made big league club out of spring training for first time, debuting with 1.2 shutout innings of relief on April 6 at Kansas City...first start was a 4-2 loss at Minnesota on April 10...earned first major league win on May 3 at Seattle, retiring the first 19 men he faced...lost 6 straight decisions at mid-season and was outrighted to Syracuse on July 27. 1987—Earned team MVP honors at Syracuse (AAA), just his second pro season, leading the league in starts (34), while ranking second in strikeouts and innings. 1986—Honored as the California League's top prospect by Baseball America, going 9-4 with a 2.43 ERA in 17 starts for Ventura (A), his first pro test...was selected TOPPS Player-of-the-Month for May and the Toronto organization's Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...was promoted on June 21 to Knoxville (AA), finishing third on the staff with 8 wins in just half a season.

PERSONAL

Todd Vernon Stottlemyre...he and his wife, Sheri, and daughter, Rachel (10/12/95), have relocated from Florida to the Valley, as Todd spent the winter in the weight room rehabing his damaged shoulder...he graduated in 1982 from Davis High School in Yakima, WA, going 10-0 with a 0.72 ERA as a senior...he then attended the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, going 10-4 in his freshman year...Todd sat out his sophomore season with a tender right elbow, enrolling in Yakima Valley Community College...he withdrew from UNLV during his junior year to be eligible for the January, 1985, draft, and was selected by St. Louis but chose not to sign...he was then drafted in the secondary phase of the '85 June draft by Toronto and inked his first pro contract...he is the son of former Yankee great and current pitching coach Mel Stottlemyre...the Stottlemyres are the only father-son combination in major league history to each record 100 or more wins, and their combined total of 293 (Mel-164, Todd-129) are the most ever by a father and son...the Stottlemyres, Trouts and Bagbys (Jim & Jim Jr.) are the only 3 father/son combinations to take part in post-season play...Todd has been a huge contributor to the Leukemia Society and is donating $1 million over the term of his contract earmarked for Diamondbacks Charities and the Valley of the Sun United Way...he also participated in a charity golf tournament in Las Vegas in January, benefitting the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Greg was signed to strengthen the set-up roll from the left side and he delivered...it's no coincidence that as Arizona's record improved in the second half, so did Swindell's numbers, saving his best work for the stretch run...after posting a 5.52 ERA through his first 15 appearances (9 earned runs in 14.2 innings), he surrendered only 9 earned runs for the remainder of the season, spanning 48 outings and 50.0 innings, a 1.62 ERA..."Zeke" missed the last 2 weeks of June with a rib cage injury, then was scored upon in just 4 of 35 appearances after coming off the D.L., allowing home runs in each of those 4 outings...Greg had a shutout streak from August 4-September 4, stretching 13.1 scoreless innings with 6 hits and 13 strikeouts...included was a 3.1-inning relief stint in Chicago on August 10, where he also set a team bullpen mark with 5 K's, earning a 3-1 victory...after allowing a run on Sept. 7 in Milwaukee, Swindell fired another 5.2 shutout frames in succession, earning a pair of wins...both victories occurred in Bank One Ballpark, working 0.2 of an inning vs. Pittsburgh on Sept. 14, a 2-1 triumph, and just 4 days later tossing an inning against the Marlins, then benefitting from a Luis Gonzalez homer that won the affair in the 10th...he wasn't quite as lucky the next day, as the Fish hit a pair of eighth inning home runs off of Greg, accounting for 3 runs and his lone blown save of the year...he recovered to close the year with 5 consecutive scoreless outings, giving up just 1 hit over 3.1 innings, ending it by recording the final out in the record setting 100th win on October 3...his lone save took place on April 19 in B.O.B., retiring the only Phillie he faced to preserve a 3-2 win, his first-ever National League save and the fourth career...he was a winner in San Diego on April 25, retiring the only man he faced in the 10th, before the D'Backs won the affair on a Jay Bell 2-run homer in the 11th, Swindell's first National League win since 1995 when he was with Houston...of the 18 earned runs he allowed, 11 were a direct result of the 8 home runs he surrendered.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Greg appeared in the last 3 games of the series with Mets, totaling 3.1 innings allowing a hit and 3 walks (1 intentional), with a strikeout...he finished up Arizona's lone win, working the final 2.0 frames, allowing a hit, while fanning a man, retiring 6 of the 7 he faced...he tossed an inning in game #3 at Shea, walking a pair of men, then recorded an out in game #4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Greg's year began with Minnesota, his second straight with the Twins, but when the July 31 trade deadline arrived, he joined a playoff race with the Red Sox...a starter for the first 10 years of his big league career, he worked exclusively in relief for the first time, appearing in a career-high 81 games, third most in the A.L.... Swindell left stranded 90% of the runners he inherited, with only 5 of the 48 crossing the plate (27 of 30 with Minnesota and 16 of 18 with Boston)...after a tough April allowing 8 earned runs in 12.1 innings (5.84 ERA), he gave up only 7 earnies over the next 2 months, a 1.59 ERA, spanning 28 games and 39.2 innings...he was most impressive during a 17-game stretch from May 8-June 10, allowing 2 earned runs in 23.2 innings, a 0.76 ERA...he was dealt to the BoSox on July 31 and allowed 4 earned runs in his first 5 outings, spanning 4.0 innings (9.00 ERA), then gave up only 5 earned tallies over his final 24 appearances, totaling 19.1 frames (2.33 ERA). POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: After more than 12 years and 4 different franchises, Greg got his first shot at pitching in the post-season, working 1.1 shutout inning in the second game of the Division Series against Cleveland, the club he originally signed with in 1986. 1997—Made 65 appearances, with his lone starting assignment on May 10 vs. Toronto, still his last start...posted first career save on Sept. 20 against Milwaukee. 1996—Started his fourth consecutive year with the Astros, but was slowed by a groin injury that disabled him from April 20-May 22... Greg was released on June 3 and signed as a free agent with Cleveland on June 15...he was a winner on June 18 vs. the Red Sox, his first triumph in a Cleveland uniform since Sept. 21, 1991 vs. Baltimore...was outrighted on Sept. 6, then inked a contract with Minnesota. 1995—The majority of his work came as a starter, going to the hill 33 times, 26 in the starting role...tossed the 12th shutout of his career on June 26 vs. St. Louis...posted 100th career victory on August 29 at Atlanta, working a pair of hitless innings of relief. 1994—Opened the year by winning 5 of his first 6 decisions, including a stretch of 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings from April 8-19. 1993—Tied for sixth in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings at 1.89...opened year going 4-1 in April with a 3.08 ERA...was disabled with a left shoulder strain from July 6-25...recorded 1,000th career strikeout, fanning Jim Deshaies on Sept. 20...finished year with 11th career shutout on October 1 in Cincinnati. 1992—Was part of an in-state trade, joining the Reds from Cleveland in exchange for pitchers Jack Armstrong, Scott Scudder and Joe Turek...made National League debut on April 9 in Houston, but didn't post first N.L. victory until April 25 at San Diego...finished ninth in the N.L. with a 2.70 ERA...had stint on disabled list (August 23-Sept. 7) with stress fracture in left rib cage...ranked third in the N.L. in fewest walks per 9-innings (1.73)...signed as a free agent with Houston on December 4. 1991—The last of 6 straight seasons with the Indians, led the staff in innings pitched, strikeouts and complete games...his 7 CG's were second to career-high 12 he recorded in 1988...fanned a season-high 12 on April 24 vs. K.C....he tied a career-high with a 10-inning performance on June 11 vs. Toronto...walked only 31 men in 238.0 innings, a 1.17 walks per-9 inning ratio...had a deceptive 9-16 ledger as the Tribe averaged only 3.6 runs in his 33 starts. 1990—Established a career best in starts, leading the Cleveland staff in that department as well as innings and strikeouts...snapped an 11-start drought with 8.1 innings in a win over California on July 1, a victory that kicked off a 4-game winning streak...he parlayed that into an 8-2 stretch from July 22-August 22. 1989—Made his first opening day start on April 3 vs. Milwaukee...tied a career-high with a 6-game winning streak from May 28-June 24, and through July 20 was victorious in 9 of 10 decisions...tied a career-low with a 2-hitter on June 7 vs. California, his third career...was named to the A.L. All-Star team and worked 1.2 innings allowing 2 hits and fanning 3 in Anaheim Stadium...disabled from July 26-August 30 with a left elbow ligament strain...gave up 3 earned runs or less in 20 of his 28 starts. 1988—Had a career-year, winning 18 games, including 12 complete games, leading the Cleveland staff in virtually every category...won 10 of his first 11 decisions from April 6-May 2, including a season-opening 6-game winning streak...tossed back-to-back complete games on April 6 at Texas and April 11 vs. Baltimore, earning A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors by posting a 0.95 ERA... established a career-high with a 10-inning stint on April 16 at Baltimore, blanking the Orioles...carried a no-hitter into the seventh on May 19 vs. Chicago, and wound up with 2-hit shutout...the Tribe scored only 28 runs in his 14 losses...was second in the A.L. in walks per 9-innings (1.67). 1987—Tossed his first career shutout, 3-0 on April 19 at Baltimore, a 6-hitter...made first professional relief appearance on April 15 at New York, retiring only man he faced...fanned a career-high 15 in 4-2 win vs. Kansas City on May 10...he suffered a broken middle finger on his right hand when hit by a Wade Boggs line drive on May 26 at Boston, but did not miss a start...had season cut short with a sore left elbow, sidelining him after July 2. 1986—Signed with Cleveland as the second overall pick in the June draft, and began pro career with Waterloo, going 2-1 with a 1.00 ERA in 3 starts, fanning 25 in 18.0 innings...was promoted to the majors on August 21, making big league debut vs. Boston...had a season-high 9 K's on Sept. 1 at Toronto...started a 4-game winning streak with first major league win on Sept. 6 at Milwaukee...final win in streak was Sept. 23 at California, his first career complete game.

PERSONAL

Forest Gregory (Greg) Swindell...he and his wife, Sarah, and daughters, Hayley (8/22/89), Brenna (10/27/94) and Sophia (4/8/96), make their home in Phoenix...he was a 1983 graduate of Sharpstown (TX) High School, earning All-State honors in baseball for both his junior and senior seasons...Greg then attended the University of Texas, where he was a combined 43-8 with a 1.92 ERA, posting 501 K's in 440.0 collegiate innings... he set Longhorn records with 19 wins (18 in a row), 204 strikeouts and 172 innings in 1985...he was selected Freshman of the Year in 1984 and was the youngest member of the 1984 U.S. Olympic team...Swindell earned Pitcher-of-the-Year honors in 1985, and All-American recognition in each of his 3 seasons at Texas...other honors included the All-Time College All-Star Team by Baseball America, and he was the first 3-time finalist for the U.S.B.F. Golden Spikes Award, honoring the nation's best amateur player...he was also selected by The Sporting News as the top southpaw collegiate pitcher in 1985 and 1986.

Arizona Diamondbacks

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for Travis Fryman and Tom Martin, December 2, 1997 .

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

The term "speak softly and carry a big stick" pertains to Arizona's quiet leader, Matt Williams, who might not be the most vocal of players, but his message was heard loud and clear in 1999...as the D'Backs made their run for a division title, he took full advantage of the table setters in front of him to have a monster year at the plate, finishing third in the National League MVP balloting, featuring a pair of first place votes...he was voted by the fans to start at third base in the All-Star Game in Boston, his fifth appearance at the Midsummer Classic, fourth time he'd been selected by the fans...he was an easy choice for the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA, earning Diamondback Player-of-the-Year honors...the 13-year vet destroyed his previous single-season RBI best with 142, 20 more than his league leading total from 1990 with the Giants...he also set personal bests in average (.303), hits (190) and doubles (37)...his 35 homers, the third best power season of his career, came at opportune times, as 16 of the blasts gave Arizona a lead, while 6 others tied contests...there were teammates aboard for 23 of his 35 home runs, accounting for 69 RBI, 49% of his season RBI total...he had 8 games of at least 4 RBI, while adding 2 more multi-homer games, upping his career total to 30...he went deep twice on May 2 in Milwaukee and August 16 in Bank One Ballpark vs. the Cubs...Matty was hot from the outset, winning league Player-of-the-Month honors for April, batting .357 with 8 homers and 25 RBI...he virtually locked up the award through the first 18 games, batting .385 (30-for-78) with 15 runs scored, 8 doubles, 7 homers and 21 RBI...included was his first of 2 Player-of-the-Week honors, winning for April 19-25 by batting .550 (11-for-20) with 4 homers and 11 RBI (also June 7-13)...his first homer on April 6 in Dodger Stadium was the 300th of his career...Williams ended the season with 334 career home runs, good for 67th all-time, 13th among active players...consistency was his trademark, achieving the .300 mark on the fourth day of the season and dipping below that level once, after going 3 games without a hit to open September, but recovering with a 7-game hitting streak, batting .452 (14-for-31) with 3 homers and 10 RBI...that streak began with a 3-run homer off Tom Glavine in a 7-5 win at Atlanta on Sept. 5, then was followed the next night in Milwaukee with his second grand slam of the year, ninth career, staking the D'Backs to a win...he closed the season by hitting safely in 17 of the last 20 games at a .329 clip (28-for-85) with 22 RBI...while some players put together hitting streaks, Matt chose to assemble RBI streaks, twice knocking in at least 1 run in 6 consecutive games and recording at least 1 RBI in 5 straight once...he was the first of 4 D'Backs to crack the century mark in RBI, and when teammates Jay Bell, Luis Gonzalez and Steve Finley achieved the mark, Arizona had the seventh club in N.L. history with a quartet of 100 RBI...the next-to-last weekend of the regular season was memorable for Matty, who returned to "The Stick" for a final time, getting 2 hits in the first game of the series, the night Arizona clinched its Western Division crown, then after a well deserved day off, he was honored in pre-game ceremonies as a member of the all-time San Francisco Giant starting lineup...his last game ever at Candlestick witnessed a double and run scored in his final plate appearance, as the D'Backs swept the 3-game set...Williams recorded his 1,500th career hit on July 15 at Texas, and just 12 days later posted his 1,000th career RBI with a double in San Diego...defensively, Matt tied a full-season career low with 10 errors, matching his miscue total from 1995 with the Giants...he was guilty of just 3 errors in his final 74 games.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt hit .375 in the 4 games against the Mets, going hitless in the series opener, then finishing on a 6-for-12 run...he had 3 hits, including a double and 3 runs scored in Arizona's lone win in the second game of the series, then added a pair of hits in game #3 at Shea...Williams is now a .280 lifetime hitter in post-season play (33-for-118), spanning 31 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

The 1999 season marked the 10th consecutive year that Matt hit at least 20 home runs, giving him exactly 300 roundtrippers during the decade of the 90's...he was one of 11 players who hit 300 home runs during the 20th century's final decade, joining Mark McGwire (405), Ken Griffey Jr. (382), Barry Bonds (361), Albert Belle (351), Juan Gonzalez (339), Sammy Sosa (332), Rafael Palmeiro (328), Jose Canseco (303), Frank Thomas (301) and Fred McGriff (300)...prior to the 90's there were only 12 players in history to hit at least 300 homers in a decade...he owns 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves and 4 Silver Slugger Awards...his San Francisco career ended as the fourth most prolific home run hitter in club history (247) and 10th in RBI (732).

1998 —Matt persevered through a pair of injuries to land his ninth consecutive 20-homer campaign...he homered in 3 straight games on April 14-16 in St. Louis, beginning the streak with his sixth career grand slam, a shot off of Kent Mercker...he had a pair of home runs on April 25 at Florida, the 28th multi-homer game of his career...he was hitting .309 on May 2, before suffering an injury to his left hand that hampered him throughout the season...after returning to action, he hammered his second slam of the year and seventh career, a fifth inning shot on May 20 at Florida off of Andy Larkin...the injury bug bit again in early July, fouling a ball off his left foot on July 3 in Houston, and though he continued to play on the tender foot for 2 weeks, he was eventually diagnosed with a stress fracture and placed on the 15-day D.L....he returned to action on August 3 in Chicago, and as luck would have it, he was hit on the right hand by a pitch in his first game back, forcing him to miss 4 more games...he finished '98 with 11 errors, though he did not commit a miscue in his final 35 games. 1997—Only year as an American Leaguer, Matt was part of a 6-player deal on November 13, 1996, and wound up participating in his second World Series...earned his fourth Silver Slugger Award and was also rewarded for his steady defensive play with his fourth Rawlings Gold Glove, first since 1994 with the Giants...led the Tribe with 105 RBI...hit 3 homers in a game for first time in major league career on April 25 at Milwaukee...followed the next night with more 2 home runs vs. the Brewers, tying the big league standard with 5 in 2 games, the 20th time in major league annals, third by an Indian (Joe Carter-1989 and Albert Belle-1995)...all totaled, he had 6 multi-homer games on the year, 5 of the 2-homer variety...a 2-homer game on June 28 game at New York also tied career bests with 4 hits and 6 RBI...had another 6-RBI game on August 27 at Anaheim, collecting all 6 RBI in the fourth inning to equal a major league record (a 3-run homer and 3-run double off of Allen Watson), Williams' fourth career 6-RBI game...second half of season included a career-high 24-game hitting streak (August 13-Sept. 8), the eighth longest streak in Cleveland history...established a personal single-season best with 12 thefts, featuring his first career multi-steal game on June 8 at Boston, pilfering 3 bags...committed 12 errors in 402 total chances (.970 fielding pct.), second among A.L. third basemen...hit just 7 of his 32 home runs in Jacobs Field, while his 25 road homers were 1 shy of Albert Belle's club record of 26 in 1996. 1997 POST-SEASON: Hit safely in 14 of the 18 games he played in during the post-season, including a 7-game hitting streak that began in the second game of the Division Series and ran through the third game of the LCS...also hit safely in the first 6 games of the World Series...had a hit in each of the last 4 games of the New York series, including a home run in the second game off of losing pitcher Andy Pettitte... he hit an overall .217 in the LCS (5-for-23), but started the series vs. the Orioles 4-for-12...he had an outstanding Fall Classic, going 10-for-26 (.385) in the 7 games against the Marlins, with a homer and 3 RBI...hit safely in first 6 games of the series, going 10-for-24 (.417)...he homered in game #4, driving in a pair in the 10-3 win...also walked 7 times during the series, including 3 in game #7. 1996—Injury shortened campaign for second straight year, playing in just 105 games due to right shoulder that eventually required surgery...became the first San Francisco Giant to start 8 straight opening days, on April 1 in Atlanta...collected his 1,000th major league hit on April 26 off of Florida's Kevin Brown...originally damaged shoulder on July 16 in Colorado attempting to break up a double play in a collision with Walt Weiss...moved across to first base the following inning, then started 12 of the next 15 games at first before going on the D.L. on August 5...had the shoulder scoped on August 17 by Dr. Warren King in San Francisco, with the procedure revealing slight fraying of the labrum, bursa scarring and rotator cuff inflammation...was voted the National League's starting third baseman in the All-Star Game, but was unable to play due to a severely bruised left elbow after being hit by a pitch in San Diego on July 6. 1995—Hit .336 with 23 homers and 65 RBI, but was limited to just 76 games after fracturing the second metatarsal bone in his right foot on a foul tip off a Paul Quantrill pitch on June 3 vs. Philly... Williams singled later in the game, but was removed after running to second base on a subsequent single, and placed on the D.L....injury required surgery by Dr. King and Dr. Gordon Campbell, who inserted pins in the displaced fracture...missed 68 games with the injury, with Giants going 28-40 in his absence, dropping 8.0 games in the standings...at the time of the injury, he was leading the league in avg. (.381), homers (13), RBI (35) and hits (50)...was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .405 (45-for-111) with 12 homers and 31 RBI...was elected to start All-Star Game in Arlington, TX, but unable to play due to the injury...hit fifth career grand slam, first since 1990, taking Cubs' Frank Castillo deep on Sept. 9 in Wrigley. 1994—Led the majors with a career-best 43 home runs in the strike-shortened 115-game season, setting an all-time franchise record (NY and SF) for homers by a third baseman...at the time of the strike he was on pace to tie Roger Maris' then single-season major league record of 61...voted the starting third baseman on the N.L. All-Star team, first time elected, second game... he finished second in the MVP balloting behind Jeff Bagwell, while earning a spot on The Sporting News, Associated Press and Baseball America Post-Season All-Star teams...earned third Rawlings Gold Glove, while also winning Silver Slugger Award...had more extra-base hits (62) than singles (57)...40 homers through July 31 set then N.L. record, surpassing previous mark of 36 by Johnny Bench, Willie Mays, Willie Stargell and Mike Schmidt...also set N.L. mark with 33 home runs prior to All-Star break...hit career HR #200 off of Cincy's Erik Hanson on August 1. 1993—Rebounded from sub-par '92 season to finish second in N.L. in total bases (325), second in extra-base hits (75), third in homers (38), third in slugging (.561), fifth in RBI (110) and sixth in runs (105), finishing sixth in MVP vote and earning the UPI Comeback Player-of-the-Year award...was also named the top third baseman in the majors by Associated Press...season mark of .294 was a 67-point increase over '92 season, the biggest gain in the N.L....teamed with Barry Bonds (46 HR) to produce SF's first 40/30 homer tandem since Bobby Bonds and Willie McCovey in 1969...earned second Rawlings Gold Glove, leading all N.L. third basemen with .970 pct....was on the D.L. from June 28-July 14 with strained abdominal muscle. 1992—Scuffled through .227 season, second lowest in the N.L. among title-qualifiers (Tim Wallach hit .223)...hit a pair of homers on May 13 in Philadelphia, then had the longest home run drought of career, 128 AB's from May 22-July 7. 1991—Ranked second in the N.L. in home runs (34), fourth in total bases (294) and 10th in RBI (98)...hit 33 home runs as the third baseman, the most ever by a Giant third sacker (also played 4 games at shortstop)...earned first Rawlings Gold Glove, joining Jim Davenport as only Giant 3B to win award...drove in runs in 10 consecutive games (August 27-Sept. 6)...hit career homer #100 off Darryl Kile on October 1. 1990—His 122 RBI were most ever by a Giant third baseman, breaking Mel Ott's mark of 116 in 1938. 1989—Opened the year as the Giants' third baseman and second career grand slam on April 9 in Cincy off of Danny Jackson...was hitting .130 (7-for-54) on May 1 and was optioned to Phoenix...set LCS 5-game record for RBI with 9, featuring a home run and 4 RBI in game #4... homered off Dave Stewart in game #3 of the World Series vs. Oakland. 1988—Had a pair of stints with the Giants, recalled from Phoenix for the first time on June 2 and started 10 games at short in place of the injured Jose Uribe...hit 3 homers and drove in 9, including first career grand slam on June 4 off Houston's Nolan Ryan...had second career 2-homer game on Sept. 24 at L.A....while with Phoenix, tied a 25-year old PCL record with 4 homers on May 25 vs. Albuquerque. 1987—Assigned to Phoenix, but had contract purchased on April 11 and had first major league hit that day off Dodgers' Orel Hershiser...hit first big league homer in Candlestick Park on April 19 off Atlanta's Jeff Dedmon... was the starting shortstop when Giants set major league record for most double plays in 3 games, (13) and 4 games (17), on April 24-27 in Atlanta...replaced Joel Youngblood (broken wrist) on the LCS roster vs. St. Louis but did not play. 1986—Signed with Giants in June after being the third overall pick in the June draft and reported to Everett (Rookie)...knocked in 10 runs in 4 games before earning quick promotion to Clinton (A).

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player-to-be-named (Jason Boyd), February 26, 1999.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

After the inaugural season ended, the Arizona front office immediately went to work filling the holes that led to a 97-loss campaign...wintertime free agent signings and trades strengthened the D'Backs, but it was a couple of weeks into spring training before the leadoff issue was settled with the acquisition of Tony from Pittsburgh on February 26...he provided exactly what the Diamondbacks were in search of, leading the majors in stolen bases with 72, and the third consecutive year he's topped the National League...he is the first player to lead the N.L. in thefts for at least 3 straight seasons since Vince Coleman (1985-90)...his 72 thefts were just 1 shy of the entire team total from the inaugural year, and 50 more than Devon White's team leading 22...the year did not start as smoothly as he would have liked, suffering a fractured right ulna just a couple of days into the exhibition season, the result of a Jim Parque pitch...knowing that he was going to make a transition from second base to the outfield once healthy, Womack did not let the injury inhibit him, taking fly balls on a daily basis in camp while wearing a cast on his right wrist...once deemed ready, Tony appeared in 4 rehab games at AAA, going 4-for-16, then made his D'Back debut in the home opener on April 12...at the outset Womack's average dipped to .225 as late as May 2, though he never went more than 2 consecutive games without a hit all season...he snapped out of the offensive doldrums on May 3, starting his first official streak of the year, hitting safely in 7 straight at a .375 clip (12-for-32) while stealing 7 bases...highlights of the streak included a career-high tying 4-hit game on May 7 in New York, featuring the first 2-triple game in franchise history...he also established a club record with 14 consecutive thefts without being caught...not known for his power, Tony hit 4 home runs, the first coming on June 14 in Bank One Ballpark off of Florida's Ryan Dempster, snapping a 384-at bat dry spell...his first homer of the year though didn't carry half the clout of a ball he hit on July 21 in Houston, though it never left the playing field...with the bases loaded, 2-out in the eighth inning and an 0-2 count to Billy Wagner, Tony delivered a sinking liner to left that went to the wall untouched, and the race was on...when it was over, the D'Backs had risen from a 4-3 deficit to a 7-4 win, while Womack recorded the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history, the first grand slam of his career, and the first inside-the-park grand slam in the majors since May 3, 1998 (Seattle's Dan Wilson)...the last N.L. inside-the-park slam was Tony Gwynn on June 26, 1997 in Dodger Stadium...the rally over the Astros was huge, sealing the second win in a stretch where the Diamondbacks would go 10-1 and turn a 2 1/2-game deficit into a 2 1/2-game advantage in the West...things only got better for Womack as the year progressed, hitting safely in 20 of the last 21 games, including a season-high 14-game hitting streak that ran through the season finale, hitting .317 (20-for-63)...on the bases, Tony went 63-for-76 (83%) when swiping second base, and was a perfect 9-for-9 while pilfering third base...though his season began defensively with a new position, rightfield, his athleticism allowed manager Buck Showalter to employ him in a variety of places...all told, Womack made 102 starts in right, 5 in centerfield, 17 at second base to rest Jay Bell, and 18 at shortstop, the position he originally played in the Pirate chain and his anticipated role in 2000.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Tony was the leadoff man in each of the 4 games vs. the Mets, playing in rightfield in the first and third games, and serving as the starting shortstop in games 2 & 4...he scuffled offensively, going just 2-for-18 (.111) with a triple and 2 runs scored...the triple occurred in his second post-season at bat in the first game of the series on October 5.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Tony's second full season with the Pirates, he led the National League in stolen bases for the second straight year, pilfering 58 bases, the second in the majors to Rickey Henderson (66), the first Pirate since Omar Moreno (1978-79) to lead the league in thefts in consecutive seasons...he was the second toughest to double-up in the N.L., hitting into just 4 double plays, a 1 in every 164 at bat ratio (Andy Fox led the league with just 2 GDP's in 502 AB's)...Tony established a major league record by going 918 at bats without grounding into a double play (May 27, 1997 to August 5, 1998), spanning 220 games and 980 plate appearances...Tony led the Pirates with 56 multi-hit games, 10th best in the N.L....he had 32 infield hits, including 11 bunt hits...he was Pittsburgh's opening day second baseman for the second straight year, but closed the year with 5 starts in centerfield...his first homer of the year on June 1 vs. the Mets was also his third career leadoff blast...he tied a career-high with 4 hits on July 5 at Wrigley Field...Tony had a career-best 16-game hitting streak from July 3-22, the longest streak by a Buc in '98, hitting a sizzling .507 (34-for-67), raising his season average from .241 to .284...he had the second inside-the-park homer of his career on July 13 vs. the Cubs, the 500th in franchise history...he swiped 20 consecutive bases from July 5-August 16, the second best streak of his career...he was 50-for-56 (89%) when attempting to steal second base and 8-for-10 when trying to take third. 1997—His first full season in the majors, Tony led the National League in stolen bases (60), third best in the majors...he was the sixth toughest to double-up, grounding into 6 DP's, a 1 in 106.8 AB ratio, all 6 occurring before May 28...he led the Pirates with 51 multi-hit games, and had a team-high 28 infield hits, including 9 bunt hits...his 60 thefts were the most by a Pirate since Omar Moreno swiped 60 in 1982 (Moreno was also the last Pirate to lead the N.L. in steals with 77 in 1979)...Tony stole a club record 32 in a row between April 6 and July 4, breaking Max Carey's mark of 31 in 1922...he was named to the National League All-Star squad, just the fifth Pittsburgh second baseman to be named to the team, joining Carlos Garcia (1994), Phil Garner (1980-81), Bill Mazeroski (1958-59, 1962-64 & 1967) and Frank Gustine (1946)...hit his first major league homer on April 16 at San Diego off of Dario Veras...collected first career inside-the-park homer on May 26 vs. the Cubs...Tony hit his first career leadoff homer on July 27 at San Francisco, hitting Mark Gardner's first pitch of the first game of a doubleheader, then set a career-high with 4 hits in the second game...he hit his second game-opening homer on August 19 off of San Diego's Pete Smith in Three Rivers...he went 4-for-4 with a club record tying 4 stolen bases on Sept. 6 at Cincinnati (Moreno was also the last Pirate to swipe 4 in a game on June 2, 1980)...he was 44-for-49 (90%) when attempting to steal second base, and 16-of-18 (89%) when swiping third...Tony swiped second and third in the same inning 6 times...he had off-season surgery to repair soft tissue injury in his left knee. 1996—He spent the full-season with Calgary (AAA), earning the fans' vote as the Cannons' Most Popular Player...he ranked second in the PCL in stolen bases, while his 11 triples were the second most in team history...he played 79 games at shortstop, 40 at 2nd base and 16 in centerfield...Tony's contract was purchased by Pittsburgh on Sept. 4, and he made his first major league start in centerfield on Sept. 8 in Los Angeles...he made 3 starts in center and 2 at second with the Pirates, while also playing rightfield on Sept. 27 at Chicago. 1995—Opened the year on the Calgary roster, but was optioned to Carolina (AA) on June 3...despite abbreviated season with Carolina, he led the club with 31 stolen bases. 1994—Began the year with Buffalo (AAA)...he was recalled by the Pirates on May 31, appearing in 2 games, then was optioned back to Buffalo on June 8...was recalled again on July 20, appearing in 3 games, then was optioned once again on August 2, finishing the year with Buffalo...he led the club and ranked second in the American Association in stolen bases (41)...set a Buffalo franchise record for most at bats in a year without a home run (421), breaking Felix Fermin's mark in 1988 (352 at bats). 1993—Split the year between Salem (A) and Carolina, combining the 2 stops for a .301 mark with 41 RBI and 49 stolen bases in 132 games...his contract was purchased by the Bucs on Sept. 8 and he debuted 2 nights later as a pinch runner vs. Colorado...Tony made 5 starts at short for the Pirates and collected his first major league hit on Sept. 21 off the Mets' Dave Telgheder...picked up his first 2 major league stolen bases on Sept. 29 vs. Philly. 1992—Spent the entire year with Augusta (A), swiping 50 bases in 75 tries, ranking fourth in the league in thefts. 1991—His first professional season, Tony signed as a seventh round pick by the Pirates and spent the year with Welland (Rookie).

PERSONAL

Anthony Darrell (Tony) Womack...he and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Jessica (9/12/95) and a son, Alsander (3/16/99)...Tony graduated from Gretna (VA) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...his high school #7 was retired, the first Gretna athlete to have a jersey retired...he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Guilford (NC) College...Tony was the co-recipient with Kevin Young as the 1997 Clemente Award honoree, an award given annually since 1973 by the Pittsburgh chapter of the BBWAA...he participated in Winter Tour 2000, traveling to the Valley for an appearance, then making stops in Kingman, Bullhead City and Las Vegas...he is a huge proponent of literacy, and has instituted the "Tony Womack's Cover-to-Cover Reading Competition," a program to encourage grade school kids to read and attend Diamondback games as his guest as a reward...he is also a member of the Greater Phoenix Black Chamber of Commerce...he has also been a participant in the Pepsi All-Star Softball Game in Palm Springs for each of the last 3 winters.

Mike Morgan

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 220 B/T: R/R

Age: 40 (Turns 41 on October 8)

Born: October 8, 1959 in Tulare, CA

Residence: Park City, UT

M.L. Service: 17 years, 111 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed to a minor league contract, January 14, 2000.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

Mike registered the third highest win total of his major league career, going 13-10 for the Texas Rangers, the second highest total on the staff and the most he's recorded since winning 16 for the Cubs in 1992...when he appeared on opening day, Morgan became the first player from a major sports league to perform for 11 different teams, 1 more club than Bob Miller, Ken Brett and Tommy Davis appeared for during their respective careers in baseball, while the NBA and NFL marks are 10 and the NHL record is 9...he also set a major league record by collecting wins with 10 different clubs, winning with every team he pitched for except Toronto...as for the season, Mike went 11-8 with a 6.51 ERA as a starter and 2-2 with a 4.24 mark in relief...he began in the pen, working 3 times in relief before joining the rotation as the fifth starter on April 13...he posted wins in first 3 starts, giving him a career best 4-0 beginning, then fell into 2-4 slide before going on the D.L. from May 24-June 8 with inflammation in his right leg...he went 6-2 through first 11 outings after returning from the injury, raising his season win total to 12, but he was able to record only 1 more win over the last 2 months of the season...he fired the 46th complete game of his career on June 28 in Anaheim, losing a bid for a shutout on a Todd Greene homer with 2 out in the ninth inning...it was Mike's first route-going effort since Sept. 26, 1997 at Montreal...he became the 99th pitcher to start 400 games when he took the hill on July 29 in Baltimore...his win at Detroit on April 7 was first in relief since July 27, 1989, while pitching for the Dodgers...his April 13 victory at Seattle was his first win over the Mariners since August 4, 1979, snapping a drought of 19 years, 8 months and 9 days between victories vs. the M's, the longest dry spell in major league history for a pitcher between wins against one club...the previous mark was set by Cal McLish, who defeated Pittsburgh on May 31, 1944, with Brooklyn, then didn't get them again until May 31, 1964, with the Phils, a span of 18 years, 1 month and 29 days between wins over the Pirates.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Mike ranks sixth among active pitchers in starts (405) and is the active leader is losses (180)...he didn't get his first taste of post-season action until the 1998 season, 20 years after he inked his first pro contract, working twice in relief in the Division Series for the Cubs...he is the only active player who appeared in a major league game in the 1978 season...Rickey Henderson, Jesse Orosco and Tim Raines all made their debuts in 1979...Morgan has defeated 28 of the 30 teams in the majors, the exceptions Tampa Bay, whom he has faced 3 times, and the Diamondbacks, whom he has never faced...has had the misfortune of 15 different visits to the D.L.

1998—Mike had a tough time recording decisions, making 23 appearances (22 starts) during stops with the Twins and Cubs, posting just a 4-3 overall record...opened the year with Minnesota, going 4-2 in 18 games (17 starts)...had a pair of stints on the D.L., suffering a rib cage injury that allowed only 7 days on the active roster between June 26-August 16...made his final start for the Twins on August 19, then was dealt to the Cubs on August 25, his second stint on the north side of Chicago...his lone decision after the trade was a 3-2 loss in St. Louis on Sept. 7, allowing 2 runs, including Mark McGwire's major league record tying 61st home run in the first inning. POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: The only post-season work in Mike's career occurred in the Division Series with Chicago, his 21st season as a professional...he faced the Braves twice in relief, totaling 1.1 shutout innings. 1997—Led the Reds in starts and innings pitched...walked 2 or less in 23 starts, featuring a span of 26.2 straight innings without a walk from May 10-31...disabled from June 8-23 with strained rib cage muscle...lone complete game on September 26 at Montreal. 1996—Started on the St. Louis disabled list after off-season shoulder surgery, working in minor league rehab from April 20-May 15 before activation...went 4-8 through 18 starts before release on August 28...was signed by Cincinnati on Sept. 3, going 2-3 in 5 starts. 1995—Opened the year on the Cubs' D.L. with right shoulder inflammation and a rehab stint with Orlando...was activated on May 25, making 4 starts before being traded to St. Louis in Todd Zeile swap on June 16...worked 8.1 no-hit innings on July 3 vs. Montreal, finally surrendering an infield hit to Wil Cordero...was disabled from July 4-24 with a left hamstring strain...achieved milestones including 2000th inning (August 20 vs. Atlanta), 100th victory (August 25 at Colorado) and 1,000th strikeout (Sept. 9 vs. San Diego). 1994—Was Chicago's opening day starter on April 4 vs. the Mets, but year began winless in 7 decisions through June 1...was disabled 3 times, May 9-27 (inflammation in right elbow), June 2-22 (migraine headaches) and July 28 through remainder of the season (back spasms). 1993—Led the Cubs in starts and innings, while ranking second on the club in strikeouts...he made his first career opening day start on April 5 vs. the Braves...was on the D.L. from June 14-29 with a capsular strain in his right knee....hurled last complete game shutout on July 15 vs. Colorado...doubled for his first career extra-base hit on August 25 at Montreal, snapping 311 plate appearance drought...Cubs averaged 1.7 runs in his 15 losses. 1992—Tied for third in N.L. with 16 wins, while his starts, innings and .667 winning pct. ranked fourth...earned

N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for May, going 5-0 with a 2.32 ERA...had a career best 7-game winning streak from May 2-June 26. 1991—His last year with the Dodgers, Mike ranked third in the N.L. with 236.1 innings, while his 2.78 ERA was seventh best...he opened the year without allowing an earned run through first 19.0 innings (April 14-24)...earned N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for June 17-23...recorded last big league save on July 7 vs. Atlanta...pitched a scoreless inning in his lone All-Star Game appearance at Toronto...Morgan was a complete game 2-0 loser in Dennis Martinez' perfect game on July 28 vs. Montreal. 1990—Tied for the league lead with 4 shutouts...opened the year 4-1 with a 1.40 ERA. 1989—Set personal bests in games and relief appearances (21) with the Dodgers, while posting a career low ERA...went 6-11 with a solid 2.74 ERA in 19 starts, with L.A. averaging just 1.45 runs in his 11 losses...recorded 2 of his 3 career 9-K games. 1988—Mike was 0-6 in 10 starts for the Orioles, while winning his lone decision in relief...was disabled with right calf strain (June 9-July 19), then missed remainder of year after suffering bone chips in his right big toe on August 12...surgery was performed on August 18 to repair abnormal bone growth in right foot. 1987—His third season with the Mariners, averaged just 2.3 walks per 9-innings. 1986—Finished second on the Mariners' staff with 9 complete games, but his 17 losses tied for the A.L. lead...earned his first big league save on April 15 at California. 1985—Opened year in Seattle's rotation, but suffered severely pulled right groin in second start on April 16 at Oakland, missing remainder of the year. 1984—Spent year at Syracuse (AAA), leading the International League in innings and tying for the top spot in shutouts. 1983—Went 0-2 in 4 starts and 0-1 in 12 relief appearances for Toronto...was disabled (July 2-August 23) with right shoulder tendinitis. 1982—Lone year with the Yankees, made his first big league relief appearance on May 14 in Oakland, the site of his major league debut 4 years earlier. 1978—Made big league debut a week after graduating from high school, losing a 3-0 decision to Baltimore on June 11 in Oakland...lost his next 2 starts and was optioned to Vancouver on June 23 for the remainder of the year.

PERSONAL

Michael Thomas (Mike) Morgan...he and his wife, Kassie, and daughters, Mattison (6/16/95) and Mikhail (2/16/97), make their home in Park City, Utah...Mike was a 1978 graduate of Valley High School in Las Vegas, lettering in baseball and football...he had a 7-1 record and 0.68 ERA with 111 K's in 72.0 innings during his senior year, getting the attention of Charlie Finley and the A's, joining Oakland as their #1 selection in the June draft and immediately pitching in the major leagues, just a week after his high school graduation...he is one of only 17 players (10 pitchers) to make his professional debut in the majors since the inception of the draft in 1965.

John Patterson

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 183 B/T: R/R

Age: 22

Born: January 30, 1978 in Orange, TX

Residence: Houston, TX

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent on November 7, 1996...originally selected by Montreal Expos in first round (fifth overall) of June, 1996, draft, but was declared a free agent.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

MINOR LEAGUE: John opened the year with El Paso (AA), making 18 starts for the Diablos before his season was interrupted with the excitement of pitching for the U.S. in the Pan American Games...upon returning from international action, he finished the year with Tucson for his first look at AAA hitters...it took John the better part of a month to post his first AA win, going 0-3 through 5 starts before allowing just a run and 5 hits over 8.0 innings vs. Wichita on May 7...that triumph started a stretch in which Patterson went 8-3 over his final 13 El Paso starts...included were consecutive performances on June 23 and June 28, totaling 16.0 innings allowing just 10 hits and 4 runs, while fanning 24...he was the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week for June 7-13, then was tabbed organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...he finished at AA with 117 K's in 100.0 innings, leading T.L. starters with a 10.53 strikeouts per 9-inning ratio...after a 3-week stint with the Pan Am team, John returned to the organization and made his debut in AAA on August 5...he was 0-4 through 5 starts for the Sidewinders before knocking off Colorado Springs in his next-to-last start on August 31.

PAN AM GAMES: John was an integral part of Team USA that qualified for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia, by earning a silver medal...he made a pair of starts in Winnipeg, including the opener against the host country, working 5.0 innings allowing 2 runs on 4 hits with no walks and 5 K's...he was not involved in the decision, an eventual 7-6 Canada win in 11 innings...he followed that with a win over Panama in the quarterfinals, working 5.2 innings of no-hit ball, finishing with an 8-inning stint, allowing 2 hits and 2 unearned runs, with no walks and 7 strikeouts...all told, Patterson posted a 1.38 ERA finishing with 13.0 innings allowing 6 hits and 4 runs (2 earned), with no walks and 12 K's.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998–His second year as a professional, John led the California League in ERA and ranked fourth in strikeouts...he also had the lowest opponents' batting average (.217) of any starting pitcher in the league...had 80 K's and 15 walks after June 2...his efforts were rewarded by a Baseball America poll of managers, naming Patterson the second best prospect in the California League. 1997–Spent his first pro season at South Bend(Class A Midwest League) where he was much better than his 1-9 record indicated...produced a solid 3.23 ERA and fanned 95 batters in 78.0 innings (10.96 per nine innings).

PERSONAL

John Hollis Patterson...he is single and resides in Houston, TX...as a senior at West Orange-Stark High School in Orange, TX, he was named to USA Today's prep All-America squad with a 7-2 record and a 0.77 ERA in 72.1 innings, fanning 142...his season of travel through 2 minor league stops and the Pan Am Games team did not stop after the regular season ended, as John made 8 starts for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, going 2-3 with a 4.09 ERA.

Turner Ward

Outfielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 204 B/T: S/R
Age: 34 (Turns 35 on April 11)
Born: April 11, 1965 in Orlando, FL
Residence: Saraland, AL
M.L. Service: 7 years, 101 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, February 19, 2000.

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

The 1999 season will be one that Turner won't soon forget, as the switch-hitting outfielder was out of work at one point, then ended up signing and contributing for a club that won a division title...Ward was used sparingly in Pittsburgh with the majority of his work coming as a pinch hitter, making only 17 starts through the first week of June...he was subsequently placed on the D.L. with a right knee injury that had plagued him throughout...once recovered, he was assigned to minor league rehab, first at Altoona (AA) for a game, then to Nashville (AAA)...Ward was released on August 11 by the Pirate organization, but wasn't out of work long, signing a minor league contract with Arizona...he reported to Tucson and began playing immediately, hitting .375 in 12 games...the knee was still not completely right and he was placed on the 15-day big league shelf on August 31... once deemed ready, Turner was recalled to the big league club, playing 10 games for the D'Backs, hitting safely in 7 at a .348 clip (8-for-23)...included were a pair of home runs, including the fifth pinch homer of his career, taking Florida's Ryan Dempster deep for a 2-run shot on Sept. 19 in Bank One Ballpark...that blast came exactly one year to the day of his last major league homer, a Sept. 19, 1998 clout off of Houston's Jose Lima...Turner added his second homer as a D'Back on Sept. 27, another 2-run shot off of Colorado's Dave Wainhouse.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Turner appeared 3 times as a pinch hitter, the first a run scoring ground out in game #2 at home, Arizona's lone win...he the hit the first (and only) pinch-hit home run, a 2-run shot in game #3 at Shea Stadium off of Rick Reed...the blast closed the deficit at the time to 3-2, but the Mets scored 6 times in the sixth to ice the affair...in the fourth game the next afternoon, Ward drew a 2-out pinch walk in the eighth inning igniting a 2-run rally that gave the Diamondbacks a short-lived 3-2 lead.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1998—Spent the entire year with the Pirates, his second full big league campaign, first since 1994...he tied a career best with 9 home runs, while setting personal bests in games, triples and RBI...made all of the highlight films by running through the rightfield wall at Three Rivers while making a catch on May 3...he hit third career pinch home run on June 6 in Pittsburgh off of Minnesota's Mike Trombley...added his fourth career pinch-hit homer on July 25 vs. Atlanta, an inside-the-park roundtripper, just the fourth pinch-hit inside-the-park home run in the Pirates storied history, first since Adam Comorosky on July 16, 1931...Ward suffered a right hamstring strain on August 4 vs. Colorado and was placed on the 15-day disabled list. 1997—Opened spring training on the Birmingham roster (White Sox AA), but was released on April 3...signed as a minor league free agent with Pittsburgh on April 22 and played centerfield for Calgary (AAA) that night...had contract purchased by the Pirates on July 2...he homered in first start for Bucs on July 4 vs. St. Louis, then collected a career-high 4 hits the next night in Busch Stadium...he hit safely in first 11 starts for the Pirates at a .422 clip (19-for-45)...he hit a pinch homer on September 14 vs. the Cubs...Ward had his first career 2-homer game on September 19 vs. the Cards. 1996—The year began in Milwaukee, but batted just .129 (4-for-31) in April...he was placed on the 15-day D.L. on May 29 with a right shoulder strain...did not return until September 1 and went just 1-for-13 to end year. 1995—Turner was Milwaukee's opening day centerfielder, homering against the White Sox...was disabled from June 6-22 with a strained right hamstring that hampered him all season...returned to the shelf on July 2 after aggravating hamstring injury and was eventually placed on the 60-day D.L. ending his season. 1994—His first full season in the majors, Turner was Milwaukee's opening day leftfielder...homered in 3 consecutive games from April 16-19...had a pair of career-high 9-game hitting streaks...made his lone defensive appearance at third base on June 25 vs. the Red Sox. 1993—Was on Toronto's big league roster all year, though he spent 7 games at Knoxville (AA) on an injury rehab assignment in August (left shoulder strain). 1991—Year began with Cleveland but was optioned to Colorado Springs (AAA) on June 11, then traded to Toronto organization just 16 days later. 1990—Played the full year at Colorado Springs, then had his contract purchased by the Indians on September 10...hit first major league homer (Andy McGaffigan) and delivered a career-high 6 RBI on September 15 at Kansas City. 1987—Was a member of the Fort Lauderdale (A) club managed by Buck Showalter and won the Florida State League title.

PERSONAL

Turner Max Ward...he and his wife, Donna, have a son, Tucker (5/10/92), and make their home in Saraland, AL...Turner was graduated from Satsuma (AL) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...he attended the University of South Alabama and Faulkner State Junior College.

Division Series

Steve Finley hit .385 in the series against the Mets, including 5 RBI in the win at home in Game #2.

D'Backs in Division Series

The Diamondbacks not only had their first taste of post-season play in 1999, they also had the fastest taste in major league expansion history, winning the Western Division by 14 games to qualify for the second season in their second season, a year faster than the previous best. Colorado held the previous quickest qualification at three years, though they did so in 1995 as a Wild Card entry and in a 144-game season. Arizona's division title came six years faster than any other expansion club, beating the New York Mets and Kansas City Royals who each won a title in their eighth campaign.

By virtue of their division title, the Diamondbacks had a home-field advantage, taking on the New York Mets, who qualified as the Wild Card club with a one-game playoff victory in Cincinnati the day before. The Mets seemed to still be riding the momentum from their visit to Cincinnati, immediately taking the home-field edge away from Arizona with an 8-4 win in the series opener. The D'Backs rallied to even the series at a game apiece behind the arm of Todd Stottlemyre and bat of Steve Finley, cruising to a 7-1 win in game #2. Stottlemyre, continuing his amazing return from a tear in his right labrum, worked 6.2 innings of 4-hit ball, allowing just a run, while Finley went 2-for-3 with a double and 5 RBI. Matt Williams also chipped in with 3 hits and 3 runs scored.

The Diamondbacks weren't as fortunate upon arriving in New York, losing both games before getting a shot at returning to Bank One Ballpark for a possible fifth game. The Mets dominated game #3, posting a 9-2 win in their return to Shea, scoring 3 times off of starter Omar Daal in a 4-inning stint, then putting the game away with a 6-run sixth inning

Arizona's season came to an abrupt and heartbreaking end in a Saturday matinee at Shea, as Todd Pratt ended the affair and the Diamondbacks season with a 10th inning homer. The Diamondbacks had taken a 3-2 lead in the eighth, when Jay Bell doubled home a pair of runs, missing a 3-run homer by a matter of inches. Pratt, subbing for the injured Mike Piazza, had been hitless in 7 at bats in the series prior to sending the Mets to the next level with his shot just out of Finley's reach in centerfield.

Splash Landings

The Sun Pool Party Pavilion has been a popular target since the opening of Bank One Ballpark. A total of 15 home runs have actually made a splash in the pool, while several others have rattled around among the party goers. The Sun Pool Party Pavilion is available for rental on a daily basis and sits just beyond the right-centerfield.

Expansion History

On November 18, 1997, at the Phoenix Civic Plaza, the Arizona Diamondbacks and Tampa Bay Devil Rays officially joined the major league baseball fraternity by drafting 35 players each to make up their inaugural rosters. Tampa Bay started the festivities by selecting Tony Saunders, then the Diamondbacks followed by drafting Brian Anderson from the Cleveland Indians. Entering spring training, 2000, the Diamondbacks have eight players on their 40-man roster who were among the original expansion selections. Included is Russ Springer, who was selected in the third round and opened the 1998 season with Arizona before being traded to Atlanta at mid-season. He has since rejoined the D'Backs as a free agent.

Following are the original 35 players selected by the Diamondbacks. The players in boldface type are the eight original draftees who were with the Diamondbacks in spring training this year.

Items of Interest

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual field champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

(NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.)

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

(1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or

(2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

How to Figure

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Kendall Carter

National Coordinator

Kendall Carter was promoted to National Coordinator before the 1997 season after serving as the Diamondbacks' National Supervisor for the Western Region in 1996. He joined the Diamondbacks for the 1996 season from the Seattle Mariners, where he was area supervisor for Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah.

Carter, a hometown product from Scottsdale, played for Arizona State from 1981-84. He holds ASU records for wins in a career (47) and single season (19). He compiled a 19-1 record and earned All-America honors for ASU's national title team in 1981.

Carter was an assistant coach at ASU from 1986-90. The Sun Devils advanced to the College World Series in 1987 and 1988, finishing second nationally in 1988 after losing the championship game to Stanford.

Ed Durkin

Eastern Supervisor

Ed Durkin has moved into the role of National Supervisor for the Eastern Region this season, his fourth year as a member of the Arizona organization. Durkin joined the Diamondbacks in September, 1996, as the team's professional scouting supervisor, a position that involved him in the Major League Baseball Expansion Draft in 1997.

He came to Arizona from the Milwaukee Brewers, for whom he had been a full-time scout since 1988 and a national cross-checker from 1993-96. Durkin resides in Safety Harbor, FL.

Kris Kline

Central Supervisor

Kris Kline joins the Diamondbacks this season as National Supervisor for the Central Region, bringing with him a wealth of baseball experience. For the last 10 years, he has worked in the scouting department of the Anaheim Angels after playing for four seasons in the Angels' minor-league system. He also made a mark on Arizona baseball as a young player.

Kline helped Grand Canyon University win the NAIA national championship in 1982 and also helped Scottsdale Coronado High School capture the Arizona high school title in 1979. He will be based in Scottsdale, AZ.

Steve Springer

Western Supervisor

Steve Springer, who began his scouting career with the Diamondbacks in 1995 as an area supervisor for Southern California, took on new responsibilities after the 1997 season when he was promoted to National Supervisor for the West region. He played professionally for 14 years, reaching the majors on a pair of occasions, with the Cleveland Indians in 1990 and the New York Mets in 1992. He was a member of four minor-league championship teams. Springer resides in Huntington Beach, Calif.

International Scouting

Junior Noboa
Latin American Coordinator

Derek Bryant
Mexico Coordinator

From their inception, the Arizona Diamondbacks have placed a high priority on searching for baseball talent wherever it might be found. That effort paid off during the team's National League Western Division championship series in 1999, when the roster included players the Diamondbacks had signed from Cuba, Korea, Mexico and Nicaragua. The organization has scouted and signed players from 11 foreign countries (Australia, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Korea, Mexico, Netherlands Antilles, Nicaragua, Panama, Venezuela) as well as the United States and its territory of Puerto Rico.

Junior Noboa, director of the Diamondbacks' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, serves as Latin-American Coordinator. He was the Diamondbacks' first international hire, joining the team in August, 1995. Junior was the recipient of the first Roland Hemond Award in 1997, given annually to the member of the baseball department who best exemplifies the "Diamondback" approach to their work.

In Mexico, the Diamondbacks have a working agreement with the Monterrey Sultans of the Mexican League along with a strong scouting team headed by Ossie Alvarez, who has been involved with the game in Mexico since 1952.

Mexico Coordinator Derek Bryant moves into his new role this year after serving as manager of the Diamondbacks High Desert team in the California League in 1999. Bryant had a career batting average of .355 in the Mexican League from 1982-88 and has managed in both the Mexican League and winter Mexican Pacific League since 1995. Derek is also credited in the discovery and subsequent signing of Hermosillo-native Erubiel Durazo.

Jim Marshall

Director of Pacific Rim Operations

A baseball expert on both sides of the Pacific Ocean, Jim joined the franchise in 1996 as the Director of Pacific Rim Operations. The Scottsdale resident is in charge of maintaining relations with baseball organizations in Japan, Korea, Taiwan and Australia. He has also been known to don the uniform on occasion with the big league club to impart his baseball wisdom.

Marshall played for 5 seasons in the majors, including a stint with the orginal '62 New York Mets. He also managed the Chicago Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland A's in 1979.

He first visited Japan in 1960 on a goodwill tour as a player with San Francisco, then 3 years later was the first American player to sign with a Japanese team (Chunichi). He averaged 30 homers and 100 RBI in his two seasons there.

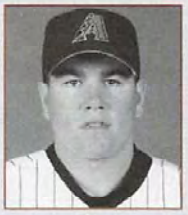
1999 Organizational Awards



Jack Cust
Player of the Year

Andrew Good
Pitcher of the Year

Power-hitting Jack Cust, in his third professional season, led the California League with 32 home runs and missed the batting championship by just 3 points with a .334 average. He was runner-up in voting for both Most Valuable Player and Rookie of the Year, while earning a spot on the league's post-season All-Star Team.

Cust, a 20-year-old outfielder, led the league in both on-base percentage (.450) and slugging percentage (.651), while finishing second in runs (107), second in extra-base hits (77) and fourth in runs batted in. He was ranked as the league's No. 3 prospect by Baseball America.

Cust was the Diamondbacks' first round choice in the 1997 First-Year Player Draft after a sensational career at Immaculata High School in Somerville, NJ. He was signed by Arizona scout David May Jr., and hit .306 that summer for the Diamondbacks' entry in the rookie-level Arizona League. Cust followed that up in 1998 with a .344 batting average for Lethbridge in the rookie-advanced Pioneer League, leading the circuit in runs (75) and on-base percentage (.528).

In just his second season of professional baseball, 20-year-old Andrew Good fashioned a 11-10 record for the South Bend Silver Hawks in the Class A Midwest League. He finished third in the league in strikeouts (146), while walking just 42 batters in 153.2 innings of work.

It was a breakthrough season for Good, who appeared in just 11 games in 1998. He opened that year with the Tucson Diamondbacks in the Arizona League, fashioning a 1-3 record with a 4.28 earned-run average before being moved up to South Bend for two relief appearances.

Good was Arizona's eighth round selection in the 1998 June draft after graduating from Rochester High School in Rochester Hills, Mich. He was signed by Arizona scout Scott Jaster.

June Free Agent Drafts

1999 Draft

Corey Myers, the most profilic power hitter in Arizona high school history, was the Diamondbacks' first-round pick and the fourth overall selection. Myers hit a state record 22 home runs in leading Phoenix Desert Vista High School to the state Class 5A championship. The Diamondbacks signed 32 of their 48 draft choices. Arizona did not pick in the third, fourth or fifth rounds because of free-agent signings.

Minor League Coordinators

Gil Patterson

Pitching Coordinator

Born: September 5, 1955 in Philadelphia, PA
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 210 Residence: Plantation, FL

Patterson is in his fourth year as the Diamondbacks' minor league pitching coordinator after coming to the organization from the Oakland Athletics. At one time, he was regarded as one of the game's top young pitching prospects, reaching the major leagues with the New York Yankees in 1977 at the age of 21 and earning a World Series ring as a rookie. Injuries, however, cut short a promising career, and Patterson retired as a player after the 1983 season. His coaching career began in 1984 in the Yankees' farm system, where he remained as a pitching coach until joining the Oakland organization in 1991.

Ron Hassey

Catching Coordinator

Born: February 27, 1953 in Tucson, AZ
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200 Residence: Tucson, AZ

In addition to his duties as a special assistant to the general manager, Hassey will spend his spring back in uniform as the Diamondbacks' minor league catching coordinator. It is a role for which he is suited, spending 14 seasons as a major league catcher, hitting .266 in 1,192 games. Included in his life behind the plate were a pair of perfect games, catching Len Barker's gem while with the Indians, then calling the signals for Dennis Martinez's perfect afternoon in Los Angeles. Born and raised in Tucson, he earned All-America honors at the University of Arizona before turning pro. He scouted for the New York Yankees and coached with Colorado and St. Louis before joining the Diamondbacks for the 1997 season. He was heavily involved in scouting for the 1997 Expansion Draft.

Derek Bryant

Outfield Coordinator

Born: October 9, 1951 in Lexington, KY
Ht: 5-11 Wt: 185 Residence: Hermosillo, Sonora, MX

Bryant moves into a new double role after leading High Desert into the California League playoffs in his first year as a member of the Arizona organization. In addition to his duties as outfield coordinator, he will be scouting coordinator for the Diamondbacks in Mexico. Bryant was a professional outfielder for 17 seasons after a stellar career at the University of Kentucky. He was named the Southern League's 1976 Player-of-the-Year, tying for the league lead in triples (10) and stolen bases (42). Bryant made his debut as a player/manager for Culiacan of the Mexican Pacific League in 1987, and was named the Mexican League's Manager of the Year in 1996 when his Monterrey team won its second straight title. He was also instrumental in the discovery and eventual signing of Erubiel Durazo from the Mexican League.

Tom Spencer

Manager

Born: February 28, 1951 in Gallipolis, OH

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180 Residence: Tucson, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: Spencer played professionally as an outfielder for 11 seasons, reaching the majors with the Chicago White Sox in 1978. He batted .274 in 1,228 minor league games. Defensively, he led American Association outfielders in fielding percentage in 1974 (.982) and 1975 (.993), earning a Silver Glove award in 1975.

COACHING CAREER: This season brings him back to his starting point. Spencer began his coaching career at Tucson in 1981, when the Toros were Houston's PCL franchise. He served on major league staffs as a first-base coach (Cleveland, 1988-89, and New York Mets, 1991) and as a third base coach (Houston, 1992-93).

MANAGING CAREER: This will be his fourth consecutive season as a manager at the Class AAA level and his first year as a member of the Diamondbacks' player development team. Came to Arizona from the Chicago White Sox organization where he led Charlotte to the International League championship in 1999 and Calgary to the Pacific Coast League championship series in 1998. Charlotte finished second to Durham in the regular season before defeating the Bulls in the Governors Cup finals.

Chuck Kniffin

Pitching Coach

Born: October 28, 1950 in Rockville Center, NY

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 200 Residence: Florissant, CO

PLAYING CAREER: Pitched professionally for 10 years, all in the Philadelphia organization. Was named Topps Western Carolina League Pitcher of the Year in 1972 when he had a 13-1 record with a 2.11 ERA

COACHING CAREER: Joining the Diamondbacks in 1997, Kniffin's first assignment was to serve as pitching coach at High Desert, helping the Mavericks win the California League championship. He moved up to Tucson when Diamondbacks added a Class AAA affiliate in 1998. Before joining Arizona, Kniffin logged nine years as a pitching coach in the Seattle and Montreal organizations. In 1995 and 1996, he was pitching coach for the Expos' top farm team, Ottawa in the Class AAA International League. In 1994, he won the John McHale Award, given to Montreal's most outstanding minor league staff member.

Mike Barnett

Coach

Born: February 1, 1959 in Columbus, OH

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 175 Residence: Knoxville, TN

PLAYING CAREER: A shoulder injury suffered while at catcher at Ohio University spelled a premature end to his playing career. Barnett did not play professionally.

COACHING CAREER: Barnett joined Arizona in 1998 as coach at Tucson after eight seasons as a hitting coach in the Chicago White Sox organization, serving in 1997 with the White Sox team in the Gulf Coast League (Rookie). His previous assignments with the White Sox included Sarasota in the Class A Florida State League (1990-92), Birmingham in the Southern League (1993-95) and Hickory in the South Atlantic League (1996). Was assistant administrator of baseball operations and video director for the New York Yankees from 1982-87 and then joined Mark Connor, current Diamondbacks' major league pitching coach, on the baseball staff at the University of Tennessee. He was named Tennessee's interim head coach when Connor resigned in 1989.

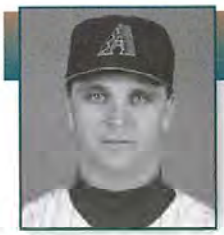
Texas League - Class AA



Bobby Dickerson

Manager

Born: September 4, 1965 in Laurel, MS

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 182 Residence: Laurel, MS

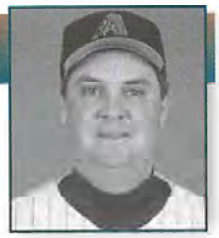
PLAYING CAREER: Originally drafted by the New York Yankees in 1987, Dickerson played professionally for seven minor league seasons. Working primarily as a shortstop, he eventually reached the Class AAA level before retiring after the 1993 campaign. As a collegian, he starred for Nicholls State, where he set school records for home runs (28) and doubles (58), while stealing 132 bases.

COACHING CAREER: Dickerson began his coaching career as a player/coach for the Baltimore Orioles' Rochester affiliate in the Class AAA International League in 1993 and was the Orioles' minor league infield instructor in 1994-95. He joined the Arizona organization as infield coordinator for the 1998 season and was elevated to field coordinator for 1999.

MANAGING CAREER: The 2000 season is Dickerson's first year as a full-season manager, but his credentials are perfect. He managed the Orioles' Bluefield affiliate in the short-season Appalachian League in 1996 and 1997, winning the league championship each year. His two-year record with Bluefield was 82-55 for a .599 winning percentage.

Year	Team	League	W	L	Pct.	Finish
1996	Bluefield	Appalachian	42	26	.618	1st
1997	Bluefield	Appalachian	40	29	.580	1st

1996 Playoffs—Defeated Kingsport in best-of-3 championship series, 2-1.
1997 Playoffs—Defeated Princeton in 1-game playoff for East title. Defeated Pulaski in best-of-3 championship series, 2-0.



Dennis Lewallyn

Pitching Coach

Born: August 11, 1953 in Pensacola, FL

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 200 Residence: Pensacola, FL

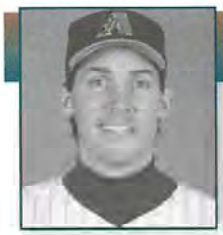
PLAYING CAREER: Lewallyn pitched in the major leagues for eight seasons during his 11-year professional career, making his big league debut with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1975. His other major league stops were at Texas in 1980 and Cleveland in 1981. In 1980, he was the Pacific Coast League Player of the Year for Albuquerque, sporting a 15-2 record with 24 saves, and was named to the Class AAA All-Star Team in 1980 and 1981.

COACHING CAREER: One of the franchise's first player development acquisitions, Lewallyn joined the Diamondbacks in 1996 as pitching coach for the Lethbridge Black Diamonds, who led the Pioneer League in team earned run average (3.68). He moved up to South Bend in 1997 and to High Desert in 1998, and is in his second season with the Diablos. Before joining the Diamondbacks, he was a pitching instructor in the Los Angeles organization for 13 seasons.



Ty Van Burkleo

Coach

Born: October 7, 1962 in Oakland, CA

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 225 Residence: Mesa, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: Van Burkleo played professionally for 14 seasons, reaching the major leagues as a first baseman with the California Angels in 1993 and the Colorado Rockies in 1995. He also found success on the other side of the Pacific, hitting 38 homers and driving in 90 runs in Japan for the Seibu Lions in 1988.

COACHING CAREER: After serving as a player/coach for Lake Elsinore (Angels) in 1996, Van Burkleo joined the Diamondbacks as a full-time coach at Lethbridge in 1997. He moved up to High Desert in 1998 and advanced to El Paso for the 1998 season.

Scott Coolbaugh

Manager

Born: June 13, 1966 in Binghamton, NY

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 195 Residence: Sequin, TX

PLAYING CAREER: After earning All-America honors at the University of Texas, Scott played professionally for 12 seasons. He reached the major leagues in 1989 with the Texas Rangers, called up after hitting 18 homers and driving in 74 runs for their Class AAA affiliate in Oklahoma City. He spent parts of four seasons in the majors with Texas, San Diego and St. Louis. Baseball travels then took him to Japan, where he played for Hanshin in 1995 and 1996, and to Korea, where he played for Hyundai in 1998. He joined the Diamondbacks organization as a minor-league free agent on December 3, 1998, for his last season as a player.

COACHING CAREER: Coolbaugh's career in player development began in 1999, when he was transferred from Tucson to the Diamondbacks' Texas League affiliate in El Paso as a player/coach.

MANAGING CAREER: This will mark his first full season as a manager. He cut his managerial teeth in the Arizona Instructional League last fall, guiding the Diamondbacks' entry to an 11-9 record.

Mike Parrott

Pitching Coach

Born: December 6, 1954 in Oxnard, CA

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 210 Residence: Longmont, CO

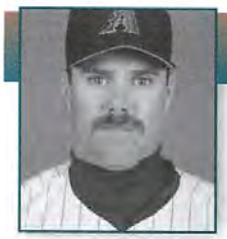
PLAYING CAREER: Parrott pitched professionally for 14 seasons after signing with the Baltimore Orioles as their first round draft pick in 1973. He reached the major leagues with Baltimore in 1977, but notched his greatest success in Seattle. Parrott set Mariners records (since broken) for wins (14), innings (229) and ERA (3.37) in 1979 and was named the team's Pitcher of the Year.

COACHING CAREER: Parrott's coaching career began in 1988 as part of the Montreal Expos organization. He moved to the Florida Marlins for 1995 and 1996 as pitching coach for Class AAA Charlotte. He joined the Diamondbacks in 1997 as pitching coach at Lethbridge (Rookie Advanced) and moved up to Class A South Bend for 1998 and to High Desert last year.



Rick Schu

Coach

Born: January 26, 1952 in Philadelphia, PA

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190 Residence: Carmichael, CA

PLAYING CAREER: Playing 17 professional seasons, primarily as a third baseman, Schu wore major-league uniforms during nine campaigns. He made his big league debut in 1984 with the Philadelphia Phillies and also played for the Orioles, Angels, Tigers and Expos. He finished his career by traveling to Japan for the 1993 and 1994 seasons. Schu compiled a lifetime batting average of .246 in 580 bigleague games.

COACHING CAREER: This will be Schu's second season at High Desert. He began his career in player development in 1998 as a coach with the Diamondbacks' South Bend affiliate in the Class A Midwest League.

South Bend Silver Hawks

Midwest League - Class A

Dave Jorn

Manager

Born: October 2, 1954 in Belleville, IL

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190 Residence: Fairview Heights, IL

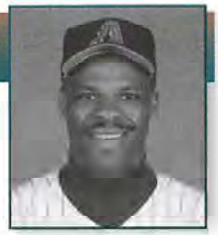
PLAYING CAREER: Jorn pitched in the St. Louis Cardinals' system for six seasons after being signed as a non-drafted free agent. He compiled a combined 20-12 record for St Petersburg of the Class A Florida State League in 1978 and 1979.

COACHING CAREER: This is Jorn's second consecutive season at South Bend, but his first as manager. He served as the team's pitching coach in 1999 after joining the Diamondbacks for the 1998 season as pitching coach at Lethbridge of the Pioneer League. Dave came to the organization from the New York Mets, where he was pitching coach for Capital City in the Class A South Atlantic League for two seasons. Before that, he was pitching coach for the Mets' Kingsport affiliate in the Appalachian League. He began his coaching career as pitching coach at the University of Arkansas in 1983.

MANAGING CAREER: Jorn makes his debut as a manager this year.



Royal Clayton

Pitching Coach

Born: November 25, 1965 in Santa Monica, CA

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 210 Residence: Glendale, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: Clayton, older brother of major league shortstop Royce Clayton, pitched professionally for 11 years, beginning in the New York Yankees organization in 1987. His best season was 1989, when he was 16-4 with Manager Buck Showalter's Albany/Colonie team in the Class AA Eastern League. In 1996 and 1997, he was a player/coach for the Brother Elephants in Taiwan. In 1997, he also pitched for Torreon in the Mexican League and for Lubbock in the Texas-Louisiana League.

COACHING CAREER: After spending 1999 as pitching coach for Missoula's Pioneer League championship team, Clayton moves up to his first assignment with a full-season team. He began his career in player development with the Diamondbacks in 1998, when he served as pitching coach for the Tucson Diamondbacks in the Arizona League.

Rodney Lofton

Coach

Born: October 7, 1967 in East St. Louis, IL

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 180 Residence: Belleville, IL

PLAYING CAREER: Lofton logged eight minor-league seasons as a middle infielder before retiring after the 1995 season. He won the Texas League (Class AA) batting championship in 1994, hitting .331 for the El Paso Diablos. He also stole more than 50 bases twice in his career, peaking with 62 for Frederick in 1989 and adding 56 for Hagerstown in 1991.

COACHING CAREER: This will be Lofton's first season in player development. He has been actively involved in youth baseball camps and clinics throughout Illinois and Missouri while working for the St. Louis law firm of Thompson and Coburn as a computer specialist.

Jim Reinbold

Coach

Born: January 30, 1930 in South Bend, IN

Ht: 5-8 Wt: 170 Residence: South Bend, IN COACHING CAREER: An Indiana baseball icon, Reinebold has been a member of the Silver Hawks' field staff every season since the team's inception in 1988, except for a one-year absence in 1996. He gained area fame as head baseball coach at South Bend Clay High School for 25 years, winning the Indiana state championship in 1970. He is a charter member of Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame. In 1971, Reinebold managed the Coos Bay-North Bend A's, Northwest League farm team of Oakland Athletics.

Pioneer League - Rookie (Advanced)

Chip Hale

Manager

Born: December 2, 1964 in Santa Clara, CA

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 195 Residence: Tucson, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: After an outstanding career at the University of Arizona (starting every game for 4 years), Hale played 12 seasons as a professional, including all or part of 7 campaigns in the major leagues. He made his debut with Minnesota in 1990 and ended his big league run with Los Angeles in 1997. Hale hit .333 in 69 games with the Twins in 1993 and finished with a major league lifetime average of .276. In 1987, he signed with the Twins as their 17th-round draft choice and hit a league leading .345 as the second baseman on a Kenosha team that won the Midwest League championship. He was the first player to lead a full-season league in hitting in the same year he signed.

COACHING CAREER: In his first year out of a professional uniform, Hale spent the 1999 season as an auxiliary coach at USA Baseball in Tucson, AZ, working with both the U.S. National team and the U.S. Intercontinental Cup team.

MANAGING CAREER: The 2000 season is Hale's first experience as a manager.

James Keller

Pitching Coach

Born: June 13, 1966 in San Francisco, CA

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 185 Residence: Long Beach, CA

PLAYING CAREER: Keller did not pitch professionally. He pitched for Santa Rosa (CA) Junior College in 1989 and 1990, and was named the team's Most Inspirational Player in his second season.

COACHING CAREER: The 2000 season marks Keller's first year in professional player development, although he spent three years as an assistant coach at Long Beach (CA) City College (1993-95) and two years as an assistant at Cypress, CA, College (1996-97). He has been a member of the Diamondbacks scouting staff since 1997 and now serves as area supervisor for southern California. His signings include outfielder Darryl Conyer (third round, 1998) and pitcher Jeremy Ward (second round, 1999).

Aurelio Rodriguez

Coach

Born: December 28, 1974 in Cananea, Mexico

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 195 Residence: Los Mochis, Mexico

PLAYING CAREER: Inducted into the Mexican Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996, Rodriguez played 17 seasons in the major leagues, coming up to the California Angels as a 19-year-old third baseman in 1996. The Angels' farm/scouting director who helped purchase his contract from Jalisco was Roland Hemond, now Executive Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations for the Diamondbacks. Considered one of the game's finest fielders, Rodriguez broke Brooks Robinson's streak of 16 consecutive American League Gold Glove Awards at third base when he won it in 1975 as a member of the Detroit Tigers. He led A.L. third sackers in fielding in 1976 (.978) and 1978 (.987).

COACHING CAREER: Rodriguez returns to coaching in the United States this season after a long absence, last working in the Cleveland Indians' organization in the mid-80's before returning to his native Mexico.

MANAGING CAREER: Rodriguez has been a manager in both the Mexican League and the winter Mexican Pacific League since 1985. His Mexican League teams have included Monterrey, Saltillo, Reynosa and Monclova, while his Mexican Pacific League teams include his home town of Los Mochis, as well as Obregon and Guasave. He managed the Monterrey Sultans to the Mexican League championship in 1991.

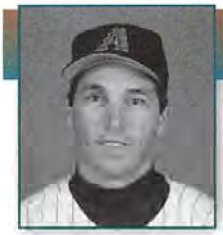
Arizona League - Rookie



Bob Mariano

Manager

Born: June 5, 1957 in Sewickley, PA

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 195 Residence: Phoenix, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: Mariano earned All-Southeastern Conference honors as a Louisiana State third baseman in 1979 and played for the USA team that won the Intercontinental Cup in Cuba. Undrafted, he signed with the New York Yankees and his six-year professional career began in 1980 when his Paintsville team won the Appalachian League pennant; it ended at Charlotte in 1985 when he served as a player/coach. He won a Silver Glove at third base for Fort Lauderdale in 1982, again playing on a championship team.

COACHING CAREER: The 1986 season began a long road trip for Mariano, who acted as a player/manager for teams in Italy (Rome, Anzio) and Australia (Newport) in 1986 and 1987. He returned to the U.S. and the New York Yankees' organization in 1988 and coached for back-to-back Eastern League pennant winners at Albany-Colonie, working in 1989 under current Arizona Manager Buck Showalter. He captured another ring at Albany-Colonie in 1991 before moving to the Milwaukee organization in 1993. He served as hitting coach for the 1994 El Paso team that won the Texas League championship.

MANAGING CAREER: Mariano serves as the Diamondbacks' minor league hitting coordinator until June, when he makes the move into the dugout for the start of the Arizona League schedule. This is his first managing duty since 1997, when he took over the Milwaukee Brewers' Tucson affiliate in the Pacific Coast League in midseason, guiding the club to a 30-40 record and a third place finish in the second half. He made his managing debut with the Milwaukee organization in 1995, piloting Stockton to a 74-65 record in the Class A Advanced California League.

Year	Team	League	W	L	Pct.	Finish
1995	Stockton	California	74	65	.532	3rd
1997	Tucson	Pacific Coast	30	40	.429	3rd

Mark Davis

Pitching Coach

Born: October 19, 1960 in Livermore, CA

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215 Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: Davis reached the pinnacle of his trade during an 18-year professional pitching career that ended with his retirement in March, 1998. The lefthanded relief specialist won the National League Cy Young Award in 1989, when he compiled a league-leading 44 saves and a 1.85 ERA for the San Diego Padres. Mark broke into the major leagues with Philadelphia in 1980. After sitting out the 1996 season because of shoulder surgery, he signed with the Diamondbacks for 1997 and made a remarkable return to the major leagues, pitching at High Desert and Tucson before receiving a call from the Milwaukee Brewers.

COACHING CAREER: This will be Davis' second season as pitching coach for the Diamondbacks' youngest group of players. A Valley resident, M.D. spent large portion of his winter at Bank One Ballpark, working with pitchers who came in for off-season throwing sessions.

Carlos Mota

Coach

Born: January 10, 1968 in San Cristobal, DR

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 210 Residence: Haina, DR

PLAYING CAREER: Mota logged 12 seasons in the minor leagues as a catcher after being signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Cleveland Indians in 1986. He hit .300 in 62 games for Watertown in the New York-Penn League in 1989 and stole 14 bases for Kinston in the Carolina League a year later, and twice reached the AAA level. He has spent the last four seasons in independent leagues, hitting .304 for Bangor in the Northeast League in 1997.

COACHING CAREER: Began his career in player development last season when he served as a player/coach for St. Paul in the independent Northern League. This is his first season in the Arizona organization.

Diamondbacks On the Air

Thom Brennaman

Television and Radio Play-by-Play

The Diamondbacks have the good fortune of possessing one of the strongest television booths in the game, with FOX Network's weekend warriors Thom Brennaman and Bob Brenly on hand for the majority of the season. Brennaman, who came to Arizona two years before a game was played, teams with his weekend partner to describe the action on both 3-TV and FOX Sports Net. Thom also slides over to the radio booth for the middle three innings of every game, joining Rod Allen on KTAR Radio, as Greg Schulte pays his daily visit to the television booth. He also serves as the host of D'Backs Playin' Hardball on Sunday's on 3TV.

Brennaman's quick wit and knowledge of the game he was raised around allow Diamondback fans to enjoy baseball on the airwaves. The booth is a frequent stop for VIP's who visit the ballpark, as evidenced by their "Wall of Fame." The duo has also been known to venture out of the quiet confines of their Bank One Ballpark perch for appearances poolside and in Friday's Front Row for game telecasts.

A veteran at the youthful age of 36, Brennaman joined the D'Backs after a stint in Chicago with superstation, WGN, working both the radio and television side of Cubs' baseball. Thom's broadcasting career began in 1986 in Cincinnati, the same town his father, Marty, has been mikeside for Reds' baseball since 1974, and will be inducted into the broadcast wing of baseball's Hall of Fame this summer the day before the Diamondbacks play in the exhibition game at Cooperstown. The younger Brennaman worked for four years as a weekend sports anchor for WLWT-TV, then for a year on morning drive on WLW Radio. Thom broke into major league baseball in 1988, announcing Reds' baseball for two seasons, working with Hall of Fame catcher Johnny Bench on television, while his father was in the radio booth. He has also done college basketball play-by-play, including the University of Cincinnati Bearcats.

Thom graduated from Ohio University in 1986, and is in the process of graduating from single life, using the last off-season to get engaged to Polly Rassi.

Bob Brenly

Television Analyst

An All-Star catcher during his playing days, Bob Brenly has taken little time to prove that the "tools of ignorance" actually provided him with an education that has been put to extensive use behind a microphone. His in-season work with the FOX Network has also led to their marquee baseball events, including the All-Star Game and World Series coverage. No stranger to his partner in the booth, Bob teamed with Thom Brennaman on the radio side in Chicago, and they continue to work together on Saturday's during the summer months on their weekly FOX Network assignments.

Brenly spent nine seasons as a major leaguer, the majority of which was behind the plate, but he proved his value and versatility by also playing third base, first base and even dabbled in the outfield. His best overall campaign was 1984 with the Giants, hitting .291 with 20 homers and 80 RBI, including a spot on the National League All-Star team, playing in his home field of Candlestick Park. Bob hit 91 homers in his career, with 73 of those coming in a four-year span from 1984-87.

After retiring as an active player in 1989, Brenly spent two seasons in the radio booth in Chicago before accepting a coaching position with the Giants. He once again gave up the uniform for the booth in 1995, taking on his current role with the FOX Network, while eventually adding his Diamondback duties.

An Ohio native, Bob and his wife, Joan, have a daughter, Lacey (7/9/82), and son, Michael (10/14/86), and they reside in Scottsdale. When not in the television booth, Bob is an avid hunter, fisherman and can also be found on a variety of golf courses in the Valley.

Greg Schulte

Play-by-Play

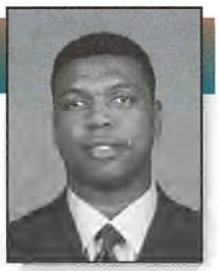
An accomplished announcer in a variety of sports in the Valley, Greg achieved the goal that he long set out to do, announce play-by-play for a major league baseball franchise when he was named to the Diamondbacks broadcast team. His duties call for six innings a day with Rod Allen in the KTAR Radio booth, and three innings on the television side, except on FOX Network weekends, when he will work the television side, teaming with Joe Garagiola. The former sports director at KTAR (620 AM), the flagship station for the network, Greg's voice has called some of the more memorable sports moments in the Valley since his arrival in 1979.

Prior to joining the Diamondbacks, Schulte handled the color commentary for the Phoenix Suns broadcasts on KTAR, while also serving as an analyst on Arizona State University football and basketball. He has also shared the play-by-play duties on ASU baseball broadcasts.

A consummate professional, Greg is one of the early arrivals at the ballpark on a daily basis preparing for that day's broadcast. While waiting for the start of the 1998 season, Schulte and his radio partner, Rod Allen, traveled to several National League cities to get a feel for each other on the air. The extra effort worked, as the duo has established a solid partnership in their two seasons together..

Prior to arriving in the Valley, Schulte was the sports director for WQUA radio in Moline, IL, handling the play-by-play for University of Iowa basketball. Greg and his wife of 26 years, Nancy, have two children, Scott (19) and Stephanie (15) and make their home in Glendale.

Rod Allen



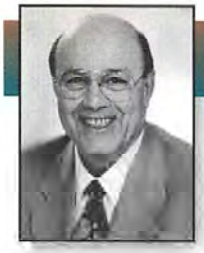
Analyst

A veteran in the game of baseball, Rod has made a smooth transition from the field to the broadcast booth, applying the knowledge gained while in a uniform and using it to describe the intricacies of the game on radio. Teaming with Greg Schulte and Thom Brennaman in the KTAR Radio booth, Allen has brought an insightful player's perspective to the broadcasts. His arrival in the radio booth came about on the advice of Brennaman, who thought Rod had a future in broadcasting during the summer of '97 and convinced him to turn in his uniform for a microphone. Rod also contributed on the television side during the first two seasons, filling in when Thom and Bob Brenly were away. Allen has also joined Barry Buetel on Diamondbacks Countdown prior to each FOX Sports Net telecast.

A former player, he was the hitting coach for the Phoenix Diamondbacks in Rookie League in 1996 and managed the organization's Instructional League club before heeding the advice of Brennaman, who had told Rod that his knowledge of the game would be invaluable in a broadcast booth. Allen took that advice and spent some of 1997 studying the game from a different perspective and working on broadcasts of the Arizona Fall League.

His playing career spanned 15 years, including a trio of stops in the majors with Seattle (1983), Detroit (1984) and Cleveland (1988). Rod played from 1989-91 with Hiroshima in the Japanese League. In '91, Allen hit a pair of homers in the Japan Series against the Seibu Lions, and the previous season tied a Japanese League record with home runs in 4 consecutive at bats. He was originally drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the 6th round of the 1977 draft.

Rod is no stranger to expansion, working for the Marlins' organization as their hitting instructor from 1992-95. He and his wife, Adrian, have a son, Andrew (7/ 10/89), and daughter, Rachel (2/12/91). Rod also has a son, Rod Jr. (9/21/83) and daughter, Rhonda (11/13/76).



Joe Garagiola

Television Analyst

Joe Garagiola Sr., will once again grace the Diamondback television booth on weekends this summer, when Thom Brennaman and Bob Brenly are summoned for their national FOX duty. The turn of the century marks his fifth decade of baseball on television, with Joe bringing his trademark humor, enthusiasm and insight to homes throughout the Southwest.

It all started on the diamond for Garagiola, who broke into the big leagues as a catcher in 1946 with the St. Louis Cardinals, the year the Redbirds won the World Series in 6 games, with Joe contributing 4 hits in game #4. His 9-year playing career took him from St. Louis to the Chicago Cubs, Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Giants.

Garagiola's career then made a successful turn into the entertainment field, not only providing his expertise on baseball telecasts, but also working a variety of game shows and possessing a regular spot on the NBC Today Show. Regardless of how busy his week was, Joe still found the time and energy to become a staple on NBC's Saturday Baseball Game-of-the-Week.

An Arizona resident, Garagiola has been extremely active in the community and was honored as the 1998 recipient of the Children's MVP Award presented by the Jim Eisenreich Foundation. The award goes to a former player who has made significant contributions to children's causes. Garagiola was cited for his anti-tobacco efforts and for his work with Native American youngsters. He continues to work tirelessly for B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, and is very visible in major league spring training camps educating players on the evils of spit tobacco.

Brad Cesmat

Radio Play-by-Play

The newcomer to the radio booth this year is far from a newcomer to those who listen to KTAR Radio, as Brad Cesmat will have the opportunity to call play-by-play on the FOX Network weekends that pull Thom Brennaman and Bob Brenly out of town. A six-year veteran of sports talk in the Valley, Brad has had his own sports talk show on both KTAR (620 AM) and its sister station KMVP (860 AM), while also co-hosting a weekly show with Jerry Colangelo on the Diamondbacks flagship station.

Though Cesmat may not have been a part of the Diamondbacks immediate family, he has been instrumental in an array of events involving the club since its inception. He broadcast his talk show from a still under construction Bank One Ballpark, hosted the radio coverage of expansion draft day festivities at Civic Plaza, drummed up support for All-Star voting that placed two Diamondbacks in the starting lineup in Boston, and most recently buried a time capsule in centerfield at the ballpark last December.

Brad and his wife, Chris, have three children, Kyle (9), Allie (6) and Brenna (4) and make their home in Ahwatukee.

Barry Buetel

Fox Sports Net

One of the most visible and most popular hosts in the Valley is in his third season anchoring "Diamondbacks Countdown" on FOX Sports Net. Barry's job doesn't stop after the half-hour pre-game, as he also files in-game reports from a variety of areas in Bank One Ballpark, as well as on the road. While most involved with the Diamondbacks get to pull away from their roles in the off-season, there is no off-season for Buetel, who also has similar responsibilities on Phoenix Coyotes telecasts with "Coyote Countdown," both home and road, and anchors "Sun Devil Countdown" for Arizona State telecasts. He also served as the radio host for the Arizona Cardinals pre- and post-game last fall.

Barry came to Arizona in 1996 after covering the NHL's Buffalo Sabres and the AAA Buffalo Bisons for the Empire Sports Network. Since making the move to the Valley, he has also been spotted as a sideline reporter for Pac-10 college football and hosted the ASU/UA football pre-game show, "Duel in the Desert."

Barry's career has also included pre- and post-game work for WKNR Sports Radio 1220 in Cleveland, the Indians' flagship station. Buetel attended the Brown Institute of Radio and Television and the University of South Florida.

Barry and his wife, Shannon, make their home in Phoenix.

Diamondbacks en Español

The Diamondbacks will broadcast every home game on radio in Spanish, and some selected road games, with KPHX, 1480 AM serving as the flagship for the third straight season.

The Diamondbacks will also have 14 of their games televised regionally via Telemundo, KDR-TV, Channel 64 in Phoenix. The Spanish telecast will also be available in Tucson on Telemundo, KHRR-TV, Channel 40.

Miguel Quintana

Spanish Television and Radio

A name synonymous with sports in the Hispanic community is the Spanish language television and radio voice of the Diamondbacks, as Miguel Quintana is the team's television Hispanic announcer. When not working the television side, he and partner Oscar Soria will be in the radio broadcast booth. Quintana also continues to host KDR-TV's popular "Cinco en Punto."

Miguel began his career as a 15-year old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora. In 1981, he joined KIFN (now KVVA) radio in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to Channel 33, eventually becoming sports director. Quintana's career also ventured to Los Angeles, where he was sports anchor and director at KVEA-TV. He returned to the Valley in 1995 as play-by-play voice of the Arizona Sandsharks soccer team.

Miguel has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. He has three daughters, Lisette (16), Jasmine (11) and Jennifer (6).

Oscar Soria

Spanish Television and Radio

The 2000 season will be Oscar's first full year in the major league broadcast booth for the Diamondbacks, joining the Spanish productions at the midway point last year. Though new to the Bank One Ballpark booth last year, his name is synonymous with baseball fans in Mexico, where he began working Hermosillo Naranjeros broadcasts in 1988 at the ripe young age of 18, and still continues to work those games.

Soria has been in the broadcast booth for four Caribbean Series, including the 1996 series when Mexico won the crown in Santo Domingo. He also covers the Diamondbacks for El Imparcial, writing a daily column, and when in Hermosillo, he hosts a television show on baseball. Oscar was among the nominees of announcers for the Mexican Pacific League "All Century Team," finishing second in the balloting.

His on-air expertise is not limited to baseball, as Oscar has also covered basketball, boxing, soccer, tennis and football for Telemax in Sonora. The 29-year old graduated from Universidad del Noroeste with a degree in accounting. Oscar and his wife, Benny, make their home in Hermosillo.

Rene Boeta

Enrique Lopez

Spanish Radio

When Miguel Quintana and Oscar Soria are unavailable for radio chores, the familiar voices of Rene Boeta and Enrique Lopez will be on the KPHX airwaves (1480 AM).

In his third season in the Spanish broadcast booth, Rene is a native of Merida, Yucatan in Mexica, and has been part of baseball on radio since the 1950's when he worked on the transmissions of the Peninsular League. He also worked on broadcasts of the Mexican Central League with Los Caneros of Mante, Tamaulipas.

Rene served as a special guest on the broadcasts with Los Leones of Yucatan and was a sportscaster on a variety of radio stations in Mexico and the United States. He has also worked on a baseball sports magazine in his hometown of Merida and has served as a Spanish commentator for Phoenix Suns basketball.

Rene and his wife, Stella, have two daughters, Renee (14) and Alejandra (12), and a son, Antonio (10).

Also in his third year mikeside for the Diamondbacks, Enrique began working in radio in 1959. He was the baseball voice for the "Winter League of the Pacific" with AAA teams including Naranjeros de Hermosillo, Yaquis de Ciudad de Obregon and Mayos de Navojoa. He has also traveled to Venezuela for the "Serie del Caribe." Lopez has written for the Sports Press of Mexico, with articles appearing in several magazines and newspapers throughout the country. He has worked for KPHX Radio since 1987.

Enrique and his wife, Marta, have three daughters, Gabriella, Giovana and Mariela and a son, Enrique.

Remembering Our Friends

Two members of the media who dedicated their lives to sports coverage will be forever rememebered in the press facility at Bank One Ballpark. The untimely passing of Channel 12's Steve Pascente and nationally known sportswriter Dick Dozer deprived each the opportunity to witness Major League Baseball in the Valley. The Arizona Diamondbacks are proud to honor each individual with a permanent tribute in the stadium.

Steve Pascente
Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the Diamondbacks opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer
Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Koms. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the Diamondbacks' front office, as his son, Rich, is the team President.

Arizona Diamondbacks
Public Relations Department

Director - Public Relations — Mike Swanson
Manager - Media Relations — Bob Crawford
Media Coordinator - Public Relations — Brenda Morse
Staff Assistants — Mike McNally, Jeff Munn and David Pape

It is a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks . Bank One Ballpark already ranks as one of the premier sports facilities in the world, and our department will do its best to take care of any reasonable requests. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 2000 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, on company letterhead at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. Requests may be made via FAX only if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the P.R. office.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations, and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Bank One Ballpark is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. For the 2000 season, we have also designated a small space for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Bank One Ballpark where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. The clubhouse is the dressing and preparation area for the players for that day's game and is not a place for the media to congregate. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to the first pitch, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Bank One Ballpark prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones for radio interviews is prohibited on the field or in the clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Diamondbacks' Public Relations Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game will be stopped by the umpiring crew. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Bank One Ballpark is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least 2 hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The Diamondbacks are also pleased to offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need for use arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a nominal charge ($7.00), and will be served 2 hours prior to game time and up through the end of the first inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Bank One Ballpark, please contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 462-6099.

Bank One Ballpark

Bank One Ballpark

From its signature swimming pool to its retractable roof, Bank One Ballpark has become one of the game's most recognizable landmarks in just two season. Since the air-conditioned facility first opened its doors to a regular-season game on March 31, 1998, more than 6.6 million baseball fans have enjoyed the opportunity to watch the Arizona Diamondbacks without worrying about Phoenix's summer heat or monsoon storms.

Owned by Maricopa County, the 49,033-capacity Ballpark joins nearby America West Arena in making downtown Phoenix the sports hub of the Valley of the Sun. It is located just one block east of AWA, home of the NBA's Phoenix Suns and NHL's Phoenix Coyotes. The Ballpark is bounded by Jefferson Street on the north, Fourth Street on the west and Seventh Street on the east. Easiest freeway access is by taking the Seventh Street exit from either I-10 (turn south) or I-17 (turn north).

With an elevation of approximately 1,100 feet, Bank One Ballpark is the second-highest facility in the major leagues, trailing only Coors Field in Denver. Scientists have estimated that a fly ball will travel about 7 feet farther for every 1,000 feet of altitude.

The Structure

Ground was broken on Nov. 16, 1995, for a construction project that took 28 months and cost $354 million.

Bank One Ballpark was designed by Ellerbe Becket, with architect Bill Johnson as the design principal. John Wasson was the project manager for the Arizona Diamondbacks, with Huber, Hunt & Nichols serving as the managing contractor.

The Ballpark incorporates the traditional look of red brick and green structural steel in a setting that blends into its surroundings. Many of the building's design details are borrowed from the historic warehouse district that surrounds it. One former warehouse, the Arizona Citrus Growers' Packing House, is actually preserved and incorporated into the south facade of the the building. Appropriately, that former food warehouse is used as a commissary for the Ballpark's concessions stands.

The Roof

The retractable roof, comprising 9 million pounds of structural steel, operates on the same tried-and-true technology found in drawbridges and overhead traveling cranes. A pair of 200-horsepower motors open or close the roof in slightly more than four minutes, utilizing more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. Each half of the roof consists of three moveable trusses which telescope over a fixed end truss. The east and west sides of the roof can operate either in unison or independently. Either side of the roof can be opened to any position in order to maximize sunlight on the turf and minimize sunlight on the interior steel and concrete. In 1999, 51 home games were played under a closed roof and 30 under open skies. Highest temperature for the start of a game with the roof open was 87 degrees.

The Field

It took some experimentation before the turf at Bank One Ballpark hit the Bull's Eye. In this case, it means Bull's Eye bermuda, which was installed on the playing field over the All-Star Game break in July, 1999, and proved the best solution to date for growing a natural grass field in a roofed facility.

For the 2000 season, the playing field will again be Bull's Eye bermuda, overseeded with Kentucky blue grass and perennial rye grass.

Even though more than half of the Diamondbacks' games are played with the retractable roof in a closed position, the turf receives sunlight at every opportunity. Even on game days, the roof remains open into the afternoon to allow maximum exposure. When areas of the field receive too little natural sunlight, large incandescent growth lights provide a substitute.

The layout of the field includes a strip of turf between the track and the wall, giving outfielders double warning against a possible collision. Another visible feature of the field takes baseball fans at Bank One Ballpark back in time almost 100 years. There is a dirt path between the pitcher's mound and home plate, reminiscent of the paths seen in very early pictures of the game.

In a way, that path is symbolic of the Bank One Ballpark experience: The best of baseball history and tradition displayed in a setting that features all the modern conveniences.

Keeping Cool

The 8,000-ton cooling system is the equivalent of air conditioning for more than 2,500 typical Arizona homes. The system incorporates air handlers and a large cooling tower on the south side of the Ballpark. The air handlers push 1.2 million cubic feet of air per minute across cooling coils containing water chilled to 48 degrees.

The system, which is designed to bring the temperature down by 30 degrees in three hours, is configured to deliver cool air only to the seating areas and concourses. It will not cool the entire volume of the Ballpark.

Seating and Tickets

Because Bank One Ballpark is a baseball-only facility, its sight lines are second to no other. More than 80 percent of the seats are inside the foul poles, and there is no upper deck around the outfield. What's more, the seats down the foul lines beyond the infield are slightly canted toward the infield so that no fan will have to twist his or her body to look toward second base and the pitcher's mound.

All lower-deck seating is directly accessible from the lower concourse, which is at the same level as the outside pedestrian entry plazas and gates. The concourse itself is open to the playing field so fans can stay in touch with the game while visiting the concessions stands, merchandise store or other amenities.

The Infiniti Diamond Level is designed to provide exclusive locations and amenities. This level features lounges and dining areas servicing approximately 4,400 club seats. Above those seats are 69 private luxury suites designed to offer the utmost in comfort and catering.

One floor up from the suite level, the upper concourse seats approximately 20,000 fans. Escalators on the west side of Bank One Ballpark take guests to either of the upper levels.

Finally, behind the centerfield wall is the Fry's Picnic Pavilion, with seats available to individuals or groups. The Pavilion has picnic tables on tiers to allow approximately 600 fans a full view of the action while enjoying a picnic or family gathering. During the 1999 National League Division Series, a portion of the picnic area was converted into an overflow press box.

Food

The Ballpark offers a wide variety of food and drink. Fans heading for the rotunda that marks the main entrance will have an opportunity to stop at Leinenkugel's Ballyard Brewery in the plaza along Fourth Street. The brew pub's game-day menu, specially tailored to fans, features items that do not require utensils so guests can carry food to their seats. The 20,000-square foot building features a 60-foot, 6-inch mahogany bar in the main restaurant, mirroring the distance between the pitcher's rubber and home plate.

The main concourse and upper concourse feature approximately a quarter mile of concessions stands, offering traditional ballpark fare, while specialty stands located throughout the park give fans their choice of such treats as McDonald's (Bank One Ballpark is the only MLB facility in the United States to have the Golden Arches inside), Blimpie's sandwiches, Little Caesar's pizza and Garcia's Mexican food. Fans will also find specialty ice cream, yogurt, smoothies, shaved ice and specialty popcorn.

There's even a farmer's market. Fielder's Choice offers a selection of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Friday's Front Row Sports Grill in the left-field corner gives fans an opportunity to enjoy fine food and beverages while they watch the game from the terraced seating. The Sports Grill is open every day but Christmas.

The upper concourse houses two 6,000-square foot Miller Lite beer gardens that overlook the playing field.

On the Infiniti Diamond Level, the Arizona Baseball Club in the rightfield corner provides fine dining and a spectacular view for fans in the club seats or luxury suites.

Sun Pool Party Pavilion

On a warm evening in Phoenix, some folks like to relax around the pool. Others prefer to go to the ball game. Patrons of the Sun Pool Party Pavilion at Bank One Ballpark are able to do both.

In recreating an upscale Arizona backyard, the Pavilion gives about 35 guests the opportunity to see the Diamondbacks play while enjoying a swimming pool, hot tub, fountains, catering and other amenities.

The Pavilion is located next to the outfield wall in right-center. With the pool approximately 415 feet from home plate, home runs occasionally make a splash. Seven balls found the water in 1999, including shots by Diamondbacks Steve Finley and Erubiel Durazo. When a Diamondback homers, water cannons celebrate by firing streams 30 to 35 feet into the air.

Bank One Ballpark's main purpose of existence is to house Diamondback baseball, but the off-season for the players is far from an off-season for the stadium, which houses events that vary from a Boat Show (above) to off-road events, religious conferences and concerts. The winter calendar for next year already features a womens college basketball game.

Parking

Like any downtown sports facility, Bank One Ballpark utilizes the established parking infrastructure for its guests. An attached 1,500-car parking garage provides parking for guests on the Infiniti Diamond Level. Away from the park, downtown Phoenix boasts some 33,000 parking spaces within a 15-minute walk of Bank One Ballpark. The Diamondbacks estimate that about 15,000 spaces are necessary to accommodate a sellout crowd.

Fox Sports Net DiamondTown

While Bank One Ballpark offers fans up-to-the minute amenities and comfort, it also evokes a sense of baseball's history and tradition. Nowhere is this more evident than on the main concourse in Fox Sports Arizona DiamondTown.

Video walls, a graphic timeline and three-dimensional exhibits give Diamondbacks fans 10 themed areas featuring the best of baseball history.

Cox Clubhouse

Located behind the picnic area in center field, the Cox Clubhouse is a two-story baseball experience. The area houses exhibits lent to the Diamondbacks by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., along with the "Extra Innings" interactive baseball activities and the "Dugout," a high-tech communication and information area.

Music

Traditional baseball means organ music, and Bank One Ballpark has some of the best in the talented fingers of Bobby Freeman. He moved into the major leagues without a hitch in 1998 after being a long-time fan favorite as organist for the Pacific Coast League's Phoenix Firebirds.

Bank One Ballpark Trivia

- Bank One Ballpark is a venue for more than just baseball. In its two years of existence, the building has also hosted such varied events as concerts, marching-band competitions, motorcycle supercross racing, off-road truck racing, religious convocations and boat shows.
- The building contains more than 60,000 cubic yards of cast-in-place concrete. That is enough to build a sidewalk 4 feet wide and 4 inches deep from Phoenix to San Diego.
- The roof structure weighs 41.7 pounds per square foot.
- When the roof is fully retracted, the opening is almost 5.5 acres. America West Arena could be lowered through the opening without touching any walls. Actually, eight America West Arenas would fit inside Bank One Ballpark.
- The roof is opened and closed by a pair of 200-horsepower electric motors. Each time the roof is opened or closed, it runs up the electric bill approximately $2. On the other hand, it costs nearly $12,000 to air condition the park for a single game.
- At peak demand, water usage is 2,500 gallons per minute. Five hundred of those gallons are associated with evaporation in the air-conditioning system's cooling tower.
- Nobody likes to wait in line. That's why there are 340 restroom facilities for women and 276 for men.
- If all the truckloads of dirt that came out of the Bank One Ballpark excavation were lined up end to end along I-17, the line would stretch to Flagstaff, turn east on I-40 and extend past Winslow.

Grant Trenbeath

Head Groundskeeper

Though he is a knowledgeable professional in his role of Head Groundskeeper, two seasons in Bank One Ballpark have been an added education process for Grant. The first groundskeeper asked to grow grass in a domed facility, Trenbeath learned an immense amount about his trade under unusual circumstances and has made several adjustments since the original turf was installed prior to the 1998 season. His role began with the Diamondbacks seven months before a game would be played on the Bank One Ballpark field, and he has tried many different variations of grass until hitting on what appears to be the right combination last July. During the All-Star break, Trenbeath and his crew installed Bull's Eye bermuda, overseeded with Kentucky blue grass and perennial rye grass and that combination held up better than any previous types.

Trenbeath is no stranger to baseball diamonds or growing grass in the desert, joining the Diamondbacks after working for the Oakland Athletics' organization. His responsibilities included three seasons as the head groundskeeper for the A's minor league complex at Papago Park, and for their Cactus League headquarters at Phoenix Municipal Stadium, long recognized as one of the best spring training surfaces in Arizona. Prior to moving to the Valley, Trenbeath spent three years as the head groundskeeper for Oakland's minor league affiliate in Medford, Oregon. His current responsibilities also include the practice fields at the training facility in Tucson.

He attended Willamette University in Oregon. Grant and his wife, Trina, make their home in Chandler.

Bank One Ballpark Promotions

While the nightly focus will be on the playing field, the Diamondbacks also pride themselves with one of the most diverse promotional schedules in professional sports. Fans are not only treated to quality giveaway items throughout the season, there are several theme nights interspersed throughout the home schedule, encouraging fan participation.

In addition to the premium giveaway items, every Sunday home date allows kids 15 years of age and younger allowed to run the bases immediately after the ball game.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities

Established in 1997, before the Arizona Diamondbacks ever played a major league game, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities focuses on the three areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball field development.

A 13-member board of Diamondback and Maricopa County appointees are responsible for annually approving all grant applications. The grant application period runs through the calendar year closing on December 31. Any 501(c)3 non-profit organization in Arizona is welcome to apply.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities generated over $650,000 in 1999 to be distributed before the beginning of the 2000 season. Funds for Arizona Diamondbacks Charities are raised through events such as the annual Diamondbacks Charities Golf Classic, Corporate Slugfest, "Shirts Off Our D'backs," ALS Autograph Party, MDA Wives Auction, Bank One Ballpark tour program and other team related activities.

The Arizona Diamondbacks take great pride in being recognized as a leader in community giving. Our commitment to the needs of our state will continue be a cornerstone of our corporate mission.

Board members are:

Honorary Chairman	Jerry Colangelo
President	Mike Kennedy
Vice President	Rich Dozer

Roberto Clemente Award
Presented by John Hancock

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (orignally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will submit three candidates to MLB. A local panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services and made up of local community representatives will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Alan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Tony Gwynn (1999), Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

Diamondback Chronology

1990

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

1993

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

November 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

February 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of Seventh Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

November 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named president and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes vice president and general manager.

March 11: Season-ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The Diamondbacks finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

Aug. 17: The Diamondbacks unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounties, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

November 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the Diamondbacks have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the American League's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees, leading them to a wild-card playoff spot in 1995, signs a 7-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

November 16: Ceremonies, including a game between two Little League teams, celebrate the groundbreaking for the Bank One Ballpark.

1996

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a Diamondbacks' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: Lefthanded pitcher Nick Bierbrodt of Long Beach, Calif., becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the Diamondbacks' Arizona League team make its debut. Outfielder Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie-league team wins, 15-7.

October 11: The Diamondbacks announce the signing of Olympic first baseman Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, righthanded pitcher John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

January 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place the Diamondbacks in the National League's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the Diamondbacks' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

September 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the Diamondbacks sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Class AAA affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

November 17: Shortstop Jay Bell becomes the Diamondbacks' first major leaguer when he leaves the Kansas City Royals to sign a five-year contract with Arizona.

November 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the Major League Baseball Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The Diamondbacks' first choice is lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians.

December 1: Third baseman Matt Williams comes to the Diamondbacks from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends third baseman Travis Fryman and left-handed pitcher Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension which commits him to Arizona through 2003.

January 10: Single game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

February 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial Sportspark in Tucson to inaugurate the Diamondbacks' first major-league spring training.

February 27: In the Diamondbacks' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz hits a ninth inning sacrifice fly that scores Kelly Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the Diamondbacks celebrate the first regular season game in franchise history. Colorado wins, 9-2, but not before Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first-inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 4: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win over San Francisco that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete-game shutout, scattering four hits in a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Bank One Ballpark.

September 4: A 3-1 win over Houston gives the Diamondbacks their seventh consecutive victory, equalling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

September 13: Andy Benes comes within two outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win at Cincinnati, highlighting a September in which he was 3-0 with an 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

December 1: Lefthanded pitcher Randy Johnson decides to pitch in his hometown and agrees to a 4-year contract.

February 25: President Clinton visits the Diamondbacks at their spring training facilities in Tucson, visiting with players and staff members before accepting a team uniform jersey with his name and the numeral 1 on the back.

February 26: Tony Womack arrives from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player to be named later (pitcher Jason Boyd).

April 11: Luis Gonzalez cracks a seventh-inning homer off Atlanta's Greg Maddux, beginning a hitting streak that will last through May 18. Gonzalez is the 37th player in major-league history to reach the 30-game plateau.

April 19: Jay Bell is named National League Player-of-the-Week, becoming the first Diamondback ever to win the award. Before the season ends, he will be joined by Matt Williams (twice), Randy Johnson (twice) and Steve Finley. Williams was also NL Player-of-the-Month for April and Johnson was Pitcher-of-the-Month for July.

May 12: Matt Williams 2-run, game-winning homer caps a 5-run ninth as Arizona comes from behind for an 8-6 win over Montreal. It is the third straight night that the Diamondbacks beat the Expos with a homer in their final at bat. Jay Bell was the hero on May 10, with Luis Gonzalez doing the honors on May 11.

June 25: Bank One Ballpark plays host to its first no-hitter as St. Louis' Jose Jimenez outduels the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson, 1-0. The game's only run scores on Thomas Howard's single in the top of the ninth inning.

July 9: Arizona's bullpen is solidified with the addition of closer Matt Mantei, acquired from Florida for pitcher Vladimir Nuñez, pitcher Brad Penny and a player to be named later.

July 11: Jay Bell's grand slam in the sixth inning wins $1 million for fan Gylene Hoyle of Chandler, who predicted the player and the inning before the game as part of Shamrock Farms Grand Slam Sundae. As an afterthought, the Diamondbacks beat Oakland, 7-4.

July 13: Third baseman Matt Williams and second baseman Jay Bell become the first Diamondbacks to start an All-Star Game. Pitcher Randy Johnson and left fielder Luis Gonzalez also make appearances. No team could boast more representatives.

July 21: Tony Womack legs out a ninth-inning, inside-the-park grand slam off relief ace Billy Wagner to give the Diamondbacks a 7-4 victory in Houston. It is the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

September 24: Matt Williams scoops up Doug Mirabelli's ground ball and throws to first base for the final out of an 11-3 victory in San Francisco that mathematically clinches the National League West championship for the Diamondbacks. Arizona becomes the first expansion team to reach the playoffs or win a division title in its second year of competition.

September 26: An estimated 8,000 fans jam the Bank One Ballpark Plaza to greet the Diamondbacks on their return home from their sweep of the Giants.

October 3: The Diamondbacks notch win No. 100 of the year in the season finale. Bernard Gilkey and Rod Barajas hit back-to-back home runs in a 10-3 win over San Diego at Bank One Ballpark.

October 5: In the team's first post-season appearance, Arizona drops an 8-4 decision to the New York Mets. Edgardo Alfonzo's ninth-inning grand slam, his second homer of the day, makes the difference.

October 6: Todd Stottlemyre scatters 4 hits over 6.2 innings to help the Diamondbacks notch their first post-season win, 7-1, Steve Finley's two-run single in the third puts Arizona ahead to stay.

October 9: Arizona's season ends when Todd Pratt homers in the bottom of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory in Game Four of the NL Division Series.

November 11: The Diamondbacks earn their first Gold Glove Award when Steve Finley is honored as one of the National League's top fielding outfielders.

November 16: After leading the major leagues in strikeouts, innings pitched and complete games, Randy Johnson gives the Arizona franchise its first major individual trophy by winning his second Cy Young Award.

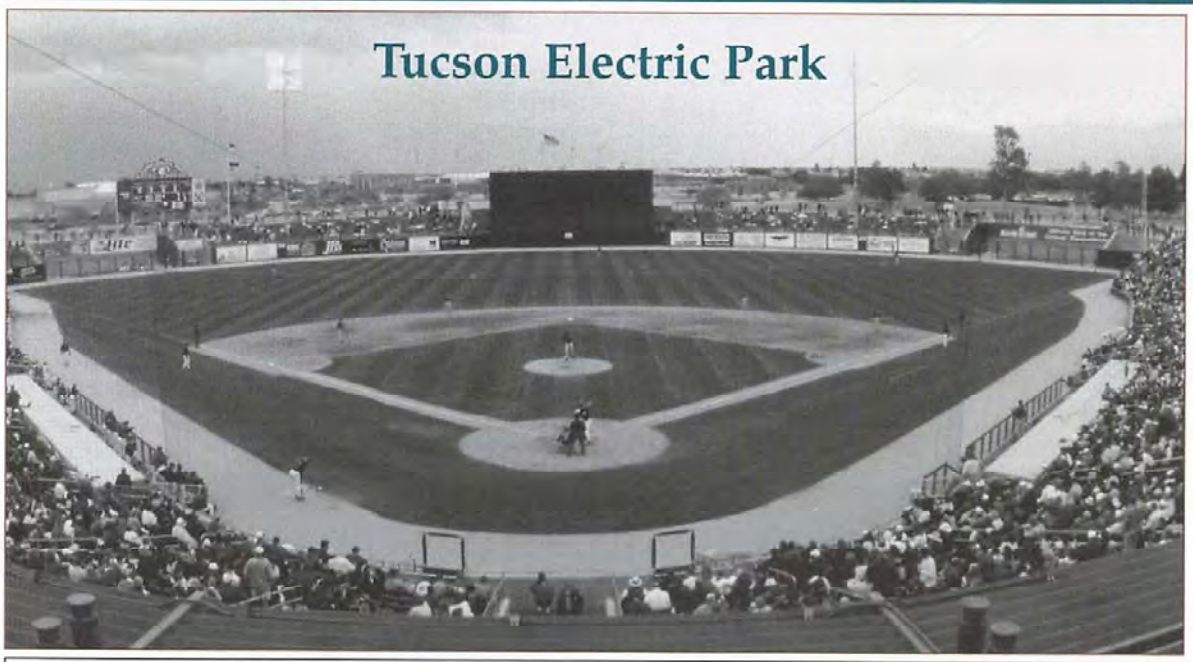
Infield work is just one of the many elements of the daily regimen for Matt Williams and his teammates in Tucson.

Spring Training

Tucson Electric Park



The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox share Tucson Electric Park during the month of March, with thousands of fans from both the Valley and Windy City making the trip to the Old Pueblo for exhibition action. T.E.P. seats 11,000 which includes room for 3,000 fans on the lawn beyond the outfield fence.

The Diamondbacks not only have the good fortune of training less than two hours away from Bank One Ballpark, they have the opportunity to work in one of the most modern spring facilities in baseball. Tucson Electric Park is the centerpiece of the Pima County Kino Sports Complex, that also includes six-field practice facilities for both the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox.

Tucson Electric Park has a capacity of 11,000, including 8,000 seats in the main grandstand and another 3,000 available on the outfield lawn. Also the summer home of the Tucson Sidewinders, T.E.P. features a major league clubhouse that the Diamondbacks use during the spring, and clubhouses for visiting clubs and umpires. The home clubhouse also has an indoor batting cage located on the lower level on the way to the playing field.

During the spring session, the Diamondbacks will dress daily in the major league clubhouse at Tucson Electric Park, while doing the majority of their work at the minor league complex across Ajo Way. Once the exhibition season begins, Arizona will take batting practice either on the stadium field, or on a diamond behind T.E.P., where the D'Backs also have a half-field for infield work. The Diamondbacks generally hit the field at 9:30 on a daily basis during the workout phase of camp.

Though spring records mean very little, fans got a good read on the Diamondbacks last spring, as Arizona posted a 22-10 ledger in Cactus League play.

The spring of 2000 marks the 54th year for spring training in the Tucson community, with last season the first time that three clubs called the Old Pueblo home. While the D'Backs and White Sox work at the Kino Complex, the Colorado Rockies continue to call Hi Corbett Field their spring home.

Tucson Electric Park has a symmetrical playing surface, measuring 340 feet down each foul line and 405 to straightaway centerfield. The spring home for the Diamondbacks is located at 2500 East Ajo Way in Tucson.

Perhaps this looks familiar.
Probably because it's on your wallpaper, license plate, coffee mugs, pajamas, mowed into your lawn and tattooed on your body.

We're such big fans of the Diamondbacks, our name's on the ballpark.

Congratulations 1999 National League Western Division Champions.

From one home team to another.

To the Diamondbacks: You've been in town two years and already you've become a tradition. That's not surprising though. When you're the home team here, folks support you long after the final out. And that's how they've supported us. Ever since 76 and Circle K teamed up, families have made it a tradition to stop in for high performance 76 gasoline, while also meeting their on-the-go needs at Circle K. All in one quick and easy trip.

So Diamondbacks, we just wanted to wish you the best this season. And to let you know this town is pulling for you every step of the way.

76 K

Your Home Team.
